Wentworth county council will submit the question of the erection of a house of refuge to the electors, who will vote on a $40,000 debenture by-law.

A car of Frost Woven Fence at closest prices. We loan the stretchers.—M. E. Nixon's hardware.

Miss Jean Dewar, of Toronto, has come to Milton to pay Mrs. J. A. Frazer an extended visit. Her brother, Arthur, left yesterday for Vancouver, B. C., where he has secured a good position.

WANTED.—A reliable girl to take charge of children part of the day. Apply to Mrs. C. R. Willmott, West-Mary Street.

Rev. T. Albert Moore is recovering from an operation, the removal of a three-pound tumor from his left side. He is general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance and a brother of H. P. Moore, of the Acton Free Press.

Manager W. B. Clements, of the Metropolitan Bank, is attending to his duties as usual, though not quite rid of the effects of his illness.

H. J. Hollinrake, of Toronto, is making a good recovery at the family residence here from the serious illness that attacked him at the time of the death of his father.

Empress Shoes for women, also a full range of Children's Slippers and Sandals. Our heavy School Boots for the boys and girls are the best, all solid leather. Call and see the famous boots made of steel. Repairing neatly done. —Yates' Shoe Store, opposite post office.

HALTON WINNERS.—At Brampton spring fair last Saturday, Thos. McKenzie got second prizes for Shire and Percheron stallions and Saml. McGibbon second for single roadster in harness.

Robert Birmingham, Grand Lodge Organizer, will be at the Hotel McGibbon, to-morrow, (Friday) evening, to reorganize the Milton L. O. L. All Orangemen are requested to attend at 8 o'clock.

LISTEN TO THIS—Abigail told Michal that she heard David telling Jonathan he had heard the Comforting Messenger say the Herald told her that Saul said that the witch's cave where he saw Samuel's ghost fairly made him shiver with fear. Don't fail to see it to-night.

The Free Press reports the leaving of a horse and rig belonging to W. G. McCannell, liveryman, Guelph, at Gibbons's hotel, Acton, by Clayton Pennyleigon, who took a train for Toronto, leaving his hotel bill unpaid.

FARMERS BANK.—Since recovering from his illness A. C. McBride, Milton manager of the Farmers Bank, has been inspector pro tem. He visited the Milton agency on Monday. His Milton friends will be glad to hear that he will return in about two weeks to stay.

A COMING TREAT.—The Milton band has arranged for the performance of Robertson's well known comedy, "Caste," by the Burlington Dramatic Club at the town hall on Thursday evening, May 12th. "Caste" is a high class play, but the Burlington amateurs produced it in splendid style a short time ago. Those who go to hear it will not be disappointed. Further particulars next week.

D. Henderson, M.P., has secured the order of the Postmaster General for Mountain Heights post office, to be opened shortly at Lewis's brick works, with John Appleyard as postmaster. Also an order to have Nelson post office made a money order office.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.—Last night Andy McCutcheon was arrested and jailed on the charge of assault and doing serious bodily harm to Mrs. John Fetter, who alleges that he went into her house drunk, picked up a table knife and attacked her with it, cutting her neck and one of her arms. Andy will appear before Police Magistrate Dice on Saturday morning.

RECITAL—Miss Emma T. Irons, a talented young Canadian, will appear in the Methodist Church, Milton, Thursday evening next, May 5th, when, in eastern costume, she will give a sacred recital entitled, "The Story of Ben Hur." Miss Irons comes very highly recommended and all may esteem it a privilege to hear this "splendid portrayal of a splendid life." Go early and secure a good seat. Admission 25c. Children 15c. Read extracts from letters to Miss Irons by leading clergyman of the West, where she has spent the past two years:

Rev. G. K. B. Adams, Young Methodist Church, Winnipeg: "A splendid portrayal of a splendid life."

Rev. Hamilton Wigle, B.A., Zion Methodist Church, Winnipeg: "We want more of such wholesome entertainments as yours."

Rev. Geo. Brown, B.A., Sherbourne Street Church, Toronto: "Your recital of 'The Story of Ben Hur' was a revelation of the spiritual aspect of this famous book. It was admirably arranged and rendered with keen sympathetic and dramatic insight."

BLACK KNOT.—The Champion has been asked to draw the attention of Milton owners of plum and cherry trees to the fact that the law requires them to keep such trees free from black knot and that there are penalties for neglecting to do so. Complaint is made that there are many trees in Milton full of black knot, which infect trees in neighboring gardens. Those who persist in neglect in this matter will be in danger of being paraded before the Police Magistrate.

Canada's foreign trade for the last fiscal year amounted to $667,142,189, an increase of $117,506,238 over the record for the previous year.
