LIVINGSTON PARK.—The complimentary concert given last Thursday evening to T. C. Livingston at Livingston Park was fairly well attended, but not as well as it should have been considering the work done for Milton since the beginning of this year by Mr. Livingston in advertising the advantages of the town and securing two important industries with, no doubt, more to come. Dr. Anderson, mayor, was chairman. Speeches were made by Rural Dean Belt, Geo. Andrew, County Treasurer, and J. S. Deacon, Public School Inspector. Mr. Andrew's theme was Mr. Livingston's great work for Milton in connection with industries, as well as in establishing the park, and the other gentlemen dweit more particularly on the beauties of the park. Mr. Livingston spoke briefly in acknowledgment. He said he hoped to do more for Milton and he hoped that before long he would be able to get the town a radial railway. The band played a fine programme and Eddie Pickett, of Toronto, entertainer and comedian provided plenty of fun. Wilfred Woods, euphoneum player in the band, sang a solo. He has a well trained tenor voice. A number of economical individuals enjoyed the concert from the pond bank across the water and others, it is said, executed flank movements into the park, avoiding the gate keepers.

A GREAT CLUBBING OFFER.—New subscribers can get Canada's greatest weekly newspaper, the Montreal Family Herald and Weekly Star, together with the Champion, for the balance of this year at the bargain price of 50 cents. Order now. The sooner you do so the more papers you will receive. tf

The Oakville Star reports the saving of a young Englishman from drowning by Captain Maurice Felan, Collector of Customs at Oakville. The youth fell off Gledhill's coal dock into fifteen feet of water, couldn't swim, and was nearly exhausted. Captain Felan reached him with a board, which he grabbed, and he was dragged out.

MILTON'S PARK.

Mr. Editor:

Will you please allow me space in your paper for a few cogitations. Has the town of Milton a park? No, not anything worthy of the name. How is that? Have we not the beautiful and commodious Livingston Park? No, that is private property, and just as much so as the prettiest lawn in the town, upon which no person, or beast, has a right to trespass, except dogs; but their legal right, even to life, depends upon the tax paid, and the decoration of a dog collar and tax medal.

Why has Milton had no park? 1. Want of enterprise. 2. Lack of appreciation. 3 Niggardliness. And these conditions continuing, it will be impossible for private enterprise to furnish the people of Milton with a well ordered park. Surely the income from such a park should be equal to a moderate interest on the money invested, and the expense of caretaking. But what are the facts in this regard? Well, thus far there has been no charge to the people of Milton, who have been free to come and go as they pleased, except on occasions of especial entertainment, and all this is at Mr. Livingston's expense. A complimentary concert was given to the band and Mr. Livingston furnished the park free. Then some friends, appreciating the enterprise and courtesy of Mr. Livingston, conceived the idea of a complimentary entertainment for his benefit. This came off on the 27th ult., and the net proceeds thereof were less than was paid the same day for electric lights put in for the occasion. It is stated by the gate-keepers that many climbed the fence, a dozen at a time, while a crowd could be seen enjoying the entertainment from the railroad bridge and the bank of the pond.

A gentleman has been interested enough to make some enquiries of parties enjoying the park as to their appreciation of it. On the day following the recent concert he accosted group No. 1 with "This is a beautiful spot." "Yes," they replied, "it is lovely." "Do you often come here?" "O, yes, we have been here several times and we enjoy it so much." "There was a concert here last night, were you at it?" "No, we were not out last night." To group 2 on one of the swings, he said, "You are enjoying a good swing, are you?" "O, yes, it is fine." "I suppose you frequently visit this beautiful place?" "Yes, we enjoy it very much." "There was a concert here last night, I believe, I suppose you attended it?" "O, no, we heard it from the bridge." On Sunday afternoon he visited the park and found 27 persons present. He took a position from which he could count all new comers and the total was 160—all free, of course. Private picnics are held, park wood is burnt, and the debris of banana and orange skins with waste paper are left to be gathered up by hired labor.

The above illustrations are sufficient to prove that we of this town are but novices as yet, and our conduct is the result of the thoughtlessness or ignorance.

But, Mr. Editor, by what means may we amend our ways so as to secure the permanency of a well conducted park in our town? Here are two suggestions for consideration and they may elicit others.

1st, Let the town council pay an annual rental as shall be considered adequate by Mr. Livingston, and thus make the park free to the citizens, except for special entertainments.

2nd. The park to be open on specified days each week, and season tickets to be sold (non-transferrable), and gate fees charged "those without tickets. All to pay gate fees for specialties.

Enough said.

Yours truly,
J. C. Willmott.

Baseball.

As expected, the executive of the Halton-Peel League refused to entertain Brampton's protest of the game won by Acton from Brampton on the 22nd ult. At the meeting held at Georgetown on Thursday evening Brampton's representative was informed that there was no appeal from an umpire's decision on a point of play. The executive should have gone further, and fined Brampton for leaving the field with the game unfinished, disappointing the people who paid their good money to see a full had game of nine innings.

The match at Acton on 22nd inst. gave the championship pennant to Acton, but to prove their ability to get away with the Peelites, who had avoided a walloping by doing the baby act, the Actonians tackled them in their own back yard last Saturday, and trimmed them to the tune of 22 to 2.

Milton did not forfeit the two unplayed games to Georgetown, as stated by Brampton papers. They were called off by mutual consent.

Harry Lott, who has been playing good ball for the locals, is likely to be with them again next season. He has a permanent position in the machine shop of P. L. Robertson Co., being a skilled machinist as well as a ballplayer. He can play hockey too, and may figure on the local team next winter.

Oakville has long been a baseball town, with a fast team, but scorers their have a system peculiar to themselves. The full score of every game is published in the local papers. Every man who faces the pitcher, is put out or gets on a base, is charged with a time at bat. To be walked, hit by a pitched ball, or to make a sacrifice hit does not affect his batting average.

WORK THAT WEAKENS

Booth's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work in Milton.

Many Milton people work eyery day in some strained unnatural position, bending constantly over a desk, riding on jolting wagons or cars, bending over heavy house work, lifting, reaching, pulling, all these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Booth's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs, Milton cures prove it.

Mrs. James Coulter, of Pine St., Milton, Ont., says: "I have suffered for a long time with kidney trouble and this last winter was so bad with lame back over the kidneys that I could not turn in bed without help. The kidney secretions were dark and cloudy and contained a sediment of a brick dust color. I have used Booth's Kidney Pills for these troubles with most satisfactory results. I find that the kidney secretions have assumed the normal color, free from all sediment and I can now turn over without any trouble and am much more free from pain than I have been in a long time. I obtained this remedy at Higginbotham's Drug Store."
