Hemstreet Bros. aim to lead in the Millinery and Mantle trade. They announce their fall opening for Saturday, 16th of Sept., with a grand display of choice new goods, elegant, tasty and stylish. They have secured the services of a really first-class milliner and staff of assistants, and are prepared in every way to supply millinery the best, the cheapest. 13-2

W. D. Lyon, Esq., Stipendiary Magistrate at Rat Portage, and at one time a prominent Haltonian, having represented the county as M.P.P. and also been its warden, arrived here last week seriously ill. He is confined to his bed at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John Wallace, and is receiving medical attendance, which it is to be hoped will soon restore him to health.

Advancement in Art.—Misses Hannah and Emma Bell, daughters of Mr. Abram Bell, Nelson, have, under the instruction of the distinguised artist G. A. Reid, A.R.C., received certificates of honor from the life class in Toronto Art Academy. Their paintings were selected by the officials and are now on exhibition at the World's Fair, Chicago.

The McCormick Harvesting Machine Co. will locate in Canada. During the past few weeks the company have been busy examining the different inducements held out by over twenty towns and cities in Ontario who are anxious to secure the workshops of the McCormick Co. Doubtless they will be able to decide and commence work this fall. The introduction of the Bindlochine (a low-lift machine) has been an unparalleled success, its superiority over elevated binders being attested by a large number of Ontario's foremost yeomanry. The company have on exhibition at the Industrial, Toronto, one of the machines. It will also be exhibited at Milton, Georgetown and Nassagaweya fall fairs. Don't fail to see the coming machine.

Wants Damages for Slander.—Barrister J. W. Winnett, of the firm of Wilkie, Stewart & Winnett, Victoria street, is suing Mr. and Mrs. John Appelbe, of Georgetown, for $5,000 damages for alleged slander. It seems that the defendants have made such statements as "He has cleared out," and "He has gone to the States and you had better look after your papers," when speaking of the plaintiff. It is said that such words were uttered to one Sarah Cole, and Mr. Winnett is a relative of Mr. H. Winnett, of the Queen's hotel. Cole has [illegible] injured in [illegible] at both of [illegible] by the re[illegible]

The call of the Fort Massey, N. S., church to Rev. A. Gandier, well-known here, was opposed by the Brampton church before the Toronto Presbytery on Tuesday. The call was eventually sustained. The Fort Massey people offer Mr. Gandier $2,500 a year without having heard him preach, his fame having extended to the far east.

The latest scheme for defrauding farmers is for a person to call upon them representing himself as a grocery man retiring from business and anxious to get rid of his stock who offers to sell a chest of tea for a small price per pound. The tea is tested and found to be as represented. After the tea is delivered, if the farmer weighs it he finds it to be much short in weight and when he gets a little way down in the chest he finds the contents worthless stuff.

Hemstreet Bros.' stock of NEW MILLINERY goods and MANTLES for the fall and winter season is just now being opened up and got ready for the opening of the department, which begins on Saturday, 16th Sept., and you are respectfully invited to inspect their collection of the choicest and richest novelties of the millinery markets.

About four o'clock this morning the fire alarm sounded and there was a rush of our citizens to the east end of Main street, where the glare of a fire could be seen. The burning building proved to be an uninhabited old ruin which formerly belonged to the Farley estate. It was not worth saving, but the fire brigade would not allow it to be totally consumed and saved a part of it. It is supposed that the fire was caused by tramps who were sleeping in the building.

Died of Typhoid.—Mr. Anderson Campbell, brother of the senior partner of the firm of Campbell & Panton, publishers of the Champion, died at his residence near Brampton on Tuesday of typhoid fever. Mr. Campbell was well known in this vicinity and had many friends here. He left a widow and four children. The funeral took place yesterday and was a very large one, there being over seventy vehicles in the procession.

Read! Read!! Read!!!—Auction Sale on Saturday night. The following goods will be offered at White's auction room:—One organ, nearly new, worth $160; 1 combination sofa, 1 washing machine, 2 sewing machines, 1 extension table, 3 coal and wood stoves, one lot of bed-room furniture, 6 kitchen chairs, 1 writing desk, also a grand lot of China table ware, watches, clocks, jewellery, silverware, &c., &c.

Died at Vancouver.—An exchange of the 30th ult. contains the following: "Alex. Robertson, hotel-keeper at Vancouver, B.C., was found dead in his bed Monday from heart failure. Deceased left Halton county three years ago, where he was a cattle dealer. His wife and family still live there." A friend of Mr. Robertson, whose Halton home was at Hornby, says that the cause of his death was blood poisoning, occasioned by paring a corn too closely. The deceased was well known and highly esteemed in this neighborhood.

Killed by a Runaway.—On Tuesday last, between Mono Road and Caledon East, Thomas Robinson, formerly of Chinguacousy, was killed instantly by a runaway accident. Deceased leaves a wife and large family, his children being all grown up. Some years ago he bought the Jackson farm in Trafalgar, at the corner of the base and 5th lines and about two miles on this side of Hornby. He lived there for a time and then sold out to one of his sons, who now resides on the property.

After keeping their secret for eight months James Hourigan, of Dundas, and Miss Mary Maddigan have been forced to admit that they are man and wife. The young people attended a business college in Hamilton, and they were very much in love with each other. They got married last January, but they didn't give it away. The ceremony was performed at Waterdown by Rev. Father O'Leary. The secret would not have leaked out had it not been for the best man. The bride is not more than eighteen, and the groom is a year older.

