Intelligence reached Glencoe Sunday evening of the death of Dr. John Nutt, at San Diego, Cal. He had had a serious illness some months ago, but was so much better as to be about again. A few days ago he suffered the fracture of the both lower limbs, and doubtless the suffering from this casualty, in his enfeebled condition and advanced age, hastened the end, Dr. Nutt was one of the pioneers of Glencoe—one of the company who laid out and procured the charter for the village, and one of the f w who improved his property and made here his permanent home. He came from southern Ohio to Chicago when a young man, and for a time practiced medicine in the city, but later engaged largely and successfully in the real estate business. His recollections of Chicago went back to the time when Black Hawk was a captive of the United States, and he saw the great chief at dinner at the Tremont House. Dr. Nutt was a man of wide intelligence and keen business sagacity. He had a broad and generous toleration for opposing opinion, and a kindly feeling for his fellow-men; a good citizen in every relation of life; a man personally of most engaging and lovable qualities. He was respected by all who knew him, and greatly beloved by those who were fortunate enough to possess his intimate friendship. Friends and neighbors in Clencoe will receive the news of his death with heartfelt sorrow.

The annual meeting of the Congregational Church was held on Wednesday evening. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Reports from the Trustees, Missionary Societies, Musical Committee, Christian Endeavor Society, Guild, Prudential Committee and Opportunity Club were read, commented on and accepted. Mr. Frank Andrew was re-elected as trustee and Mr. Lowden was elected to fill the vacancy made by the death of Dr. Nutt, who has been one of the trustees continuously since the founding of the church. Mr. H. P. Williams was elected clerk. Mr. A. Day was elected Sunday school superintendent with Mr. Killems of Lakeside as assistant. Mr. Howard Nutt was re-elected treasure and the same musical committee was retained. Arthur Day and Mrs. Bugh were elected to the Prudential committee. The treasurer's report will be printed and circulated in the church.
