The Canadian Champion

MILTON, Aug. 2, 1906.

Police Court.

On Thursday evening a medicine peddler got a license to sell in Milton, and took his stand in a buggy in front of the Champion office. He did no business, but there was a row.

Robert Armstrong, blacksmith, found Joseph Timbers in the crowd which gathered and slapped him for using bad language to him on the previous evening. Shortly afterwards Chief Constable Bradley and Constable Timbers, father of the youth who was slapped, attempted to arrest Armstrong, who demanded the production of a warrant. Armstrong resisted arrest. There was a long scuffle, during which the constables were tripped up. The chief constable had his neck scratched and was struck in the ribs, according to his account, with a stick or a stone. There was a big crowd. Sympathy was with Armstrong, and the constables were jostled so that they could not make the arrest and had to let Armstrong go. On Friday the chief constable laid an information charging Armstrong with being drunk and disorderly and using profane language. The case was tried on Monday before Magistrates D. Hartley and J. H. Peacock, County Attorney Dick appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Elliott for the defence.

Joseph Timbers, jr., swore that on Thursday evening, about 9 o'clock, he was sitting in front of the Champion office. Deft. came up and said, "Who were you going to kick — the other night? Who is a — ? (Armstrong repeated some obscene expressions). I said "Nobody. It wasn't me." He grabbed me, choked me, shutting off my wind, and slapped me across the mouth. He called me a — liar. I didn't say a word. He looked to be drunk. I smelled liquor on his breath.

Cross-examined by Mr. Elliott—Wouldn't swear deft. was drunk. He could stand alone and speak plainly. The trouble started on the previous night. I was coming home from a garden party. Deft. drove past the rig I was in and afterwards we passed him. He yelled at us and said "I'll meet you in Milton?" I said "Come here, and I'll kick —"

To the Court—There were two girls with Armstrong coming home from the garden party when I told him "I'll kick

Albert Stevenson sworn—Was with Joe Timbers when trouble occurred. Armstrong asked me if I had told him on the previous night that "I'll kick &c." I said no. He asked me if I had sat on left side of rig. I said no, and that Joe Timbers was on the right. He then tackled Joe and said "You said you would &c." Timbers admitted that he had. Bob struck him twice, I think, on face. I saw nothing else.

Cross-examined—Armstrong was holding his horse by the head on the road when Timbers said "Come here and I'll kick &c." Deft. was sober on Thursday night as far as my knowledge goes. He did not speak loudly. Dave, Joe and I were in the rig on Wednesday night.

To the Court—Armstrong went down street with Andy Fleming on Thursday night after the row.

David Timbers sworn—Was with Joe and Stevenson on Thursday night. Armstrong asked Joe if he could do what he said he could do on the night before. Joe didn't answer. Deft. took him by the shoulder and slapped him once. Deft did not use any bad language and wasn't drunk.

Joseph Timbers, Sr., sworn—Am county constable. Was at door of sample room of New Royal Hotel, Thursday night. Saw disturbance. Saw deft. in st. standing by sidewalk after he had struck my son. He was not swearing then. Heard swearing and went across. Deft. was talking pretty loud, was not swearing, think he was half drunk. he walked down street.

Cross-examined—Did not see trouble between deft. and my son. I didn't arrest deft. went down street. I followed Chief Constable Bradley, who overtook what was said. I asked deft. if he had slapped my son, he said he had. I said he shouldn't have done it. Chief Constable Bradley then arrested him.

To the Court—Bradley sat with me in the buggy. I did not know what was said and my son was night school. Bradley said I was told about it. I can't say positively that I heard deft. swear. Bradley seemed sold because to arrest him. Thursday he wanted to let him look on Friday morning, as he had been about to do business and give evidence about row.

I don't recollect someone said that deft. had kicked young Joe Timbers. Deft. was talking in a boisterous way.

To the Court—Did not undertake to sweep sidewalk clear to medicine man, nor did he give me $1 to do so. He paid $1 for license.

The ended evidence for prosecution and Mr Elliott asked the court to dismiss the case without going into the defence, as there was no evidence that deft. was drunk or disorderly or that he had used any bad language except to repeat that which had been used by Joe Timbers, Jr.

