The Misses Flora and Laura Lousley left here on Tuesday of last week for the Northwest. Miss Flora will locate in Saskatoon, while Miss Laura will teach at Norway House, where Rev. Albert Lousley is superintendant of the college.—Oakville Star.

The Review reports the burning of a vacant house at Streetsville on the 9th inst. It belonged to Chris. J. Crozier, and, it is supposed, caught fire from a spark from a C. P. R. engine. Jos. Fulton's house was in danger, but was saved by a bucket brigade.

Strayed from the premises of the subscriber, lot 30, con. 2, N.D.S., Trafalgar, about two weeks ago, a black and tan collie dog, with white on neck, and has a short tail. Any person knowing of his whereabouts will oblige by notifying A. Patterson, Palermo P.O.

PLOWMEN, ATTENTION!—J. T. Jarvis carries a full stock of Cockshutt's Kid Kangeroo Double Plows, also Cockshutt's Celebrated Sod Plows. A full stock of repairs constantly on hand. Warehouse in building lately occupied by Finlay Chisholm, Main St., Milton.

Wm. McKenzie, has been very ill since his trip to the Northwest. His chief trouble lately has been a gathering in his head, which caused a discharge from one of his ears. He underwent an operation a few days ago. It relieved him greatly, and it is hoped that he will soon be up again and able to attend to his business.

GUELPH FAIR.—John D. McGibbon has sent his pair of roadsters and a single driver, a mare, to Guelph Central Exhibition, and W. N. Scott shows a span of general purpose horses and two colts. W. A. Lawrence has made no entries, as he is one of the judges of horses at Hamilton Fair, which opened yesterday.

Miss Gertrude Dayfoot, Georgetown, was presented by the pupils of her school in Nassagaweya with a beautiful solid gold watch chain. The present was accompanied by an address expressing the appreciation of parents and pupils of the excellent work done by Miss Dayfoot during the time she was in charge of the school. Owing to home duties Miss Dayfoot recently tendered her resignation.

INQUEST.—The adjourned inquest on the death of the late William Pollock was concluded before Dr. McColl, coroner, yesterday evening. Three witnesses swore that the deceased was sober when he left Milton for home. Evidence was given as to the finding of the body. The verdict was that the deceased was killed by a C. P. R. train opposite the works of the Milton Pressed Brick Co. between 10.30 p.m. on the 9th inst. and 5.30 a.m. on the 10th. That was all there was in the verdict.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING SERVICES AT PALERMO.—The annual harvest thanksgiving services in connection with St. Luke's Church, Palermo, were held last Sunday. Large congregations offered their thanks for this year's bountiful harvest, and were addressed by Ven. Archdeon Clark, M.A., of Ancaster. His sermons were able, eloquent, and heartily enjoyed. On Monday evening a promenade concert whs held in the drill hall. This was a great success, the proceeds amounting to over $65. Jas. Fax, of Toronto, was the great attraction, and he was in splendid form. Miss Fax was accompanist. Miss Hettlouffer recited very acceptably and was deservedly encored.

Killed by a Cave-in.

Dublin, Sept. 18.—While working at a bridge, Daniel McPhee, who was assisting Moses Lumley in the excavation work at Tryconnell bridge preparatory to placing concrete abutments under the structure, was killed at noon yesterday while working in the trench. The earth caved in, and killed him instantly. A wife and seven children survive him.

May Be Murder.

Woodstock, Sept. 18.—Jacob Selby, 26 years of age, colored, is lodged in the county jail here, charged with assaulting James Clark, a West Oxford farmer, who now lies at the point of death in his home, five miles west of here, as a result of blood-poisoning setting in in a wound inflicted on the side of his head by a blow from a bottle, struck, it is alleged, by Selby, who had a row with the injured man at the hotel in Beachville.

Four Danish Officers Drowned.

Karlskrona, Sept. 18.—Four officers belonging to the Danish training squadron, now in these waters, were drowned last night by the upsetting of a boat while returning to their ships from the shore.

Loaded 200 Cars of Wheat.

Winnipeg, Sept. 18. — Up to date, about 1,000,000 bushels of wheat have been delivered at Lake Superior points. There were 200 cars loaded Tuesday with wheat for Fort William.
