[illegible]

[illegible] is an extract from a camp correspondence published in the Globe on Tuesday: "That some radical change must be made in the system of militia training in the matter of securing men of the proper type, if the efficiency of the Canadian militia is to be maintained, is the almost unanimous opinion of the officers here in camp. It is a generally accepted fact that in recent years neither the most desirable class of men nor a sufficiently large number of them have been brought to camp by the rural regiments of both cavalry and infantry.

As a solution of the difficulty some of the regiments have this year, and in the past few years, adopted a scheme for filling their ranks which is not proving very satisfactory. Several of the rural units which are now in camp have secured a great number of their men from among the unemployed in Toronto. Advertisements were inserted in some of the papers calling for men to be given work for two weeks, and when the men applied they found that they were wanted to go to camp with one or other of the outside regiments."

Earl Nelson gets $25,000 a year through holding the Nelson title and representing the famous admiral's family—in the indirect line. In a like manner Lord Rodney gets $5,000 a year, but he is the direct descendant of the gallant seaman who defeated De Grasse.

The largest of the perpetual pensions is that received by the Duke of Richmond. It amounts to $65,000 a year. The story of this pension takes one back to the days of Queen Elizabeth, who got a duty of one shilling per chaldron on all coal exported from the Tyne and burned in England. Her successor held this duty until the reign of Charles II., who granted it to the first Duke of Richmond. He and his heirs received it for over a century, till in the time of George III. it was changed to the present annual pension, which is known as the Richmond Shilling.

The Duke of Norfolk obtains $300 a year from the Exchequer for what are known as "ancient fees," and the Duke of Rutland $100 under a like heading. These sums are nominal, it is true, yet the recipients do nothing whatever to earn them.

The first Duke of Grafton was granted by Charles II. a certain import duty known as "prisage and butlerage" upon wines. In 1806 the then existing duke commuted this duty for the annuity of $24,350, and his heirs still receive yearly this handsome income.

But it is not to be supposed that it is only the aristocrats who have been granted free pensions on the national Exchequer. Seventy thousand dollars odd is paid out on account of the Courts of Justice for compensation to those whose offices have been abolished. One old man is still alive who obtains $275 a year because, through the operation of a new Act he was deprived two generations ago of the privilege of selling forms in court. Laundresses who lost their work some twenty years ago through the Law Courts being removed from Westminster to their present site opposite Temple Bar still receive from $400 to $550, according to their status. A "Preacher at Rolls," formerly of the old Chancery Division, is paid $500 annually, though not a sermon has he preached for innumerable years; and there are many other instances in which the taxpayer is called on to pay every year.

A BISHOP IN A DONKEY CART

When he was Suffragan Bishop of West and North-West London, England, the Bishop of Marlborough was one day seen riding in a costermonger's barrow through a London district. He was due to hold a confirmation, but on arriving at the railway-station he found that no conveyance to the church could be obtained. To walk the distance was impossible. The perplexed Bishop was about to abandon the appointment, when the humble costermonger's cart appeared. With sudden decision the matter was arranged, the Bishop scrambled on to the cart, the costermonger whipped up his donkey, and the episcopal chariot rattled through the High Street to its destination.

WORK ON NEW STATION

During the last month or six weeks Montreelers have been watching with great interest the progress being made on the new addition to the Canadian Pacific Railway's Windsor Street Station. Work on the structure has been going ahead steadily all winter and such good progress has been made that it is probable that the whole building will be enclosed by the middle of August.

[illegible]

[illegible] Some Quite English Examples Made to Aristocracy and Others—Interesting History.

For more than 200 years the heirs of Lord d'Auvrequerque have been drawing comfortable pensions for something an ancestor did 217 years ago. It was in 1694 that William III. granted to Henry de Nassau, Lord d'Auvrequerque, his heirs, and assignees forever, the sum of $10,000 a year, in consideration of "his many and faithful services"—which, in fact, were those of a purely nominal political nature. Lord Cowper, to whom the four-fifths of this yearly sum was paid, commuted a portion of it in 1853 for $200,000 down, but his heirs still receive $1,875 annually.

