Baptist Church Notes

At the Baptist Church Sunday morning, Pastor Thompson preached on "Worry," which was appreciated, as this is a timely subject for this day and age. He said: "This is not only a modern disease of the mind, but it is an ancient disease as well. It is the disease that Martha had when rebuked by Jesus being cumbered with much serving. At seven o'clock Mrs. Thompson conducted the young people's service, and talked on "Making Life worth while," after which the society was organized with the following officers: President, Aura Chrisman; vice president, Charity McKenzie; secretary, Helen Hill; treasurer, Mrs. Stevens. Only chairmen of the various committees were appointed, each chairman to choose his own committee, which will be announced later. Judging from this first meeting, which was an enthusiastic one, there is promise of great good to be accomplished by this young people's society of the Baptist Church. The young people's meeting at seven o'clock will be the only evening meeting in this church during the next few weeks. Sunday school at 10 in the morning and preaching at 11 by the pastor, and B. Y. P. U. at 7 each evening. Prayer meeting at eight o'clock Wednesday evening.

Monday evening Miss Evans entertained the Philathea class of young ladies at her home on First St. The program was made up of readings from various authors, and a chapter from the study book, reviewed by Miss Margery Thompson. Mrs. Harold Larson from Green Bay, Wis., favored the company with vocal selections; another out-of-town guest was Miss Hazel Bailey from Northwestern University at Evanston. After the program each guest wrote a brief letter to Mrs. James Warren of Kalamazoo, Mich., a former teacher of the class. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Stevens, and petite Miss Irene Stevens. The next meeting of the class will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. J. Brown on Ridgewood Ave.

Next Thursday evening the B. Y. P. U. of the church will give an ice cream social on the church lawn on Laurel Ave. to which all are invited.
