Constance Talmadge in

"EAST IS WEST"

Adapted by Frances Marion from the play by Samuel Shipman and John B. Hymes, produced by William Harris, Jr.

Remember Its Thrall on the Stage? Great! But Now See It on the Screen—

—the new piquancy of little Ming Toy, who "don't think China—don't feel China—don't know why for Hell God ever put her in China."

Yesterday, offered as a slave on the Love Boat at Shanghai. Today, sought as wife-slave in San Francisco's Chinatown—caught in the whirlpool of color-conflict when white man and yellow love her. Delightful, poignant, winking, wooing, smiling, sobbing little Ming Toy—sometimes you'll cry over her, sometimes laugh.

A simple, old-fashioned story of plain people, embracing the four seasons.

A story of loves—Man and Woman—Mother and Baby.

A great bell tolling Humanity.

A story of laughter—Rabelaisian horseplay.

Quaint absurdities—springing, gay barn dances—sleigh bells jingling.

Love's voice—sweet and low—strong and tender—across fragrant fields and twilight streams.

In the end, amazing scenes, March storm, ice break-up, Anna and David carried with blinding mass of ice down the roaring river.

Featuring Richard Barthelmess and Lillian Gish

Trampled under the hoofs of an infuriated cow, Mrs. Mary Guerin, who makes her home with her brother, John Rahling, at Wadsworth, was saved from death by Rahling's dog, which attacked the cow and after a terrific battle between the two animals the cow was forced to retreat.
