A DEPARTURE.—It was with [illegible] regret that the many friends [illegible] Father Kelly learned that he was [illegible] removed to Walkerton. Our [illegible] know the sterling qualities of this gentleman before he could be fully appreciated. His lofty character, generous sympathies, and above all his deep humility, created an affection among his people that years will not efface. He labored hard for the improvement of his parish and departs with the very best wishes of all. No doubt the people in his new field of labor will learn to love him. His parishioners here wish him the choicest of God's gifts. The members of St. Andrew's church have purchased a handsome chair and expressed it to him as a surprise. Father Burke arrived on Friday last and is now in charge here. Already he has created a favorable impression.—Oakville Star.

Mr. McQuarrie, Nelson; 2nd Vice-President, Miss Marlatt, Oakville; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Sarah Patterson, Oakville; Recording Secretary, Miss Nellie Williamson Oakville; Treasurer, Rev. Mr. Craig. The Executive Committee will consist of representatives from each branch, including all the clergymen. At a mass meeting held in the evening addresses were delivered by Ald. IT seems that an unusually attractive CHRISTMAS NUMBER of The Dominion Illustrated Monthly is to be issued, and the public will await its arrival with interest. If the publishers' announcement be correct, the number will be a remarkably rich one, and speak volumes for Canadian skill and enterprise. Its large coloured supplements will be an especially strong feature, one of them—a 32-page work, illustrating the "Ups and Downs of Canadian Political Life"—will be eagerly looked for in view of recent events.

THE STOVE FACTORY.—On Friday evening the committee appointed by the citizens met in the town hall, and after considerable discussion arrived at the conclusion that they would make the following proposition to Messrs. Moffatt & Sons to establish a stove manufacturing establishment here, viz: A free site of 1½ acres, exemption of taxes for 10 years and $500 for five years. This proposal being communicated to them their reply was read at a meeting of the committee on Tuesday evening, which stated that they were afraid the terms would hardly induce them to put a $30,000 plant in Milton; that they understood there was a house and lot adjoining the proposed site, and if they could, with free water, be given these in addition to the above proposal they would consider the matter. A communication was also read from Mr. Jasper Martin asking $800 an acre for the land where the Messrs. Moffatt desired the location. The committee adjourned without doing anything.

You can buy a 98-pc. Dinner Set for $9.00, and better ones at $12 and $14. Those new Water Sets opened this week are really fine. Have you seen them?—at Bastedo's.

WE take this opportunity of thanking our many friends and customers for the liberal patronage given and the confidence reposed in the past, and it shall ever be our aim, by courteous treatment, just and upright dealings and close application to business, to merit a continuance of that confidence and patronage. We cannot here enumerate the goods we have in stock, but we keep the goods that are in demand in our various lines. All the popular remedies of the day (Pink Pills and Dodds' Pills included). Full and well selected stocks in our various departments.—J. H. MCCOLLOM, Druggist & Stationer, Medical Hall, Milton, Ont.

THE WATER-WORKS.—Two weeks ago the inspector for the Fire Underwriters' Association was in town, tested the agility of our firemen and made the following report: "That an impromptu fire alarm was sounded in the town hall and within a minute four firemen had the two hose reels ready for action, and in less than five minutes, at a distance of over 200 yards, had their hose attached and water pouring out on a building." This was satisfactory to the inspector, but after all our class of insurance was lowered from D to E, on account of the small quantity of water in the reservoir at that time. This is rather hard on our water-works system, which our citizens claimed to be such a benefit to the town, and as no steps have been taken to have the supply increased so that our reservoir may be kept constantly full, we may rest assured that we will remain in the lower class [illegible] Our council [illegible] matter. [illegible] the water [illegible] to have [illegible] would [illegible] last [illegible]

[illegible] Jackets, all prices, [illegible] all-wool Top Shirts [illegible] Flannel Shirts in [illegible] Navy Blue at Treble's, [illegible] King Sts., Hamilton.