There is the case of the Schomberg pension, granted also by William III. He burdened the State with the sum of $20,000 a year to the Schombergs; and, though portions of this have been commuted by descendants, England still pays out $2,600 annually to people who, it is alleged, are not in any way connected with the original Schomberg family.

Earl Nelson gets $25,000 a year through holding the Nelson title and representing the famous admiral's family—in the indirect line. In a like manner Lord Rodney gets $5,000 a year, but he is the direct descendant of the gallant seaman who defeated De Grasse.

The largest of the perpetual pensions is that received by the Duke of Richmond. It amounts to $65,000 a year. The story of this pension takes one back to the days of Queen Elizabeth, who got a duty of one shilling per chaldron on all coal exported from the Tyne and burned in England. Her successor held this duty until the reign of Charles II., who granted it to the first Duke of Richmond. He and his heirs received it for over a century, till in the time of George III. it was changed to the present annual pension, which is known as the Richmond Shilling.

The Duke of Norfolk obtains $300 a year from the Exchequer for what are known as "ancient fees," and the Duke of Rutland $100 under a like heading. These sums are nominal, it is true, yet the recipients do nothing whatever to earn them.

The first Duke of Grafton was granted by Charles II. a certain import duty known as "prisage and butlerage" upon wines. In 1806 the then existing duke commuted this duty for the annuity of $24,350, and his heirs still receive yearly this handsome income.

But it is not to be supposed that it is only the aristocrats who have been granted free pensions on the national Exchequer. Seventy thousand dollars odd is paid out on account of the Courts of Justice for compensation to those whose offices have been abolished. One old man is still alive who obtains $275 a year because through the operation of a new Act he was deprived two generations ago of the privilege of selling forms in court. Laundresses who lost their work some twenty years ago through the Law Courts being removed from Westminster to their present site opposite Temple Bar still receive from $400 to $550, according to their status. A "Preacher at Rolls," formerly of the old Chancery Division, is paid $500 annually, though not a sermon has he preached for innumerable years; and there are many other instances in which the taxpayer is called on to pay every year.

A BISHOP IN A DONKEY CART

When he was Suffragan Bishop of West and North-West London, England, the Bishop of Marlborough was one day seen riding in a costermonger's barrow through a London district. He was due to hold a confirmation, but on arriving at the railway-station he found that no conveyance to the church could be obtained. To walk the distance was impossible. The perplexed Bishop was about to abandon the appointment, when the humble costermonger's cart appeared. With sudden decision the matter was arranged, the Bishop scrambled on to the cart, the costermonger whipped up his donkey, and the episcopal chariot rattled through the High Street to its destination.

WORK ON NEW STATION

During the last month or six weeks Montreelers have been watching with great interest the progress being made on the new addition to the Canadian Pacific Railway's Windsor Street Station. Work on the structure has been going ahead steadily all winter and such good progress has been made that it is probable that the whole building will be enclosed by the middle of August.

[illegible]

[illegible] County Court and General Sessions of the Peace opened here [illegible] of which Reeve Hall was foreman, brought in true bills:

The King vs. George Ellison.

The prisoner was charged with stealing a quantity of ginseng roots, value about $100, from Robert Wedge, of Esquesing, on October 2nd, 1910. The witnesses were Robert Wedge, Bertha Wedge, Maude Deforest, W. A. Chapman and Peter Menzies. The verdict of the petit jury was not guilty.

The King vs. George Laing.

The charge was that in Milton, on August 20th, 1910, and at divers other days before and since that date, George Laing did and does still allow his honey bees to roam and fly at large and commit a common nuisance, and did on the said 20th day of August, 1910, occasion actual bodily injury to the person of one George Yates.

On application of defendant's counsel this case was adjourned until the December Sessions.

Crown Attorney Dick appeared for the prosecution and J. W. Elliott, K. C., for the defence in both cases.

