DEERFIELD LOCALS

UNION SERVICE

On Thanksgiving Day the three Protestant churches of Deerfield will unite for a worship service at 9:30 a.m. in the Presbyterian church, with Dr. William F. Weir delivering the Thanksgiving message. This gathering enables the Bethlehem, St. Paul's Evangelical and Presbyterian congregations to comply with the original purpose of Thanksgiving Day — that of gathering in the church to give thanks. Ministers of the two other churches are Rev. Earl J. Bruso and Rev. F. G. Piepenbrok, who will assist in the service.

RUMMAGE SALE

A rummage sale will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 1 and 2, in the basement of St. Paul's church sponsored by the Ladies' Aid society. Mrs. John Ott, president of the society, announces that all donations will be greatly accepted.

ZONING HEARING

A public hearing of a petition to amend the zoning ordinance, Section 3, on the intensity of lots, will be heard before the Board of Appeals on Tuesday evening, Dec. 1 at 8 o'clock in the village offices in the Deerfield Masonic temple. Carter Christensen is chairman of the board.

SEES STARS

Mrs. George Engstrom's alert eyes are always finding interesting things. Last week she saw a meteor and her account of it in the Daily News is as follows:

"I also saw the meteor on the morning of Oct. 29. I was in the business district of Deerfield, Ill., and it seemed to be just beyond the building at the northeast corner of the intersection. It appeared to me to be about the size of a handball of clear bluish-green color, with a long silver tail. It vanished in mid-air, as though it had burned out. Mrs. G. E. Engstrom, Deerfield, Ill."

BAZAAR

The women of the Deerfield Presbyterian church will hold their annual dinner and bazaar at the church on Thursday, Dec. 3.
