Four weeks ago a "Committe of One Hundred on India Reliet" was formed at New York, including among its members a number of leading citizens. In response to earnest requests from many parts of America, the committee has placed itself at the service of all who might desire the use of its facilities, and its literature, and its direct and constant communication with India and the treasurership of Messrs. Brown Brothers & Co., 59 Wall St., are now at the command of any who wisb to forward subscriptions. American express companies have also consented to make all their offices for the receipt and free transmission of relief funds for the press and for all relief committees of the United States. They also forward, free of charge, the committee's publications to any part of the country.

The appeal of this great charity appears in another column.

The War in Africa.

London, June 12.—Bad news from the Free State oozes out slowly from the War Office. The line of communications was cut on Wednesday, the day after Lord Roberts entered Pretoria, but the fact was not admitted until Saturday, nor the truth revealed until yesterday that there had been severe fighting at Roodeval, and that a militia battalion, the Derbyshire Regiment, and other details had been taken prisoners. These details were guarding the railway where the Boer raiders struck the line of communications, and their casualties were severe, about one hundred being killed and wounded, so far as reported. The defence of the militia was clearly vigorous, but the force was outnumbered, and the Boers were enabled to destroy the railway for over forty miles. Lord Methuen, after reaching Lindley by a forced march from the railway, left a garrison there and headed for Heilbron to join Colvile, but was fighting with a Boer force on Thursday within ten miles of his destination. Whether this force was returning from Roodeval with prisoners or was an auxiliary celumn hovering about Heilbron is uncertain. Apparently the raiding column remained on the railway several days, for the casualty list reached Gen. Knox at Kroonstadt under a flag of truce. Gen. Kelly-Kenny has ordered Gen. Knox to go north, but the direction taken by the raiding forces, whether east or south, is not known. Lindley would appear to be in imminent danger, although no references are made to it in the despatches.

London, June 13.—After a week's silence Lord Roberts has been heard from, his communications having been practically restored by means of a complete victory gained by Generals Methuen and Kitchener over General De Wet at the Rhenoster River yesterday, June 12th. The Boer camp was captured and the burghers were scattered in all directions.

Lord Roberts, on being notified of the cutting of his line of communications, sent General Kitchener in all haste to join General Methuen.

On June 11th Lord Roberts attacked General Botha, who was in strong force fifteen miles southeast of Pretoria. After strenuous opposition the British forces gained considerable ground, but when Gen. Roberts left the field, Gen. Botha was still undefeated.

All is quiet at Pretoria and Johannesburg, and Lord Roberts says the Government need have no apprehension about the security of the army in South Africa, as it will not take long to remedy the reverses and repair the railways.

Committee of One Hundred on India Famine Relief.

73 Bible House,
New York, June 5, 1900.

INDIA'S APPEAL.

Famine, from want of rain, is now smiting sixty millions of our fellow-beings. At this moment, death by sheer hunger and thirst threatens one-sixth of that number. Thousands are starving each twenty-four hours. In that stricken land, the heavens are as iron and the earth as brass.

Birds of the air drop lifeless from the burning sky. Hundreds of thousands of cattle have perished. In the absence of food and water, fiercest animals let go their hatreds, and helpless lie down together to die. The decaying bodies of men and beasts pollute both plains and rivers.

And the woe has not reached its worst. Face to face with even such horrors still stand countless little children, women, and men, whom food will save. Thank God, relief may almost instantly pass, by cable, from this land of plenty to that India of starvation. Accordingly, only gifts of money are solicited.

What, then, shall we do? What will you do? For our answer we are clearly responsible to both God and man. Ought not America to send quickly at least a million dollars? In the famine districts are efficient, devoted men and women, not only American but also European, who are already engaged in the actual rescue, but who are pleading for larger supplies. Surely such supplies can be provided, and yet the customary gifts to long-established agencies for the uplifting of the people of India not be at all lessened.

