SKATING PARTY.—A skating party, something new in Milton, was given last Thursday evening by a few young men who rented the rink for the occasion. All enjoyed themselves greatly and the function was such a success that similar ones are likely to follow.

FROM OREGON.—The Industrial Edition of the La Grande Journal, Oregon, is a very fine one, issued in magazine form and handsomely illustrated. It contains a poem, "Autumn on the Grande Ronde," by Dr. W. C. Belt, brother of Rev. A. J Belt, of Grace Church. The 44th annual convention of the Halton Sunday School Association was held at Burlington last Thursday and Friday, and was one of the most successful in the history of the association. The attendance was large and representative. The delegates from Milton were: Rev. E. F. McL. Smith, D. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Henderson, Maggie Mitchell, Edith Dewar, Ann McRae, Jennie Petrie, Florence Harrison, Maggie Bews, Mildred Johnson, Mrs. Hugh Campbell and Miss Menzies.

The suggestion that the King's birthday be fixed on as the date for the annual Thanksgiving is well received, as is also that of adopting the 24th of May for Empire day. The King's birthday, following as it does on the 9th of November, comes close to the time at which we usually celebrate Thanksgiving, while to make the proposed change for Empire day we should have but to move one day forward, Empire day being now observed on the 23rd of May.

THE RINK.—Greatly to the disappointment of the managers and patrons of the rink the band did not play as announced on Tuesday evening, when there was a large turnout of skaters. The reason there was no music was because Bandmaster Gollins had driven to Georgetown and on his way home his rig broke down in a snow drift near Hornby. He had to walk to Milton, arriving here between nine and ten o'clock. The managers beg to announce that the band will play at the rink on Tuesday and Saturday evening of every week until further notice.

W. H. Lindsay has received from his son Walter, of Chicago, samples of Pro-Boer literature issued by the American Transvaal league of Chicago with the programme of a public meeting held by the league on the 5th inst. The league publishes an appeal to the citizens of the United States for subscriptions to aid the Boers, and promises that all contributions received will be faithfully applied to their intended use. Similar promises were made elsewhere in the United States, but the bulk of the money contributed for the Boers was spent by the agitators.

At the meeting of the officers and directors of Esquesing Agricultural Society in Georgetown last Saturday, it was almost unanimously decided to hold the first exhibition of the new century in Acton. The experience of having $225 cash in the treasury and all claims paid—the result of holding the show in Acton last year—is so unique and satisfactory that the directorate is quite willing to have it repeated.—Acton Free Press.

The Executive Committee of the Halton Teachers' Association will meet at the Wallace House, Milton, at 10 a.m., on Saturday, 23rd inst. FLOUR! FLOUR!—We beg to announce to the farmers of Halton that we are prepared to supply them with a strictly high grade of flour in exchange for wheat, on a basis that will make it sufficiently interesting for them to deal with us. This is the Maple Leaf brand, put up by David Clark, of Ayr, and is of a quality that will sell on its own merits. We are also making a specialty of seed grain, seeds, &c., of the highest standard of quality. A full line of oats, barley, goose wheat, peas, white hulless barley, &c. Bran, shorts, corn and cornmeal always in stock. Highest cash prices paid for all kinds of grain delivered at elevators at Milton and Hornby.—J. A. Brain & Co., pr. H. F. Naisbitt, Mgr.

Dr. A. C. Panton, of Portland, Oregon, has sent the Champion a copy of the Daily Oregonian, containing a report of the memorial services held at that city, in the armoury, on the death of Queen Victoria. About 4,500 persons were crowded into the building and a large number were unable to find room to enter it. A special service adapted from the prayer book of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States and that of the Church of England and authorized by the Bishop of Oregon was printed and used. A copy of it was also sent to the Champion. The usual prayer for the President of the United States was used and also the British ones for the King and the royal family. A surpliced choir sang processional, recessional and other hymns, among which was "God Save the King." Eloquent addresses were delivered by Episcopal and Baptist ministers. The armoury was draped with black and purple.

Milton Council, No. 61, R. T. of T., paid Acton Council, No. 71, a fraternal visit on Monday evening last. Three sleigh loads left, taking with them about 53 members. After a very pleasant drive the company arrived in Acton in due time, where they were accorded a very hearty reception. The council was opened and general business dispensed with. The Rev. H. A. McPherson asked the officers of Milton Council to take charge of the initiations, which they did in a very acceptable manner, initiating 16 new members. This is very encouraging indeed and shows that there is an interest in the temperance cause in Acton. Speech-making, songs and recitations were indulged in, but the most enjoyable part of the programme was the excellent lunch provided by the sisters of Acton Council. This council has only been organized a short time and bids fair to rival some of the best in the order. Campbellville Council, about 20 strong, was present and also contributed to the enjoyment of the evening. COM.

TEMPLE OF FAME

From Guelph Mercury.