The grand jury, in their presentment, reported that they found the jail and premises clean, tidy and in good order, but the locks of several doors leading to the outside should be replaced forthwith by new ones. At least one of them had been picked by a prisoner with a wire. The cost per prisoner per day for maintenance was only 8½c. Only two prisoners were in the jail.

There were two civil cases on the docket.

Deeker et al vs. Chisholm.

The plaintiffs, the Deeker-Carlisle Co., of Toronto, claimed $555 from Allan Chisholm, of Oakville, for balance on building contract. Defence was that building was not done according to specifications. Judgment reserved. J. C. Brown for plffs., Urquhart, Urquhart & Page for deft.

Inglehart vs. Snider.

This case is being tried to-day. The plaintiff, W. A. Inglehart, of Oakville, claims unstated damages from L. P. Snider, of the same town, for cutting and removing trees from road opposite plaintiff's property. D. O. Cameron for plff., Royce & Henderson, for deft.

New Train Service to "Lake of Bays"

An important feature that will be inaugurated during the coming season will be a new train service to the "Lake of Bays" district. A standard Grand Trunk passenger train will leave Toronto with through coaches, parlor cars and dining cars at 10.15 o'clock in the morning, daily except Sunday, for Huntsville, reaching the latter point at about three o'clock in the afternoon, connecting with the steamers for points in the "Lake of Bays" district, and affording passengers the opportunity of reaching their destination in time for dinner.

The Sunday evening boat service from the Wa Wa Hotel, Britannia, Point Ideal, Portage, Deerhurst and other important calling ports on "Lake of Bays" to Huntsville will be run on same schedule as for season 1910, during the months of July and August, and which will be a boon to week-enders desiring to return to the city for business on Mondays.

Royal City Lawn Bowling Tournament.

Arrangements for the second annual Royal City Lawn Bowling Tournament have already been well advanced by the Guelph Lawn Bowling Club, and they anticipate having, if possible, an even more successful tourney this year than last. Prof. R. Harcourt, of the staff of the Ontario Agricultural College, is Secretary of the tournament. Preliminary advices have been sent to all the clubs in Western Ontario, and it is expected that the majority of these will be represented at Guelph on Tuesday, June 27th, which is the date set for the commencement of the tournament.

The Royal City bowlers are fortunate in having forty greens at their disposal, guaranteeing the best of accommodation for all comers. The main competition will be for the Scholfield Trophy, won by Dr. Andy Scott's (London Thistles) rink last year, and in addition elegant prizes will be given in this as well as the other two competitions.

Reduced rates have been granted by the railway companies, and those going to the tournament will purchase a single fare ticket and obtain the usual standard convention certificate.

A most happy time is undoubtedly in store for those who attend, as the hospitality of the Guelphites is well known.

Another find of diamonds in Canada is reported, this time in Black Lake district, Quebec.

STARVED NERVES

[illegible] Tired Thinks it Will Take Years to Get Well.

Nervousness is a sign of starved nerves and better blood. It means that the nerves are not fed and starved. Like every other part of the body the nerves must live upon the nourishment through the blood. There is therefore no doubt that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure the worst cases of neuralgia. They actually make new, rich blood, carrying to the starved nerves the elements they need, thus driving away the sharp, torturing pain which nearly drives the sufferer wild. So many cases of neuralgia have yielded to treatment through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that every sufferer from this dreaded trouble should lose no time in giving the Pills a fair trial. Mrs. Sophia H. Johnson, Mozan, Sask., says: "For upwards of ten years I was a periodical sufferer from neuralgia. It located in the side of my face and in the jaw, which would actually click every time I opened or closed my mouth. At times the pains would be almost unendurable, and as time went on, my whole nervous system seemed to be affected. I was constantly doctoring, but the doctor did not seem to be able to give me permanent relief, and at last I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got a half dozen boxes, and before they were half gone I felt much better, and by the time I had used them all every symptom of the trouble had gone, and I was enjoying a comfort I had not known for years. I have since remained in the best of health, and can only say I owe the joy of living without pain to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Teachers Are Scarce.

