COMMUNITY

PUTTING THE OLD SEED HOUSE GARDEN TO BED: Volunteers David Clayton (left) and Bob Baron replace a Chanticleer Pear tree during the Old Seed House Garden fall bulb planting and Garden Clean Up Day last weekend. The community garden, located at 135 Maple Ave. (corner of Guelph St. and Maple Ave.) is 1.8-acre property honouring the legacy of the renowned Dominion Seed House that existed on the site for years. The garden is maintained by Friends of the Old Seed House Garden volunteers and the Town with the help of in-kind services from local businesses.