Meanwhile, the Government of India is organizing relief on a scale unapproached in the history of the world. Both treasure and life are given without stint in the saving work. On May 14th, the number of starving aided officially was 5,795,000. That official daily aid will be steadfastly continued and increased, yet it will be unable to keep pace with the awful need. The death-rate is by far the greatest in the native provinces, where the Government has least influence and control. Only the united efforts of all the humane, the co-operating good-will of all the nations will suffice.

In this emergency, the Committee of One Hundred gladly puts itself at your service, the service of the cause.

Messrs. Brown Brothers & Company, the well-known bankers, 59 Wall Street, have freely consented to receive and acknowledge all gifts sent to them. Every expressed wish of donors will be faithfully carried out, and the committee, on its own part, will earnestly seek the best, most efficient, most economical agencies for the distribution of undesignated funds.

Together and at once let us move to the rescue. We can feed the starving. There is not a minute to be lost. From two to five cents a day will save a life.

WILLIAM E. DODGE, Chairman.
L. T. CHAMBERLAIN,
Chairman of Exec. Com.
JOHN CROSBY BROWN, Treasurer.

From Corpl. Cunningham.

The following letter from Corpl, Cunningham has been received by Capt. Beattie :

Thaba Nechu,
Capt. Beattie. April 29, 1900.

Dear Sir,—As we have been awarded the opportunity of sending a letter home, it pleases me much to state once more that I am well. When I say we were awarded a chance of sending this, I mean that on occasions of this kind we can just send them away when a convoy leaves. We are now in Thaba Nechu, a place half way between Bloemfontein and Ladybrand. We had two fights, getting in one at Bloemfontein waterworks, when Canadians had no casualties; then we had another on Five Miles, in which we had six casualties, one of whom we miss, as it is our worthy Col. Otter. We have been having a warm time since we arrived here, as General French has driven about fifteen thousand of them up this way. We are lying in wait for them. We missed the main body, just capturing one hundred transports and about the same number of Boers; but our troops are still after them and we expect to corner the rest. About two squadrons of Kitchener's horse got cornered up the other day and at about ten o'clock at night two companies of Canadians and six of Gordons started to rescue them; one of the companies was mine. We marched all night and found in the morning that they had been relieved. I could send a book of such things as this. If you meet any friends, tell them the reason that they don't get any mail. I will close, sending all my best wish.

I remain, yours truly.
R. J. CUNNINGHAM, Corpl.

Letter of Condolence.

At a meeting of Hornby Division, No. 216, S. of T., on Friday evening last, a committee was appointed to send a letter of condolence to Bro. W. T. and Sister Ada Sibbald and family on the death of their brother and son, the late Fred. H. Sibbald. The followings is the letter :

Dear Bro., Sister and Friends,—

We, the members of Hornby Division, No. 216, S. of T., realize deeply the loss sustained by the death of our beloved brother. Our hearts are filled with sadness as we feel that no more shall we gaze on his genial smile, nor clasp his hand of welcome; no more shall we behold him in the happy circle that surrounds the consecrated altar of Love, Purity and Fidelity; all are hushed and silent forever.

But we realize more deeply that our loss is not to be compared to yours. We mourn the loss of a much loved member, fallen asleep in Jesus; but, oh! how great is yours; a kind, dutiful son and loving brother has been cut down in the prime of life and called away from the family circle. We extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in this your hour of bereavement, and earnestly pray that the Great Patriarch above may cheer your lonesome hours, and that His divine grace may soothe and bind your broken hearts. May we all remember that he is only gone before and that we may all be re-united in that Heavenly home above, where parting, sorrow and pain are unknown.—

"Safely, safely gathered in,
Far from sorrow, far from sin,
No more childish griefs or fears,
No more sadness, no more tears;
For the life so young and fair,
Now hath passed from earthly care;
God himself the soul will keep,
Giving his beloved sleep."

Signed on behalf of the Division.

E. F. NIXON,
A. G. ROBINSON,
Committee.

County Court and General Sessions.

The Courts of General Sessions of the Peace and County Court opened at 1 o'clock on Tuesday, before His Honor Judge Hamilton.