The increase in the number of teachers lured by matrimony and the West from the schools of Ontario has led the Ontario Educational Department to enact provisions for the securing and retaining of teachers. Every certificate issued by the department for 1911 will be given only with the agreement of the graduating Normalite to teach at least one year in the schools of Ontario. The circulars of the department announcing this also urge upon the various school boards throughout the province the necessity of paying larger salaries. It is noted that the salaries in other places are much higher than in Ontario. The number of teachers, newly certificated and graduating from the mills of learning throughout the province the Department estimates at 1,000.

Blue Ribbon Races.

This year marks the twenty-sixth anniversary of the Blue Ribbon races. Other cities may give rich purses, but the annual event of the Detroit Driving Club is conceded to be in a class by itself, the premier of all trotting and pacing meetings on this continent. The week beginning with July 31 has been set apart for this midsummer carnival of speed and in that period twenty trotting and pacing races will be decided on the exceptionally fast state fair track.

More good horses are in training and there is more enthusiasm among owners and drivers, so that when the bell rings those who enjoy the sport of the sulkeys will have a chance to see some splendid contests at Detroit. The Merchants' & Manufacturers' and the Chamber of Commerce stakes, which are the best known classics of the American turf, have a greater entry than ever in their history. The 2.11 trot has assembled the best horses that are eligible to it and the 2.04 pace promises to be a sensation among events for that gait.

In addition to these events for aged horses the $15,000 futurity, promoted by the Chicago Horseman, will be decided during the week, and will bring together the best two and three-year-olds in the country. Colt racing was given its inaugural in Michigan last year, and proved very attractive. Since then a colt bred and trained in that state has become a world's champion, and the fact that he starts in this big event at the Blue Ribbon meeting lends much interest to the outcome.

While the full program for this meeting is not yet announced, it is known that there will be from one to two star events daily, so that a person is certain to see something worth while any day he spends in the spacious grandstand. Detroit is the only city that is able to give such an attraction to its patrons, and is doing so because the sport loving people of the state want only the best, which can always be found at the Blue Ribbon races.

[illegible]

[illegible] Clearing Sale of Millinery

Only three weeks before the season closes and we are clearing out every thing in trimmed hats, shapes and trimmings at very small prices.

Special Half Price An assortment of this season's shapes, fine and coarse straws, ranging in price from 75c to $6.00. Sale Price—Half.

Special $1.98 Some of the daintiest little misses' hats you can find, all this season's goods. Value up to $4.50, now $1.98

Special $3.98 A good assortment of trimmed hats, newest styles and regular stock; value up to $4.50, while they last $3.98

Wednesday Evening--BARGAIN NIGHT--7 to 9.

Last Wednesday, from 7 to 9, was a very busy time. Every Wednesday evening during June, July and August is bargain night at Milton's Cash Store. Ask last Wednesday evening's buyers if they got value for their money. Satisfied customers are our best advertisement.

—Money back for goods not satisfactory.

—Biggest stocks and best values. Think it over.

IT PAYS TO TRADE AT MILTON'S ONLY CASH STORE.

Saturday Specials !

Misses' White Pinnies, lace and embroidery trimmed,	reg. 25c for 15c.
Misses' Print and Gingham Dresses	reg. $1.00 for 65c.
Child's Galatea and Linen Sailor Dresses	reg. 50c for 35c.
Misses' White Cotton Petticoats	reg. 50c for 35c.
Heintz Sweet Pickles, out of barrel—jar free	30c a quart.
Big assortment of Frills	reg. 10c for 5c.
Ladies' Black Cotton Hose, size 8½ to 10	3 pairs for 25c.
Wash Lustre, variety of patterns	reg. 60c for 35c yd.
18 in. Linen Towelling	reg. 12½c for 9c yd.
Oxford Shirting, fast colors	reg. 15c for 10c. yd

☞ GOODS ALWAYS AS REPRESENTED.

