THE CANADIAN CHAMPION

MILTON, NOV. 8, 1888

IN a sermon delivered last Sunday evening Rev. D. J. Macdonnell said that capital punishment should be a solemn and impressive public act by the people's own authoritive representatives, and that the work should not be done by proxy, but by the sheriffs themselves. The preacher condemned the soft hearted sentimentalists who were so tender towards condemned criminals and sent them boquets.

THE ridiculously light sentence inflicted on Tom Buckley, the Toronto brute who murdered his paramour, Bertha Usher, has borne the fruit that might have been expected. On Friday another Toronto rough, Edward Bell, attacked his paramour, Annie Robinson, with an axe and cut her badly about her head. He was arrested with great difficulty, and will be held pending the result of the woman's wounds.

THE Georgetown Herald says that the CHAMPION advises people, now that it is not safe to drive along the roads of Halton after night on account of the number of drunks on the road, to stay at home after sundown. The CHAMPION said nothing of the kind. It denied that the roads were unsafe and recommended staying in at nights only in case the roads should become unsafe, an idea which it ridiculed. The editor of the Herald has a great talent for perverting the truth.

WE commend to the consideration of Rev. D. V. Lucas and the other clerical and lay prohibition agitators who are now busy slandering Halton, the fact that at the fall assizes for the county, which commenced here on Monday, the presiding judge was presented by the sheriff with a pair of white kid gloves as there were no prisoners in jail awaiting trial for criminal offences. Our "temperance" friends made a great ado whenever the glove act was done here under prohibition, but now that a judge has got his gloves under license they will probably have little to say about it.

By the amendment of the Municipal Act that comes into force next month, the councils of towns, villages and townships (outside the District of Muskoka) will require to meet on the 15th day of December and make up a statement of the receipts and expenditures for the expiring year; which statement must either be published in a newspaper, circulating in the municipality, or printed copies of the same distributed. The clerk must be provided with copies of the statement (not less than one hundred) so that any ratepayer applying may be furnished with one; and at the nomination meeting the clerk must produce copies thereof.

Heretofore Robert G. Ingersoll has been a popular and effective campaign speaker on the Republican side. But in all the present campaign he has not yet appeared on the platform, so far, and everybody is wondering why. It is rumored that the Republican National Committee fear the effect of his well-known atheistic opinions on the public; but another story is that it is his extreme temperance or prohibition views they are afraid of.—World.

Bob will be a valuable ally for those good people who argue that the wines of Scripture were unfermented, and that nothing stronger that grape-syrup should be used in the communion.

WHO IS PRESIDENT?

The Globe of Wednesday says:

At the hour of writing, 2 a. m., the Republicans appear to have won the Presidential election. They claim New York State, at least The New York Tribune (Republican) makes that claim, and The Sun (anti-Cleveland Democratic) admits its correctness. As the Republicans appear to have 188 votes in the Electoral College without either New York or Indiana, theirs will have been the victory if they carried New York. That State has 36 electors in the College. If they are Republican Harrison and Morton are elected by a majority of 44 votes in the College, even if they lose Indiana. The Republicans claim, however, not only New York, but Indiana and Connecticut. They concede New Jersey to Cleveland and Thurman. According to this estimate the Democrats of the Electoral College will number only 162, against 209 Republicans.

Can't Milton Have a Line, Too?