There was no civil business to be transacted, and the only criminal case was that of the Queen vs. Cornell, of Oakville. A true bill was found by the grand jury, but on application of Mr. Denton, for the defence, the trial was postponed until the next sitting of the court. We learn that the accusation arises from the alleged refusal of Cornell to pay over to the Town of Oakville some $5.002 taxes which it is said he has collected for that municipality. Bail was taken in the case.

W. F. W. Fisher was foreman of the grand jury, the others being David Beaty, John H. Betts, Arthur Grey, John Hampshire, John Johnson, Rich'd Mitchell, William McPhail, William Nicholls, Headly Shaw and David Turner. The following is their presentment :

To His Honor Judge Hamilton.

The grand jury at the present Sessions beg to present to the Court that they have carefully considered the bill presented to them by the Crown Attorney, this being the only matter of a serious nature laid before them.

They join your Honor in congratulating the people of this county on the absence of crime of a serious nature.

They also beg to endorse fully the patriotic sentiments uttered in your Honor's address on the result of the war between Great Britain and the South African Republics, and hope that within a very short time complete victory may rest with the British arms, and further that the last years of the reign of our revered Sovereign may be crowned with peace.

They have examined the court house and jail and find the same in their usual state of cleanliness, reflecting credit on the officials in charge.

They would recommend that the unfortunate persons confined in the jail solely on the ground of poverty should not be compelled or allowed to associate with criminals.

(Signed) WM. F. W. FISHER,
Foreman.

William Kennedy, of Nassagaweya, who had while in the United States become a citizen of that country, was repatriated as a British subject.

The appointment of Donald McGregor of Kilbride as constable for the county was confirmed.

Murdered by Hired Man.

Moosomin, N. W. T., June 10th.—An awful tragedy occurred at Welwyn during Friday night, when John Morrison, aged 27, brutally murdered Alexander McArthur, his wife, and three children, fatally wounded two others, and tried to kill the eighth. The dead are: Alexander McArthur, Mrs. McArthur, Demsey McArthur, aged 12, Charles McArthur, aged 8, Russell McArthur, aged 4. Henry, aged 2, and the baby, 3 weeks old, were so badly injured that they cannot recover, while Mamie, aged 6, was terribly wounded.

Another daughter, aged 15, was awakened by the murderer taking her little brother Russell, who was sleeping with her, out of bed, when he was killed in the same room. After killing Russell, Morrison told Miss McArthur that he had killed all the family, but would spare her, and said he was going to shoot himself. He then left the house and attempted to take his own life in the stable by shooting himself through the right lung. He, however, is not likely to recover, and is now lodged in jail here.

After Morrison left the house, Miss McArthur came downstairs, and upon seeing the terrible sight, ran to Mr. Jamieson's place, about a quarter of a mile away. Mr. Jamieson and a neighbor went to the McArthur house at once and after investigating, sent for the police and the coroner.

WM. McKENZIE, - Main Street, - MILTON.

Mr. and Mrs. McArthur were highly respected by all who knew them; in fact, were among the leading people of the Welwyn district, and will be greatly missed. Mr. McArthur has one brother in Winnipeg and another in New Westminster.

John Morrison, the murderer, was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and lived in Ontario previous to coming here eight years ago, most of which time he has been employed by Mr. McArthur. No motive has been found for the crime, which was all done with an axe.

A few weeks ago we announced that we would have a picture of the famous general to offer our readers, and the office has been simply flooded with enquiries and orders for it. We are advised that the Family Herald and Weekly Star are now in a position to ship the pictures, and our readers who have already ordered it will not have long to wait. The publishers of the Family Herald decided it would be better to take lots of time and do the picture thoroughly, and their decision was a wise one, for the pictures are certainly a credit; true to life in every feature. Our offer places this picture within the reach of all. We will send the Champion and the Family Herald and Weekly Star for the balance of 1900, and include a copy of Lord Roberts's picture (17x22) for the small sum of 90c. If after receiving it you are not satisfied that the picture alone is worth the money you can have it returned. To our present subscribers we offer the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Canada's leading weekly newspaper, for the balance of 1900 and the picture of Lord Roberts for the small sum of 60 cents. Send your orders to the Champion office.