"The large audience that greeted the presentation last night in the opera house of the "Temple of Fame" were treated to an artistic and choice entertainment. The interest was sustained and increased right to the end, the variety of recitation, of song, of fun, keeping the programme bright all through, with the beautiful costumes and spectacular efforts, formed a constant feast for the eye."

The plot of the piece, if it may be called such, is the desire of the Goddess of Fame to award the laurel wreath of honor to that woman who is most deserving of it. So, summoned by the Goddess, women famous in the world's history, in art, literature, government, celebrated for charity, devotion to humanity, etc., each pleads what she has accomplished, entitling her to be crowned Queen of Fame. As the list of supplicants covers all the famous women of the ages, it can readily be seen what scope there is for scenic effect, or the variety of attire and manner, and what a pretty and instructive series of tableaux can be made out of it. 2t

Halton Plowmen Meet.

A meeting of the Halton Plowmen's Association was held at the Commercial Hotel on Friday evening last, a large number being present.

A. McDougall, of Malton, was presented with the cup he won last fall (on the first trial), to be returned and again competed for at the next match, Nov. 1.

The following officers were elected for 1901:

President—Joseph Cunningham.
1st Vice-President—Wm. Elliott.
2nd Vice-President—Jas. Jarvis.
Secretary—Wm. Clements.
Directors—Robt. Stewart, Jas. Murray, Abram Stark, Jas. Wilson, Duncan McCallum, John Adams, Dr. Beck, T. J. Chisholm, Thos. Featherstone, Jas. Jarvis, jr., Robt. Fox, J. B. Scott, Chas. McGregor, W. A. Dixon, W. N. Scott, Thos. Elliott, Selby Hutcheon, A. McDougall, John Stewart, R. Graham, F. Chisholm, Alex. Chisholm, C. Norris, Geo. Storey.

The following paper was read by the secretary:

This being the annual meeting of the Plowmen's Association, the directors feel it their duty to return thanks to those who have assisted by their annual donations, also to the members of the county council for their grant to the association.

It is now ten years past since a few of the farmers and plowmen undertook to form an association for the purpose of tilling the soil and to induce the young men of this county to take more interest in plowing. We feel to a certain extent that we have done so; but yet we would be more pleased if more of our young men would or could be induced to avail themselves of the same.

What the farmer requires to-day is men who can take hold of the plow and put up a furrow that they are not ashamed of. And what looks better on a farm than good plowing? You may make up your mind when you see a farmer's fields well plowed that you will find other things to correspond around his premises, and the remark is often heard from travelers on our highways that such and such a farmer has his fields well plowed. We can look back and name some of our young men to-day that command high wages on account of their ability to handle a team and put up a furrow as it should be. We sincerely trust that the association may go on and prosper in the future.

As our term of office now expires, we leave the association, after holding one of its best matches, in a good financial position; also knowing that we held some of the best matches in the Dominion. We would urge the new board to renewed energy and to make this 20th century match one long to be remembered.

Death of Senator McKindsey.

Hon. George Crawford McKindsey died at the Bennett House at 1.45 p.m. on Tuesday, aged 72, after three weeks' illness, during the last two of which he had been confined to his bed. He was attacked in the first place by grip, which developed into pneumonia. About two years ago, at Ottawa, he had a stroke of paralysis and for some time his condition was considered almost hopeless. Though he survived it, his constitution was greatly weakened and his heart affected, so that in his last illness, when the disease had run its course he did not rally.

He was born at Hornby on March 29, 1829, and was a son of the late William McKindsey, a native of the north of Ireland. His mother's maiden name was Crawford, and she was also of Irish parentage. He was educated by private tutors and in the public schools. His father did a general business at Hornby and bought wheat on a large scale. For some years the Senator was his father's assistant. When sixteen years of age he went to Montreal, where he spent some years in the employ of a wholesale mercantile establishment, after which he returned to Hornby and was in business on his own account until, in 1855, he was appointed deputy sheriff and re-sheriff, the late Levi Wilson, resigned, and the Senator was appointed as his successor.

The Senator, from his boyhood, was a Conservative and took an active part in politics. In 1872 he opposed the late John White, ex-M.P., for the Commons, but was defeated. In 1882 he was again a candidate, having first resigned his office as sheriff, but was again defeated, his successful opponent being Wm. McCraney, ex-M.P., now of Vancouver, B. C. On Jan. 12th, 1884, he was appointed to the Senate. His thorough business training and great ability made him one of the most useful members of that body. Though a pronounced partizan and a hard fighter, he was an honorable one, and his kindly disposition and many good qualities made him very popular. His death is sincerely mourned by the members of the Senate and all who knew him, irrespective of party. He was a member of the Church of England. The funeral service will be held at Grace Church at 9 a.m. to-day, after which his remains will be taken via, G. T.R. to Hamilton for interment.

Senator McKindsey was a widower. He was married in 1859 to Teresa, daughter of the late John Crawford, of Brockville. Mrs. McKindsey died about 20 years ago. She had one son, who died in childhood, and a daughter, who survives her father and is unmarried.