Mr. Dick agreed that there was no evidence of drunkenness, but there was no doubt that Armstrong had broken the peace. He would have been justified in chastising Timbers for the bad language used by him if he had one it at the time or afterwards in some back lot, but he should not have done it on Main Street. Deft. was entitled to a good deal of sympathy, but rows should not be permitted on our streets.

For defence—Robt. Armstrong sworn—Am deft. On Wednesday night someone ran into me on the road and broke cross bar of my buggy. As I was holding my horse by the head, Timbers told me to "go to —" and said he would "Kick —" He told me that again after I said I would meet him in Milton. I went up street on Thursday night, asked Stevenson about what was said and who said it and then asked Timbers, who did not answer. I told him what he said, took him by the coat and slapped his mouth. I then went into the crowd and in about half a minute went down street with Andy Fleming.

James Conner sworn—Saw trouble between deft. and Timbers. Deft. accused Timbers of calling him vile names on the night before and said he had a notion to slap him. Timbers said he didn't and deft. cuffed him. There was no disturbance of any account and nobody hurt.

Cross-examined—There were 1 or 2 dozen people there. The sidewalk was not blocked up; it was practically clear. Did not hear deft. using any bad language beyond repeating what Timbers had used.

The court told deft. that he should not have taken the law into his own hands. He had a proper remedy against Timbers and should have laid an information against him. Though deft's. provocation had been great the court could not let him off, but the penalty would be as light at possible—the payment of the costs of the prosecution within eight days.

Shattered Nerves

Made Strong and Steady by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

When your nerves are out of order your whole health is on the verge of a break-down. Sudden sounds startle you; your muscles twitch and your hands tremble; your self-control is shattered; your will-power gone. Your head aches; your feet are often cold and your face flushed. Your heart jumps and thumps at the least excitement; you are restless at night and tired when you wake. Your temper is irritable and you feel utterly down-hearted. And the whole trouble is because your blood is too thin and watery to keep the nerves—feed them with the rich, red blood that only Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can make—and do make. Mr. Fred Forth, 17 Sullivan street, Toronto, says:—"I was a complete wreck with nervous prostration, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made a new man of me. I had been nervous for years; the least noise would startle me, and the least exertion would leave me utterly prostrated. I lost in weight, and physically I was almost a wreck. I had not taken the pills long when I found they were helping me; my appetite improved, my nerves began to grow steady, and day by day I gained until I was again a well man. My weight increased twenty-five pounds while I was was using the pills. To any who suffer as I did, I can say that if Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are given a fair trial, a cure will be sure to follow."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills restored Mr. Forth, simply because they made the rich, pure blood which properly nourishes the nerves and keeps them strong. They will cure all the diseases due to bad blood and shattered nerves, such as anaemia, indigestion, headaches and backaches rheumatism, lumbago, St. Vitus dance, paralysis, general weakness and the secret ailments of growing girls and women. But you must always insist on getting the genuine pills with the full name Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People on the wrapper around each box. Sold by medicine dealers or sent direct by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Baseball.

The match at the Agricultural Society's ground on Saturday between the locals and the Copeland-Chatterson team of Brampton was one of the best ever played in Milton. It was a pitcher's battle and Atkinson had the better of it. The locals won, 5 to 2. T. Fletcher, of Brampton, was a model umpire. His judgment was good on balls and strikes, and he was strictly impartial. Not one of his decisions was questioned. The score—

Roy Field, of Milton, was in hard luck. He was hit in the face by a ball which rose unexpectedly from a lump, and got another crack in the side of his head from a pitched ball, which nearly knocked him out.

The diamond had been skinned since the last game and was greatly improved.

At the commencement of the game a non-player from Brampton insisted on coaching the visitors and was forcibly removed from the diamond.

The following invitation has been received from Bronte:

Bronte, July 25th, 1906.

MR. J. D. MCGIBBON,

Dear Sir,—On Aug. 18th inst., the Bronte baseball team intends holding a tournament on the local grounds and would like four teams from the county to enter, viz.—Milton, Oakville, Burlington and Bronte. Prize, $10 00 in cash, a cup or medals, whichever the management decides on. If Milton enters we will have them play in the afternoon. Awaiting your reply,

Yours,
J. PERCY PAGE.

The locals will not take part in the proposed tournament. The prize offered is not particularly large, and if it should be cash the players would be professionalized. In any event there would be too much danger of unpleasantness.