With the exception of a new line between Toronto, Hamilton and London, to be worked on the long-distance system, the Bell Telephone Company has nearly completed an unusually heavy season's work in the way of extensions to the system, and the officers report having used this year, in the Ontario Department alone, over 13,000 poles, and 1,500 miles of wire, the most of which is copper. The principal new lines built were from Toronto to Arthur via. Orangeville; Orillia to Waubaushene, and Barrie to Midland and Penetanguishene; Owen Sound to Hanover; Wingham to Kincardine; Teeswater to London via. Wingham, Clinton and Lucan, with branch to Parkhill; and in the Province of Quebec, Montreal to Three Rivers. Additional wires have also been put up between Toronto and Oshawa; Berlin and Stratford; and Listowell and Harriston; and the following new exchanges and agencies opened, viz: In Ontario—Ailsa Craig, Bolton, Caledon, Chesley, Coldwater, Elmvale, Elmwood, Exeter, Fesserton, Grand Valley, Lucan, Lucknow, Parkhill, Phelpston, Tara, Teeswater, Tottenham and Woodbridge; and in Quebec—Belford, Berthier, Charlemagne, Dorval, Joliette, Knowlton, L'Assomption, Louisville, Stanbridge East, Stanhope and Valois. Connecting offices have also been opened at Centreville, Croydon, Grafton, Kingston Mills, and Roblin in Ontario.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: The general opinion of residents here, including the American colony, is that the United States Government treated Lord Sackville with most unnecessary brusqueness.

They Will Let the Doctor Go.

Rev. Dr. Mockridge, of Christ church cathedral, Hamilton, has tendered his resignation, to take effect four months from 1st November. This action is the sequence of the announcement made in his sermons of 28th October, wherein he declared that he could not conscientiously continue pastoral work in a church where the rented pew system was in force. Mr. Geo. Roach, chairman of the committee of management, says it is likely the rector's resignation will be accepted. A vestry meeting will be held toward the end of the month to consider the matter. Mr. Roach entered into an explanation of the circumstances leading to the resignation from his point of view, which is based on the financial condition of the church. "There are more free pews in the cathedral than in any other church in this city," was the way Mr. Roach disposed of the free pew question, and he intimated that the actual trouble was one of long standing, in fact an accumulation of causes. "There has never been the same harmony in the congregation since Rev. Dr. Mockridge engaged himself to All Saints' church some years ago. He is a fine preacher, and as long as his sermons were free from personalities the whole congregation admired him very much, but every once in a while he was preaching against somebody or something. He took up prohibition, and his sermons on that offended several prominent members of the congregation. He went on about those establishments where they make the abominable stuff—whiskey and ale, and he wanted the time to come when they would be swept off the face of the earth. That offended several prominent members. Then he has been discourteous in his language from the pulpit on other questions, and the harmony of the church has been seriously affected."

Rev. Mr. Jeffery on Tobacco and Whiskey.

(World's report of last Sunday's sermon.)

Some of you are "terrors" on a pipe and tobacco smokers. [Laughter.] You may lie, steal, break the Sabbath and say that will all be forgiven, but if your brother smokes you tell him he will not go to heaven. The sight of a pipe has just the same effect on you as a red flag on a bull. [Applause.] There's many a smoking man will get to heaven, while some of you non-smokers will knock at the door a long time and then not get in. Some mothers think their daughters will not get into heaven if their daughters wear the grenadier style of bonnet and feathers. Others are just as strong against flounces. [Laughter.] It is astonishing how pietists dive first at one thing and then at another. You condemn smoking because you durst not smoke a pipe to save your life. [Laughter.] But you can do something else a great deal worse. Can a man who plays cards go to heaven? Yes, he can. Can a man who drinks whiskey go to heaven? Yes, he can.

An interruptor: No, he can't.

Mr. Jeffery: This is another gospel! A man who habitually gets drunk cannot as a drunkard go to heaven, but I defy any one to show me from the Bible that anyone who takes a glass of ale, gin, whiskey, wine or brandy cannot go to heaven. [Applause.] A man ought not to take these simply as beverages or because he likes them. You are not bound to take a bottle of castor oil at a dinner every day. The Christian rule is, "Whether you eat or drink do all to the glory of God." When you set yourselves up for apostles you must show the signs of your apostleship. If we keep the Ten Commandments and the Eleventh—love to our neighbor—and leave everything else alone it will be better for us. We shall not then be condemning things as sins which are no sins at all.