[illegible] ENTERTAINMENT was held [illegible] evening of Nov. 4 in the school. [illegible] and public school students [illegible] creditably rendered the following excellent programme: chorus by [illegible]; "Fussy's Class," Miss Mabel [illegible]; trio, Misses Hamburg, Duncan and [illegible]; recitation, Miss Daisy [illegible]; essay on Tennyson, M. [illegible]; song, Miss L. Gilmore; dialogue (illustrated story), Masters Robt. Ramshaw and Jas. Bath; song, Miss Lillie McIntosh; recitation, "Charge of the Light Brigade," Miss M. Duff; song, Miss L. Earl; "Troublesome Visitor," Master R. Sanderson; chorus by students; "They Surprised Him," Miss B. Elliott; dialogue, "Strategy," Misses K. Dewar, J. Mitchell, A. Wilson and W. Bennett; "Baby in Church," Master Roy Gray; solo, "Annie Lyle," Mr. Midgley; "Lord of Burleigh," from Tennyson, Miss L. Foster; dialogue, "Candor Wins," Misses Foster, Young, Barbaree, Harrison, Dolby, Barber and Shepherd; "When Mother Died," Miss Jessie McCollom; "The Revenge," from Tennyson, Mr. Midgley; dialogue, "Aunt Prue and Her Niece," Misses Barber and Barbaree; dialogue by Misses Cottrell, Johnson, Robertson, Gray and Moore; wand exercise by the students; tableau, "Execution of Mary Queen of Scots," by Misses Robertson, Andrews, Hollinrake, Duff and Hannant and Messrs. Midgley and Mason; chorus by students; national anthem. The wand exercises by the model students seemed to give the audience unlimited pleasure for the variety of movements and beauty of execution. The dialogues also deserve special mention. The four scenes in the "tableau"—execution of Mary Queen of Scots—were exceedingly well performed and the young ladies and gentlemen deserve great credit for their becoming dress and posture during the scenes, certainly demanding great care, considerable skill and much time in the preparation of the same. On account of the absence of several pupils, the fan-drill was not taken. It will be given on another occasion. About 200 were in attendance. Proceeds $14.75.

Treble is now showing New Fur Caps, Children's Grey Lamb Caps at $2.50 each. Persian Lamb, South Sea Seal, Otter, Beaver and Astrachan Caps.—Cor. King & James Sts., Hamilton.

It is the most interesting Competition ever offered by The Agriculturist. The leading prizes are: a pair of Shetland ponies, carriage and harness, and over 2,000 other valuable prizes for The Agriculturist's brightest readers. The $1,000 in cash will be paid to the person sending in the largest list of English words constructed from letters in the words "The Canadian Agriculturist." $500 will be given for the next largest list; the ponies and harness for the next, a grand piano, $800 organ, $400 piano, dinner sets, ladies' and gent's gold and silver watches and over 2,000 other prizes in the order of merit. The Agriculturist has earned a reputation for fair dealing, and is an old-established and reliable journal. Each competitor must enclose one dollar with the list of words, which will entitle him to The Agriculturist—a handsomely illustrated Home Magazine—for six months. The following letter from Lord Kilcoursie, the Governor-General's secretary, speaks for itself:

LOWVILLE.

The many friends of Jas. Tassie, Jr., who sustained serious injuries by falling from an apple tree, will be pleased to hear that he is on a fair way to recovery.

The regular quarterly service was held in the Methodist Church here on Sunday morning. There was no service in the evening, the pastor having to hold service in the Zimmerman church.

Thos. Colling, Esq., of Burlington, and formerly of this place, was, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26th, united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Mrs. Barnes, of this place. We wish them a long life and much happiness.

Geo. Robertson has rented the Lowville grist mill for a term of three years. He his now busy making some much needed repairs, but will soon be able to commence chopping. The boys are warned to keep away from there now, and to stop breaking window panes, or they will hear something drop.

The Lowville Div. S. of T. intend holding an open division on Friday evening, Nov. 25th. A good programme is being prepared for the occasion, and a pleasant time may be expected. Among other foreign talent which will contribute towards the enjoyment of the evening, will be Dr. O'Hagan, Principal of Waterdown high school.

The young people of the surrounding country, to the number of about forty, attended a party at the residence of Robt. Spence, on Tuesday evening, when a very pleasant and enjoyable time was spent in dancing, games, &c. The young people always look forward in pleasant anticipation to these little parties at Mr. S's, as he is noted for his hospitality, and they are always sure to have a good time.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season occurred on Wednesday, Nov. 2nd, when Wm. Harbottle, Esq., one of our most highly esteemed citizens, was united in holy wedlock to one of Omagh's most popular ladies, Miss Sarah, eldest daughter of John Dixon, Esq. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, Grassmere Place, Omagh, and was witnessed by about forty of the near relatives and friends of both contracting parties. The Rev. Mr. Scanlon, of Milton, tied the matrimonial knot, assisted by Rev. E. B. Stevenson, B. A., of Lowville. The happy couple were given a [illegible] dress of mauve colored henriettas, and also carried a boquet of flowers. The presents were both numerous and costly, as well as useful. One particularly deserves special mention, being a handsome gold watch and chain, the gift of the groom. The happy couple left in the evening, on their wedding tour, followed by a shower of rice, old shoes, &c., together with the good wishes of their numerous friends. They intended visiting Toronto, Niagara, and also some of the American cities. They returned on Tuesday evening, when about thirty of their friends assembled at the residence of Mr. Harbottle, to receive them and welcome the bride to her new home. We extend to Mr. and Mrs. Harbottle our congratulations, and wish them a long life of connubial felicity.
