

THE FOURTH ANNUAL KICK FOR A CURE: was hosted by 9Round Fitness of Georgetown Thursday and participants in the Canadian Breast Cancer Society fundraiser more than doubled the initial goal that was set. 9Round members and staff unleashed 85,563 kicks during the event, which raised more than $1,000 for breast cancer research and care at a penny per kick. One of the organizers, Mike Drake, said the goal was originally set at 40,000 kicks for the day but those taking part far surpassed his expectations. The local fitness centre also sold pink boxing gloves and hand wraps to the participants to add to the fundraising total. 9Round franchises worldwide teamed up to support the fundraiser.
