GIRL WANTED.—To do hand or machine sewing. Apply W. Bews' Sons.

D. C. Mackenzie, of Rochester, N.Y., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mackenzie.

Watch our window this week for our Confectionery specials.—Mackenzie, the People's Druggist.

The Hornby branch of the Women's Institute will meet at the home of Miss Elma Robinson on Wednesday, Mar. 8th, at 2 p.m. All ladies welcome.

Hugh Campbell has been appointed issuer of marriage licenses.—Office—Town Hall, Milton. 25-tf.

HOUSE OF REFUGE.—Whitfield Armstrong, superintendent of the Peel-Halton house of refuge, Brampton, was in town on Monday. He said that there were 44 inmates, Peel having 6 or 7 more than Halton.

FOR SALE OR TO RENT.—Comfortable house, new furnace, electric light, hard and soft water in house.—T. E. Weir.

GOOD CATTLE.—Messrs. Clements & Peacock shipped a car load of fine cattle on Saturday last. Sixteen head were bought from Jas. Murray, Mansewood, and averaged over 1300 lbs. The price paid was $6.25 per 100 lbs.

See our display of St. Patrick's day Post Cards, 2 for 5c.—Mackenzie, the People's Druggist.

Dr. J. O. McGregor, of Waterdown, is fast recovering his strength and hopes to be able to attend to his practice very soon. Mrs. McGregor and the Misses McGregor attended the at home here on Tuesday evening.

PAY YOUR TAXES.—Citizens of Milton whose taxes are in arrears are requested to call on the collector and settle at once. Otherwise costs will be added.

CHANGED NAME.—The Busy Man's Magazine is now known as Maclean's Magazine. It is a splendid publication and supplies a want long felt—for a first class Canadian magazine.

JUST ARRIVED—a car load of Redpath's Granulated Sugar, at bottom price.—Blain & Hannant.

KNOX CHURCH.—The subject for Sunday morning will be "The Golden Rule." Evening subject, "What Jesus teaches regarding Common Honesty." Mr. Mackay will preach and there will be special music.

The at home given by the ladies and gentlemen of Milton at the town hall on Tuesday evening was a success in every way. Besides local society people there were many guests from Toronto and neighboring towns. The decorations were tasteful and the Lomas orchestra, of Hamilton, was as good as ever.

Do not be misled into buying cheap spool cotton. We sell Coates's best English thread, also Corticelli spool silks. Remember quality remains long after price is forgotten.—Galbraith & Company.

Harry Hemming says his is one of the two families referred to in last week's local reporting Judge Gorham's investigation of cases of alleged neglected children. He wishes it to be understood that whatever may be said about other features of the case, his children are at least well fed and go regularly to the public and Sunday schools.

March winds produce chaps and rough skin. The best toilet preparations to prevent effects of March winds are: Nyal's Face Cream—Cream of 4 Roses—Edelweiss Cream—Euthymol Cream—all non-greasy and 25c. each.—Mackenzie, the People's Druggist.

QUEEN ESTHER.—The performance of the cantata, "Queen Esther," at the town hall on Thursday evening drew a crowded house, every seat being filled and many people having to stand. The staging was good, the costumes appropriate, and the solo and chorus singing most creditable to the performers and their trainers, Miss E. Dale Sinclair and Miss Barron, the latter lady having charge of the little children. On Friday evening the Cantata Club repeated the performance at Georgetown, under the auspices of the Methodist Church, to a large house and, as many were crowded out here on Thursday evening, it was given again on Monday evening to a fairly large audience.

The Ladies' Aid of Omagh Presbyterian Church purpose holding a grand concert and tea, to be held on Tuesday evening, March 7th. The following talent will take part in the program: Miss Doris Murray, elocutionist, of Toronto; soloists, Mrs. J. W. Bews, of Milton, Mrs. Booth, of Hornby, and others. Speeches will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Watts, Mansewood, and J. D. McGregor, Streetsville. Miss Dewar, Milton, accompanist. Tea served from 6 to 8 p.m. Rev. W. J. Booth, chairman. Admission 25c. and 15c.

Hockey.

Don't forget the hockey match at the rink this evening between Burlington and Milton. The visitors are a fast and husky bunch. They won, 3 to 2, at Burlington, but our boys hope to win here. The game will be fast and may be the last of the season.

Lowville.

Hugh Fraser, formerly of Campbellville, has come back to Halton, after spending twelve years at Winnipeg. He has bought out Andrew Emerson, blacksmith, of this place, and will take possession at once. He is known as a good mechanic. Mrs. Fraser is on her way from Winnipeg to Lowville.
