The Canadian Champion

MILTON, July 4, 1907

Hugh Campbell, county treasurer, pro tem, says the amount levied by the county council for county expenses for 1907-8, $13,818.20, is too low. The expenses of last year were heavy. They included $4000 paid for road machinery out of the general funds, no debentures being issued. He thinks at least $20,000 should be raised this year without taking into consideration any expenditure on the county good roads system. It is not the intention of the council to issue any debentures for road improvement and if there is any such expenditure the money required will come out of the general funds. Mr. Campbell says that when the council meets, as it will soon at the call of the Warden, he will advise the repeal of last week's by-law and the passing of another for a larger amount.

June Weddings.

AGNEW—BUNCE.

A quiet wedding took place in Nassagaweya on June 26th, at 3 p.m., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Bunce, when their second daughter, Edith, became the wife of Edward Agnew. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. J. Bell, of Milton, assisted by Rev. Mr. Archer, incumbent of St. John's Church, in the presence of relatives of the family. The bride was given away by her father. She wore an exquisite gown of embroidered Brussells lace over cream satin with sequin trimmings. A long embroidered veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms completed the costume, and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. After supper was served and the cake had been cut, the bride changed her wedding gown for a smart travelling suit of grey with hat to match. The happy couple left on the 5 p.m. train, amidst best wishes, for Chicago and other points west.

REID—AGNEW.

The marriage of Miss Martha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Agnew, Nelson township, to Duncan Reid of Trafalgar, took place on Wednesday, June 26th, at 4.30 p.m., at the residence of the bride's father, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Rev. W. M. McKay of Milton officiated. The bride attired in cream Voile, carrying a shower bouquet of bridal roses, was given away by her father. The Wedding March was played by Miss Shirk. After congratulations had been received Mr. and Mrs. Reid left by the 5 p.m. train for Toronto and other points.

The house was prettily decorated with [illegible] and roses. The bride, [illegible] by her father, was prettily attired in a [illegible] and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Robert Stanggroom, of Milton. The wedding march was played by Miss Bessie Matheson, sister of the bride. After the ceremony the bride and groom with their attendants and friends repaired to a marquee where a dainty supper was served, and heartiest congratulations were showered upon the happy couple. The bride's going-away dress was a navy blue [illegible] with white accessories. The happy pair received many handsome and useful presents. NERVOUS INDIGESTION

A Severe Case Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"I suffered so much from nervous dyspepsia that I feared I would become insane," says Mrs. Alfred Austin, of Varney, Ont. "For months," says Mrs. Austin, "I was prostrated with this trouble. I got so bad I could not eat a mouthful of food without it nearly choking me. I was affected with such terrible feelings of dizziness and nausea that I had to leave the table sometimes with just two or three mouthfuls of food for a meal. My nerves were all unstrung and I grew so weak that I could not even sweep the floor. In fact my nerves affected me to such an extent that I feared to be left alone. I could not sleep at nights, and used to lie awake until I feared my reason would leave me. I was taking medicine constantly, but it did not do me a bit of good. I had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on a former occasion with good results, and at last I determined to try them again. I can say nothing better than that these pills have been a blessing to me, as they have made me a well woman. Every trace of the indigestion is gone, and my nerves are as strong and sound as they were in girlhood. Now I can eat anything that is on the table, and I get sound refreshing sleep at nights. All this I owe to the faithful use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I shall never cease to praise."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills fill the veins with new rich red blood. That is why they strengthen the nerves and every organ in the body. That is why they cure all troubles due to bad blood or weak chattered nerves, such as anaemia, with its grinding, wearing backaches, headaches and sideaches, rheumatism and neuralgia, heart palpitation, indigestion, St. Vitus dance, partial paralysis, kidney troubles, and those special ailments that render the lives of so many women and growing girls a burden. But you must get the genuine pills with the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes sor $2 50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Deaths and Funerals.