Toronto Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Toronto held its monthly session on Tuesday last, Rev. Alex. Gilray, moderator, presiding.

Rev. W. G. Wallace presented a call from Knox church, Milton, to Rev. R. Haddow, B.A., late of Newfoundland; $800 stipend with free manse was promised. Dr Robertson and Mr. Daniel Harrison, of Milton, supported the call; which was sustained and presented to Rev. Mr. Haddow. The new pastor accepted the call, and it was ordered that the induction service take place on Thursday, 22nd instant, when Revs. J. Milne, D. J. Macdonnell and John Neil will deliver addresses.

Rev. E. D. McLaren presented a call from Streetsville to Rev. T. J. McClennan, of Shelbourne, guaranteeing a salary of $1,000 with free manse. Messrs John McAuley, Hugh McDougherty and Thomas K. Beaty of Streetsville, spoke in support of the call, which was sustained and transmitted to the Presbytery of Orangeville, where Revs. W. A. Hunter and E. D. McLaren will look after its interests.

A $50,000 Train Robbery.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—The United States express messenger on the train of the Northeastern railway, which arrived here this morning at 7 o'clock, was robbed at 5 a. m. between Dacey and Derby stations, 50 miles from this city. The express officials decline to state the amount of the robbery, but it is understood to be between $40,000 and $50,000. The robber entered the express car, surprised Henry McElroy, baggage master, and Charles Lourey with a cocked revolver, and threw sacks over their heads. After securing the contents of the safe the robber pulled the bell rope.

What It Indicates.

(Spectator.)

The fuss that is being made by some Toronto people about the Jeffery case seems to indicate that the crime Rev. Mr. Jeffery is suspected of having committed is much more grave than the crime Rev. Mr. Longley was suspected of having committed.

Frank Day, a young Canadian, son of David Day, of Eramosa, was stabbed in Chicago on Sunday night by an unknown man, who was shouting "Hurrah for Cleveland" and attacked Day when the latter said "What's the matter with Harrison?"

Rev. Mr. Colling's Case.

(Spectator.)

The committee of the Niagara Methodist conference, which met Wednesday night to consider the case of Rev. Mr. Colling, of Simcoe, arrived at a decision, but it has been decided not to divulge it until the Simcoe board has passed on the matter. It is understood that the charges against Mr. Colling are chiefly in relation to matters of doctrine, particularly in regard to his extreme views on the doctrine of holiness.

Fair Trade Voted Down.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A Tory caucus was held at Wolverhampton last evening. A motion made by Howard Vincent, M.P. for the Central divison of Sheffield, and leader of the Fair Trade movement, in favor of Fair Trade, was defeated, three-fourths of the members voting against it.

Criminal libel suits were entered against the proprietors of both journals; but the grand jury has returned no bill in either case.

Appleby Dew Drops.

The fine weather this past week has enabled farmers to get their root crop, which is a very large one, off their hands.

Mr. John Williamson has returned from the Old Country in good health.

The Appleby Literary Society re-opened last Friday evening and elected their officers for the next term. Being the first night, not a very large crowd collected, but still a very enjoyable evening was spent, listening to readings, songs, recitations, speeches, &c. We shall greatly miss our best comic singer, Mr. Colton, who distinguished himself last winter at the meetings. He will spend the winter in the northwest, near the Rocky Mts., but no doubt his musical chirp will scatter pleasure through many a wigwam in the far west. A good programme is prepared for next night, including a thrilling debate by four young members of the society.

Rev. Mr. Jeffrey Holds His Own.

"We, the undersigned members of the congregation of the Northwestern Methodist Church, express our sincere sympathy with the Rev. T. W. Jeffrey and wish him not to tender his resignation."

This declaration has been very numerously signed by members of Mr. Jeffrey's church and congregation in Toronto. To a reporter Mr. Jeffrey said: "I will not resign my ministry here for anybody's asking. I will be a free agent and do only what I think best for the prosperity of the church."