At a meeting of the electors on Monday evening, called for the purpose of nominating a Reeve and Councillor for the balance of the year, it was nominated by Wm. McLeod and seconded by Morris Kennedy, that Councillor Joseph Harber be Reeve. He was elected by acclamation. As Councillor Mr. A. D. Thompson was nominated by Dr. Roe and seconded by Thos. Clark. He has since withdrawn from the fray. Leslie Grant was nominated by Thomas Rae and seconded by W. E. Mason. He stands elected by acclamation.—Georgetown Herald.

An Old Resident Gone.—Yesterday evening Mr. Michael Conway, one of Milton's oldest and best known residents, died at his home after a long illness. He was a native of Ireland, came to Milton nearly forty years ago, was universally respected and for a number of years represented the East Ward in the Town Council, in which he did good service, particularly in his capacity of chairman of the streets and sidewalks committee. In his childhood Mr. Conway took the Father Matthew total abstience pledge from Father Matthew himself and he kept it religiously until the day of his death. At the same time he was a staunch opponent of all interference with the liberties and privileges of his fellows particularly in the shape of prohibitory legislation. The funeral will leave his late residence to-morrow at 10.30 a.m. for the new cemetery.

Burlington.—Acting on the principle that a parish owes two special thanksgivings to God every year, one for blessings peculiar to itself, and another for blessings common to the whole Dominion, the parish of St. Luke's Church, Burlington, held a service of praise for the blessings of the year, on Wednesday, Aug. 30th. The Rev. S. C. Farthing, of Woodstock, preached, and the Revs. Canon Worrell, Rural Dean Fennell, P. T. Mignot, W. Creswick, and the Rector took part in the service. The decorations of grain, fruit and flowers were beautiful; the music excellent, and the sermon appropriate and impressive. A parish festival was held after the service in the Brant House grounds, and, thanks to the hearty efforts of all engaged in it, proved pleasant and successful. The proceeds of the day will be applied to the improvements of the church building and fences. The choir of St. Matthew's Church, Hamilton, during their encampment on the Beach, rendered efficient aid in the responses and singing of St. Luke's Church for four Sundays, and Rev. Mr. Whitcombe's sermons on two Sundays were much appreciated.

A Farmer Pleads Guilty of Forgery.—Oscar Hermann Ryder is the picturesque name which this week adorns a bailiff's sale bill, and it is also a fresh name on the jail register. Oscar Hermann came to Chinguacousy from Acton, where he was in the business of tailoring. There is a story connected with the Acton tailor shop. One night it burned down. Cruel-hearted neighbors suspected Oscar, and he was arrested but was acquitted at the trial. Last spring O. H. R. came to Eli Crawford and rented a hundred-acre farm on the east side; terms $300 for the year in advance. Ryder managed to put up $60 and now the landlord, with the help of the bailiff, is trying to get him to balance. There is another man interested in Ryder—there are several for that matter—but who got him into the present trouble. Ryder borrowed $300 from Wm. Newhouse at 12 per cent. As security Ryder gave a chattel mortgage on his effects and deposited notes with Mr. Newhouse, as collateral security, having face volue of $100 odd. Mr. Newhouse recently discovered that the notes were forgeries. One note purporting to have been made by Thos. Gamble, of Acton, was pronounced by that man a forgery, and the action was taken on this case. Ryder was arrested Tuesday and came before the bench this a.m. He was sent down for trial.—Brampton Banner.

THE RIFLE.

The reputation of the 20th Lorne Rifles as a crack shooting corps was well maintained by its marksmen at the matches of the Dominion Rifle Association at Ottawa last week, particularly by the reliable Staff Sergt. Rolston, who always finishes high in the aggregate and by Capt. Moore, who in this case was only a single point behind him, the former winning the 22nd place on the Bisley "hundred" and the latter the 24th. It may be taken for granted that both will have an opportunity to go to Bisley next year, as Capt. Gray, the seventh man, and Capt. Hart, the 23rd, are both ineligible, being on the retired list, and several other members of the twenty are likely to decline. The following are the prizes won by the Haltonians:—

Nursery Match—500 yds., 5 shots.

Capt. Moore made a "possible" 25 points, and divided the first and second prizes with another competitor, each receiving $17.50.

Canada Powder Co.—500 yds., 7 shots.

$4—Pte. R. L. Graham	31

Macdougall—400 & 600 yds., 5 shots.

$6—Capt. Moore	46
4—Major Panton	44
4—Staff Sergt. Rolston	43

Dominion of Canada—200, 500 & 600 yds.

$16—Capt. Moore	92
8—Staff Sergt. Rolston	87

Kirkpatrick—500 & 600 yds., 10 shots.

$6—Capt. Grant	86
6—Staff Sergt. Rolston	86
4—Capt. Moore	88
4—Major Panton	88

Minister of Militia—500 & 600 yds.

$5—Capt. Moore	61
4—Staff Sergt. Rolston	59

Henshaw—7 shots at 200 yds., standing and 10 at 600 yds.

$5—Staff Sergt. Rolston	65
4—Capt. Moore	68
4—Pte. Graham	62

Grand Aggregate.

$10—Capt. Moore	374
6—Staff Sergt. Rolston	366

In the Governor-General's match at 200, 500 and 600 yds., which decided the final positions of the members of the Bisley hundred Staff Sergt. Rolston made 88 points and Capt. Moore 79, which made their grand totals 454 and 458 and their places 22nd and 24th respectively. Capt. Moore appears to have neglected to enter, or having entered, to put in an aggregate ticket in the Nursery Aggregate, for which he was eligible, having never previously won a prize of $5 or over at the D.R.A. matches. By his oversight he lost the credit of winning the first prize, $12, as his aggregate was 2 points ahead of that of the man who got it.
