

Visit the Haunted Forest in Terror Cotta Oct. 23-24

Credit Valley Conservation (CVC) hosts its annual 2015 Halloween Haunted Forest, Friday, Oct. 23, and Saturday, Oct. 24, 5:30-9:30 p.m. at the Terra Cotta Conservation Area, 14452 Winston Churchill Blvd., Halton Hills.

Come for spooky fun at the 2015 Halloween Haunted Forest at 'Terror' Cotta and enjoy a carnival-themed visit to the park.

This year's festivities include our popular:

- Haunted House of Wonders
- Wagon ride through the past
- Creepy maze
- Ghost stories around a fire

Fun carnival-themed stations with candy apples and cotton candy!

Interactive performances around the park courtesy of To Be Determined Theatre Co.

Food will be available at a cost. Tickets may be purchased in advance and must be used for the date they are purchased for; they are non-transferable to a secondary date.

This event will run rain or shine.

Don't forget to wear a costume and lighting is also limited so bring a flashlight.

Reminder: This is an outdoor event so please dress weather appropriate. Tickets will not be refunded for cancellations.