Death of Mrs. McCaulley.

In the death of Mrs. McCaulley, who passed away very peacefully at the age of eighty-nine, on the morning of the Twelth of July, one of the few remaining links are broken which bind the present with the very early settlement of the Township of Nelson. Her father, whose name was John Ramshaw, was one of the first settlers on the Mountain, on the farm which her son, Wm. Shields, now occupies, and where she and her family lived the greater part of her life. When about twenty years of age she became united in marriage to Wm. Shields, soon afterwards going to live on the same farm. In the year 1852, her husband was drowned along with Chas. McDowell while crossing Burlington Bay to Hamilton on the ice. His death, in the midst of a useful and active life, cast a gloom of sadness on herself and family all her after-life. Sometime later she was again married to Alexander McCaulley, who predeceased her about three years. Her family consists of ten children, four sons and six daughters, all of whom survive her. Her two oldest sons are well-known, John H. and Wm. A. Shields, and are enterprising and successful farmers. The two younger sons bought a tract of land on Manitoulin Island, where they are engaged in farming. Her six daughters were all married in early youth and proved to be of that class of which Solomon speaks of, doing their husbandss good and not evil all the days of their life, by precept and example, being taught the art of honest industry, to trust in God and do their duty. In those days churches were few and far between and Methodist ministers made their rounds on horseback at uncertain times. Her house was always open to them to stop and hold preaching service when they reached the neighborhood and they often availed themselves of the opportunity until the Mountain church was built, in the building of which she was deeply interested, Wm. Shields taking a very active part in providing material and helping with the building, his name appearing as one of the first trustees of the church. An incident in connection with building the church might be mentioned, which calls to mind the custom of that time. The frame was of heavy timber and required a number of men to do the raising, and of course nothing of that kind could be successfully done without whiskey, so the whiskey was provided, but it was discovered that a difference of opinion prevailed, some even at that early day holding that there was something wrong about drinking whiskey at a Methodist church raising, and after considerable discussion a compromise was agreed to, that the whiskey was not to be drank at the church, nor until after the raising was done. So accordingly the jug was taken to the house of John Harris, (a log house in the woods), and for safe keeping placed under the bed, but as soon as the frame was up no time was lost in attending to the whiskey. So from earliest days until now the old church holds up its weather-beaten front to the world in undying opposition to the debasing influence of the liquor traffic, of which it has seen a great deal and suffered much. In proof of the fact that what is done for the cause of God in building churches of endless importance. Although preaching service has not been regularly held for some years past, there is still a well conducted Sabbath School which is largely attended, where her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren attend regularly and are taught from the living truth of the Word of God and join in that worship which we cannot think the least acceptable with God—children singing the Saviour's praise. Quite a number are still here and perhaps more in Heaven that first experienced the pardoning mercy of God by being born again in the old church and still remember the wonderful manifestations in times when His glory filled the house as it did the grander temple of other times. During the last few years of her life Mrs. McCaulley's home has been with her daughter, Mrs. J. Coulson, near Kilbride, who has done her best to make her last days as bright as possible. Mind and body being greatly enfebled, the task has been arduous, but kind acts never die, they bring their reward. We will be remembered for what we have done. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. T. Bennett, of Milton, who spoke touchingly of her long faithfulness in the service of God and for the good of others. A life of trial is past, where she has done her best and God has called her home. Her children joined in singing some of those grand old hymns she loved to sing in younger days and at times in old age, even in the night with something of the clear musical voice of youthful days. Her sons and son-in-laws acted as pallbearers, John and William Shields, John Coulson, D. Hartley, George Dales and Peter Redpath. The day of the funeral was extremely warm, but all her daughters except Elizabeth, accompanied by many sympathizing friends, journeyed to Evergreen Cemetery, Milton, where she was laid to rest with sure and certain hope that family ties broken here will be reunited and old age put on the bloom of Eternal youth.—Com.

Foot Ease.

The flexibility and elasticity of "Queen Quality" Shoes and Oxfords adapt them to any and all types of feet.

The leather is soft and delightful to the touch, and this fit here there and every where with a firm yet gentle pressure that does away with any possibility of the foot slipping forward and cramping the toes.

The upward cling of the under arch, and the perfect clasp of the instep, make them the realization of a dream of foot easy.