BARGAIN NIGHT, WEDNESDAYS--COME !

[illegible]

[illegible] Kidnapping is an extract from a camp correspondence published in the Globe on Tuesday: "That some radical change must be made in the system of militia training in the matter of securing men of the proper type, if the efficiency of the Canadian militia is to be maintained, is the almost unanimous opinion of the officers here in camp. It is a generally accepted fact that in recent years neither the most desirable class of men nor a sufficiently large number of them have been brought to camp by the rural regiments of both cavalry and infantry.

As a solution of the difficulty some of the regiments have this year, and in the past few years, adopted a scheme for filling their ranks which is not proving very satisfactory. Several of the rural units which are now in camp have secured a great number of their men from among the unemployed in Toronto. Advertisements were inserted in some of the papers calling for men to be given work for two weeks, and when the men applied they found that they were wanted to go to camp with one or other of the outside regiments."

Correspondence in the Mail and Empire of the same date went into particulars and named corps which had been recruited on the above plan, giving the 20th Regiment, Halton Rifles, special prominence, and adding that "officers of the various regiments do not think there is anything wrong in picking up men in Toronto, or anywhere else for that matter, to fill up the ranks." Something else might have been added: that officers higher up, if they knew it, as they should have known it, saw nothing wrong about it either, that the company officer who failed to fill up his ranks had a bad time of it from them and that no awkward questions were asked those who did their recruiting on the new plan. Money spent on the instruction of so-called rural corps composed of city idlers, of vagrants and newly arrived immigrants is wasted. All trace of such men is lost, as a rule, as soon as the camps break up. In case of an emergency requiring the calling out of the militia for active service few of them would be available, and the places of the missing would have to be filled by raw recruits.

Two remedies are suggested by militia officers. The majority of them are in favor of increased pay for the men and a few propose compulsory military training for all men of suitable age and physique. There are objections to both proposals. The first would be too expensive. The increase in pay would need to be great to attract well paid men from their employment to the camps. The second would be too unpopular. A cheaper and better plan than either would be to drop the annual training of all but the officers and non-commissioned officers of the rural corps. The officers and non-commissioned officers should all be required to qualify at the schools of instruction, to pass real, not make-believe examinations, and to keep themselves up to the mark by spending a reasonable time each year at the schools or in camp. They should be well paid for the time so spent. Under this plan the present organization could be continued, with arms, clothing and equipment stored, as they are now, at regimental or company headquarters. In case of an emergency calling for active service, patriotism would do what pay fails to do now, and there would be plenty of recruits of the best type. In the hands of really qualified officers, of whom there are too few now, and of efficient non-commissioned officers, of whom there are practically none in rural corps, the recruits would be made reasonably efficient within a week or two.

FARMERS BANK.

On Saturday W. J. Lindsay surrendered to the Toronto police to answer to the charge of conspiracy in connection with the failure of the Farmers Bank. He will appear before Magistrate Kingsford to answer the charge, "that W. R. Travers, W. J. Lindsay and others did conspire, confederate and agree together unlawfully to obtain a certificate of the Treasury Board under the Bank Act, permitting the Farmers Bank of Canada to commence the business of banking."

Lindsay is the man who induced the Halton victims to invest in Farmers Bank stock. It is alleged that he did so in many cases by using a peculiar line of argument and promises, and it is possible that he may have more than the one charge to answer.

MOUJIK WEDDING FEAST

Peasants Give Themselves Up to the Enjoyments of the Occasion

When the day's work is done the Russian moujik's recreations are of the simplest. Perhaps he dances, or plays the concertina, or sings some melancholy air. But when a wedding has to be celebrated, and the priest has duly united the couple, the peasants give themselves up to the enjoyments of the occasion.

