

Georgetown Hospital Foundation holds Walk or Run on Sunday

The Georgetown Hospital Foundation is hosting the 'Walk or Run for Georgetown Hospital' on Sunday, Sept. 27 at the Gellert Community Centre.

The Walk or Run for Georgetown Hospital is designed to encourage everyone in the community, regardless of age and athletic ability to be active and to fundraise for their local hospital.

There are two route options to choose from: 5KM (walk or run) or a 3KM (walk only route).

"It's very inspiring to see so many individuals and teams set high fundraising goals in support of local health care" says Heather Kaufman, GHF Board member and event Co-Chair.

Registration is free and accessible by visiting the Foundation website www.georgetownhospitalfoundation.ca.

Kaufman adds, "We have included some fundraising tips on the website and encourage everyone to register soon so that they have more time to fundraise before the event date."

"Our local business community has been so generous in providing sponsorship," adds Jennifer McNally, Manager Annual Giving and Special Events. "TD Bank Group is

D'Oliveira, Royal Le Page is our Gold Sponsor. We can't thank these organizations and individuals enough."

Another component this year is a 'Finish Line Festival' that will feature the Halton Hills Fire Department, face painting provided by the Georgetown Little Theatre Group and music by Party Cinemas.

Participants should note that this is not a timed run. Prizes will be awarded for the event's top fundraisers.
