

Residents are invited to explore during Doors Open on Sunday

Halton Hills' fourth annual Doors Open event occurs this year on Sunday, Sept. 27.

Residents are invited to discover, first-hand, hidden heritage and community treasures, some of which have never been open to the public.

Doors Open Committee Chair, Ann Lawlor, said, "This year's special theme is our sport heritage. It's a great family event and all venues are free."

Mold-Masters SportsPlex
10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
(Guided tours on the hour)
221 Guelph St.

Learn how ice is made and kids can pose for a picture on one of the big ice resurfacers! Check out building features that make it environmentally sustainable. See how electricity is being produced through 1,767 solar roof panels and fed into the power grid. Mold-Masters is not your average sport facility!

Halton Hills Library & Cultural Centre
9 Church St.

The renovated Centre comprises three municipal cultural facilities: a library, art gallery and theatre.

• Helson Gallery Art Talks, 1-5 p.m. Join curator Judy Daley for a glimpse into the world of art in Halton Hills.

• Sisnett Lobby, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. "Images in Celebration of Sport" and "Open the Door to Creativity"

• John Elliott Theatre tours, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Backstage theatre tours will reveal how performances and movies come to life!

• Georgetown Branch Library, 1-5 p.m. (Guided tours 1-4 p.m.) Tour this stunning building and see how a huge environmentally sustainable retrofit can be beautiful and maintain its original historic charm.

Georgetown Racquet Club
10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
215 Armstrong Ave.

Established in 1975, this family oriented private sports club is unique in being non-profit and volunteer-operated.

TransCanada Energy Generating Station
1-4 p.m.

7870 Sixth Line S. (south of Steeles)
The natural gas-fired plant uses state of the art low emissions technology to generate power for up to 600,000 homes. Outdoor industrial tour; wear walking shoes. Safety equipment may be provided. No children under 16, please.

GEORGETOWN LAWN BOWLING CLUB

ogy to generate power for up to 600,000 homes. Outdoor industrial tour; wear walking shoes. Safety equipment may be provided. No children under 16, please.

Credit River Anglers Association
10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Glen Williams Park, Main St.
Join the sport fishing enthusiasts at the river for live demonstrations and fly tying. Give it a try and you may catch a whopper! Learn about the group's work in nurturing the Credit as a healthy fish habitat.

Devereaux House & Heritage Baseball Collection

10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
11494 Trafalgar Rd.

Restored in 2009, this 19th century gothic farmhouse is decorated to the early 20th century. On display will be one of Ontario's finest private baseball collections with treasures from the 1930s. Uniforms, programs and pictures from men's and ladies ball teams.

Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
corner of William and Edith Sts.

Sporting history is prominent in this friendly club which proudly celebrates its 108th year of operation! Even older is the log cabin which was moved to the site as the quaint clubhouse.

Halton Hills Sports Museum
10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Alcott Hall, Mold-Masters SportsPlex,
221 Guelph St.

Displays commemorate provincial, national and international athletic achievements by local residents and spotlight volunteers and sport groups from all eras and all sports.

Special Guest: 1-3 p.m. Bryan Lewis, Director of NHL Officiating (ret'd). Lewis will share stories from his refereeing career spanning over 1,000 regular season NHL games.

Colonel John Roaf Barber Armoury
10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
91 Todd Rd.

Built in 1990 to replace the 1860's drill shed, this armoury was named for a local MPP, reeve and colonel in the local militia. The building houses both the Lorne Scots Infantry Reserve and the cadets. Tours and First World War-related military displays.

Watch for signs around town showing the site locations on Doors Open Day.
