BLACK BASS fishing excursions to Beaverton are the rage just now and sometimes the anglers capture as high an average as a bass each. Sometimes they don't. S. GARDEN PARTY.—The garden party yesterday evening at the residence of Major Fox for the benefit of Christ church, Omagh, was one of the most successful of the season, the programme being an excellent one and the attendance very large, the receipts amounting to no less than $135. The music of the Milton band was a feature.

IT may be news to some to learn that section 2 of chapter 222, of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, reads as follows: "It shall not be lawful to shoot, destroy, wound or injure any bird whatsoever, save and except eagles, falcons, hawks, owls, wild pigeons, blackbirds, kingfishers, crows, jays, English sparrows and ravens.

THIEVES ABROAD.—Farmers in the eastern side of the county have been greatly troubled by thieves during the past two or three weeks. Frank Lundy had his barn raided and ten hams, eight shoulders and four sides of pork stolen. Wm. Julian also lost heavily. John Mills has had his poultry yard "touched" twice. Other farmers report the loss of wool, etc. The thieves may be landed shortly.—Brampton Banner.

WALTER DAWSON, of Guelph township, captured a burglar in his house Monday night. He had gone for the cows and on entering the house on his return saw the man trying to hide under a bed. Securing a shotgun he ordered the burglar to come out, which he did. He then marched him to the farm of Thomas Smith, where he was searched, but as nothing was found on him he was allowed to depart in peace. —Guelph Mercury.

BARN RAISING ACCIDENT.—At the barn raising of James Irwin, Nassagaweya, on Saturday last, an accident occurred which might have proved serious. As Alf. Barlow was hewing a piece of timber, the axe came off the handle, striking George Ingle, who was standing beside him, and inflicting a very severe cut on his leg. A doctor was summoned and it was found necessary to put eight stitches in the wound. —Guelph Herald.

OBITUARY.—The many friends of Willie Burger, V. S., will regret to hear of his death, which took place at his father's residence, Fergus, on the 4th inst. He returned from North Carolina on the 5th June, where he had been for his health. He never rallied, but gradually passed away. He was born in the town of Milton 28 years ago. The Forsesters conducted the last sad rites to Mount Pleasant cemetery, Toronto, on Friday, 6th.—COM.

ACCIDENT.—On Thursday evening as Henry Sayers, of Nassagaweya, was driving on Main street, his horse became unmanagable opposite the Methodist church and the rig was upset. Mr. Sayers was only slightly injured, but A. McQuarrie, of this town, who was with him, was thrown heavily to the ground, receiving a severe wound on his head, his scalp being badly cut. He was stunned for some time, but is recovering rapidly.

A YOUNG farmer living down the Stone road, a few miles out of Galt, forgot about the Sabbath and went out in the hay field to work. A neighbor coming along reminded him of it, and the toiler at once dropped his fork and 'dug' for home. When his friend arrived at church he found his neighbor sitting in front of him and praying fervently. He has new borrowed a calendar, and scratches off each day as it passes.—Guelph Herald.

STEAL DOGS TOO.—A fox terrier belonging to Mrs. Gray, Railroad street, disappeared on the day of Cook & Whitby's circus in Brampton. A G.T.R. detective who follows up the circus in the interest of the road, learning that someone attached to the show was suspected of hooking the canine, kept his weather-eye so well open that the dog arrived in town on Wednesday night per express from Wiarton, boxed up but in perfect health. A substantial reward was sent the detective.—Brampton Banner.

BRONTE.—Robert Osborne and James Dobson, of Bronte, had a dispute over some stone last week. Dobson was lying on the grass at the time and Osborne walked up to him and struck him several times in the face and kicked him also, without any warning. Dobson is a small, inoffensive man and gave no cause for such a murderous attack. Squire Williams has issued a summons and there is no doubt Osborne will get his just dues in Milton. This is the second offense of the kind and Osborne should be severely punished.—COM.

MAYOR'S COURT.—On Monday a young man by the name of Robert W. Hilson, from Nassagaweya, was arraigned by Messrs. Felker & Esson before Mayor McCollom for abusing one of their horses on Monday last. The young man hired the horse to go to Hornby and return; but it is said that he drove around to Norval, then to Georgetown, back to Norval, thence to Campbellville and from there around a block, and did not return the rig until early on Tuesday morning, the horse appearing very sore and tired after his long drive. The case was heard and a fine of $5.00 and costs imposed, amounting in all to $13.20.

SETTLED AT LAST.—The case of Mrs. Johnston v. the Grand Trunk railway has been settled, the company paying the plaintiff $1,000 damages and all costs of the trial and appeal. The plaintiff's husband, a colored man, was killed about a year ago by an express train at the Wentworth street crossing of the Grand Trunk. The company tried to show that Johnston drove into the side of the train, and that death resulted from his own negligence. At the trial Mrs. Johnston got $1,000 damages. The company appealed the case, but the verdict was sustained. It was announced that the case would be taken to the supreme court; but Solicitor Bell thought better of it, and informed Stuart Livingstone yesterday that the verdict and costs would be paid.—Spectator.

HE'S NOT AN M. D.—During the past couple of weeks a combination, known as the Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., who profess to have a panacea for all the ills that flesh is heir to, have been disposing of their wares and giving a nightly concert in a tent on the old fair ground near the market. The chief of the combination was B. F. Pease, who gave free lectures and disposed of the medicine. On Saturday he was dragged before P. M. Pattullo on the charges of professing to be a medical doctor and practicing medicine without any warrant. The information was laid by Detective Alf. Brown, who operates for the Ontario Medical Council. Mr. Hughson appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Myers for the Kickapoo dispenser. The magistrate reserved judgment until Monday, when he dismissed the information. The evidence went to show that Mr. Pearce had never professed to be a physician, but engaged in the practice of medicine. A local constable is understood to have set the prosecution on foot.—Dufferin Post.

The Colonial Agents-General in London are not enthusiastic over the result of the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa. The seventeen year locust has spread all over New Jersey. In every bit of wood-land their roaring, like the ocean waves, can be heard, and their onward march of devastation is likened to that of a hostile army. It has bright, glaring, blood red eyes, is rather larger that the ordinary locust, and on the outspread wings the letter "W" can be plainly traced. That the "W" means war is pretty generally believed. The swarming of this pest preceeded the American civil war, and seventeen years afterwards the Russo-Turkish war.

The Japanese are showing great firmness in dealing with Corean insurrection. Instead of withdrawing troops on the demand of the Chinese Government, the Emperor of Japan has chartered sixteen steamers for the transportation of 10,000 troops to Corea. The Japanese are well armed and trained in modern methods of warfare. Unless Russia intervenes, Corea is likely to pass under the complete control of Japan. Chinese troops are not effective and could be easily defeated by an inferior force of Japanese.

There is evidently still a strong feeling among the Roman Catholics of the United States against Mgr. Satolli. The Catholic Review says:—"The Monsignor must be recalled. There never was any need of him here. The American bishops never had any use for him; they did not ask for him, and when he came they did not know what he came for. In fact, it could be said without untruth that they did not know who sent him. Of course, he came with the Pope's commission, but, nevertheless, it cannot be said, as a matter of fact, that the Pope sent him here."