DAVID WHEELHAN

David Wheelhan died on Wednesday, 26th ult., at his home in Campbellville, in his 67th year. He had been ailing for some time and had been confined to his bed for three weeks. He was born at Callaghan's Corners, two lots south of Campbellville. He had been for many years one of the most prominent and respected residents of Halton. He was a successful business man, dealing in timber and lumber on a big scale, in which he was associated for years with the late Henry Cargill, M.P. He was a member of the county council from 1882 to 1888, inclusive. Had he been ambitious in that way he might have been his party's candidate for the Legislature in more than one election, but he declined the honor. His wife was the first death in a family of eight. He is survived by five brothers, John in North Dakota, U.S., James, in South Dakota, W. P. in Wisconsin, Nicholas in Dresden, Ont., and Alexander, in Nassagaweya and two sisters, at home. Mrs. Tilla Quinn and Miss Mary Ann. The funeral took place on Saturday, 29th ult., from Mr. Wheelhan's late residence. Interment at the Roman Catholic Cemetery, Freelton.

MRS. DORLAND.

Mrs. Dorland, widow of the late Amos D. Land of Nelson, died at Hamilton, on Sunday, 23rd ult., aged [illegible] years. Her remains were brought to Palermo and buried in St. Luke's Cemetery on Tuesday, 25th ult. Rural Dean Bert conducted the services. Mrs. Dorland's son, Dr. Dorland, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and her daughters, Mrs. Hedden and Mrs. Dorland, were present from a distance to attend the funeral. The sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved ones.

Cannot Regulate Intellect.

It is surely impossible that anybody should be so misguided as to fancy that he can really regulate Canadian intellect by regulating the postal rates. Canada is a part of this continent and cannot help receiving its influences, make what postal laws you will. American magazines come to us fresh; English magazines come ten days after date. If the American publishers and editors were made hostile, our own literary men would suffer; for the writer of magazine articles in Canada has his field in the magazines of the United States. To get an article into an English magazine he finds very difficult, even if he has a name, much more if he has none. Neither the Maritime Provinces nor the Northwest can offer him a field of any consequence. Government regulation of national intellect is surely a thing of the past.—Goldwin Smith in Sun.

Dominion Day Demonstration.

The demonstration held here on Dominion Day under the auspices of the fire brigade was a very successful affair. The day was clear and fine in Milton, which escaped the heavy shower our neighbors to the south enjoyed in the morning. The crowd began to gather in the morning, when a five-inning baseball match was played between Brampton and Milton junior teams, the Milton boys being victorious by a score of 8 to 6. In the afternoon a large number of people were on the grounds, where the band gave good music and races and games were indulged in. Toronto Junction defeated Milton in a game of baseball by a score of 9 to 5. In the evening the band was again present, and Eddie Piggot, of Toronto, amused the company with his character sketches and well rendered comic songs. The proceeds for the day were very satisfactory.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I unformally cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes found in Rheumatic Blood seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend Servants' Influence On Manners.

"The women of my acquaintance," writes Josephine Daskam Bacon in the American Magazine, "are more considerate in their manner to their servants than to their relatives and friends and for the best of reasons—they are more likely to lose the first mentioned through inadvertence than the last, and it is practically of far more importance to consult their idiosyncrasies."

ZAM-BUK SAVED THIS BABY

Mrs. M. Barrett, 602 Morgan St., Montreal, says:—

"A horrid rash came out all over my baby's face and spread until it had totally covered his scalp. It was irritating and painful, and caused the little one hours of suffering. We tried soaps and powders and salves, but he got no better. He was so fretful all day long that it made it very hard for me. He refused his food, got quite thin and worn, and was reduced to a very serious condition. I was one day advised to try Zam-Buk, and did so. It was wonderful how it seemed to cool and ease the child's burning, painful skin. He gradually became more easy and able to sleep. Zam-Buk from the very commencement seemed to go right to the spot, and the pimples and sores and the irritation grew less and less. Within a few weeks my baby's skin was healed completely. He has now not a trace of rash, or eruption, or eczema, or burning sore. Not only so, but cured of the tormenting skin trouble, he has improved in general health. He has got fat and plump, weighs no less than 22 lbs., although only 7 months old, and is in first-class condition."

Zam-Buk is sold at all stores and medicine vendors, 50c. a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 6 boxes for $2.50.
