RETIRING FROM BUSINESS.—The many friends in this neighborhood of W. H. Lindsay, who has conducted one of Milton's leading business establishments for 23 years, will be sorry to hear that he intends to sell out. He has inserted the following advertisement in the Toronto Globe:—

"W. H. Lindsay, long and favorably known to the wholesale trade of Canada, is retiring, and offers his stock and good-will of the business for sale. The stock has just been taken, and valued on correct principles at $6,500. The large and convenient store, owned by the advertiser, three flats and cellar and storehouse, is suited for dry goods or general business, will be leased at a rental of $1 a day and taxes. This is undoubtedly a rare opportunity to enter on a good running business. The owner, who has applied himself continuously for 23 years, feels himself getting behind the times. A younger and more energetic firm could not fail to make a large business. No old Stock. Correspondence will be strictly confidential. WALTER H. LINDSAY, Milton."

GENERAL BOOTH was at Hamilton on Saturday. In an interview he said that he was dissatisfied with the progress of the Salvation Army in Canada. It had held its own in the cities, but had lost ground in the towns and villages. There is no doubt about the latter fact. It has long been dead in many towns and villages where at one time it was apparently strong. Milton is one of the towns.

IT is with deep regret, that we are called on to chronicle the death of a child of E. Brennen from diphtheria. The little girl, who was about two years of age, was some days ago apparently in a fair way of recovery, but last Saturday night it took a turn for the worse, and succumbed to the dreaded disease last night. The family have the sympathy of the whole community in their sore trouble.—Sundridge Echo.

COUNTY L.O.L.—The county Orange Lodge of Halton met here on Tuesday, and elected officers for the year, who were installed by R. W. Bro. Rev. P. T. Mignot, Deputy Grand Chaplain, as follows:—County Master, Wm. Cook, Norval; Deputy Master, A. McGibbon, Nassagaweya; Chaplain, Rev. P. T. Mignot; Rec. Sec., M. E. Mitchell; Fin. Sec., S. Hannant; Treasurer, D. Lindsay; D. of C., J. Bowerbank; Lecturers, John Baird and Charles Taylor. It was decided that the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, on 12th July, would be celebrated this year at Oakville.

SHIPPING ALE TO CHICAGO.—Thursday Mr. Geo. Sleeman shipped the first car load of ale to the James Henderson Company, Chicago, under the agreement recently entered into with that company. Mr. Sleeman has undertaken for a term of five years to supply the company with a car load of his well known ales each week, the company to handle his ales exclusively and with a right to sell the same in Chicago or any part of the United States. The company is formed for the sole purpose of handling the products of Mr. Sleeman's brewery. It is learned that they are strong financially, and being young men, have all the qualifications for pushing the business with energy and success. The head of the firm, Mr. James Henderson, formerly a resident of Guelph, has been handling these ales for the last 19 months, during which time their reputation has been so well established as to warrant the company being formed, so as to fill orders on a much larger scale. Mr. Henderson has made a name for himself as an enterprising business man second only to his reputation as an amateur oarsman. —Guelph Herald.

COMMITTED.—Joe McMaster was brought from jail to Georgetown on Saturday to appear before Magistrates Kennedy and Barber on the charge of assaulting Albert Turner with intent to do grievous bodily harm. He was committed for trial and released on bail. At the hearing before the magistrates County Crown Attorney Matheson prosecuted. The prisoner's interests were looked after by Barrister John Shilton, of Toronto. Turner, who looks anything but well, being sworn, said that he attended church at Glen Williams the evening of Jan. 20th, that after the service, and as he and Miss Wheeler were moving away from the church steps, McMaster jumped between them, shoving him (Turner) off the sidewalk. He regained his position beside the lady, and they walked peaceably along until they reached Mr. Martin's house. Miss Wheeler here excused herself, stating that she had left her wraps in Martin's. While awaiting her outcoming Turner received a blow which felled him to the ground. He attempted to rise but was struck and went down again. The pounding continued until he became unconscious. Mr. Shilton cross-examined Turner at great length. Dr. Nixon, sworn, stated that he was called to Glen Williams on the evening of January 20th, between 9 and 10 o'clock; found Turner in an unconscious state, suffering from what he considered concussion of the brain, and for a very critical condition; subsequently made a remarkable recovery. Several other witnesses were examined, but their evidence throws no new light on the affair. The prisoner was committed to stand his trial at the next assizes, bail being allowed himself in $400 and two sureties in $200 each. [illegible]