The writer well remembers peeping into the brightly-lit rooms of a tiny two-roomed log-cabin where such a revel was in progress. The evening was a hot one. In one room, so small that only four couples could with difficulty wheel about, dancing was in full progress. The perspiring couples had [illegible] their minds to enjoy themselves. There was a kind of determined [illegible] and that [illegible] look on their [illegible] evidently they had great [illegible] powers (says a writer in [illegible] Journal"). In the same [illegible] it is [illegible] packed and lining the [illegible] into oblivion onlookers waiting till a [illegible] should drop out to take their [illegible] the dance.

[illegible] second apartment was laid out [illegible] refreshments. A side-table [illegible] groaned with all kinds of dishes dear to the peasant palate. One knife, one table napkin, one fork, did service for the party; but some scorned even these aids, and picked up here a sardine, there a hunch of melon, or tore at a hard sausage.

One tall man was pointed out as the stationmaster of a tiny wayside station near by. He was conspicuous as being better groomed and less savage in appearance than his fellows, and one heard afterwards that the seductive charms of a wedding feast made him forget on that evening his duty as signalman. A freight train waits two hours before a signal at danger, and then—for the signalman is quaffing vodka and dancing at the wedding—the train proceeds. The driver reports at the next town.

Result: Two months afterwards the stationmaster, for neglect of duty in his capacity of signalman, is degraded to a charge at a smaller station.

CARIBOU IN THE WEST

Caribou are stated to have haunted Lake Athabaska in greater numbers than for some years. It is believed the excessive cold led them to take [illegible] in the thick timber fringing the northern shore of the lake.

[illegible]

[illegible] Hay for Sale.

Between 30 and 40 acres of clover and timothy, to be sold by the acre. Apply to Mrs. Margaret J. Garbutt, town line, Trafalgar.

Prof. Day, of the Guelph Agricultural College, says "Protein is concerned in the formation of flesh, muscle, blood, milk, etc." One ton of Dried Brewers' Grains, contains as much Protein as 1½ tons of bran or 1½ tons of oats, and costs less than one ton of either. Price Bros., the big dairyman of Erindale, just bought a car load. They know. Feed Dried Brewers' Grains and see your milk flow increase and cattle improve. A valuable feed cheap. Write The Farmers' Feed Co., Ltd., Toronto, for price. 51-13t

At Hemstreet's

--THIS WEEK--

Special Sale

Of 300 White Lawn Waists

At Prices Far Below Regular Cost

A manufacturer came to us with samples of all the spring and summer season's remnant lots and made us tempting offers to clear them out. We took the risk of handling a larger lot than we have ever attempted to handle at once before, but at the prices we paid for them we can afford to sell them at all round about half price, which means that they will be turned into cash quickly. These will be without doubt the cheapest lot of new, up-to-date Waists ever shown to the people of Milton. You will have a chance to buy

Waists worth $1.35 for $0.79
" " 1.50 " .98
" " 2.00 " 1.19

and so on. Come right NOW and have your choice of them. Remember, these are all new—this season made goods—and the season for them is just begun.

SEE OUR WINDOW FOR SAMPLES OF THEM

Just arrived on Saturday, direct from the potteries, a consignment of CORONATION CHINA, ordered and made especially for the coronation season. See our window for samples of them. Every house in town should have at least one or two pieces.

Always bear in mind also that we keep a first-class Grocery Department in connection. Everything fresh and clean. Delivery careful and prompt.

R. L. HEMSTREET.

You, Who Have Not yet Supplied Your Complete Clothes Needs for this Summer should do so before CORONATION DAY

You certainly should not fail to see our elegant showing of stylish and dependable goods before making your purchases. If you want the best, you can place your confidence in anything you may purchase here. We urge you to come and see what this store offers, even though you have no intention of buying, for we honestly believe that we can interest nine out of every ten people who come to see our offerings. When you select anything here, it matters not what price you pay, you are certain of getting

The Best Values for the Least Money.

We stake our reputation on the quality of our goods. We know what to buy and we know what to sell. We know that nowhere can you get more real value for your money. Everything that leaves this store bears with it our broad, "Money-Back-if-You-Want-it," guarantee of satisfaction, and if it doesn't prove to be all that we claim for it, we refund your money or make an exchange for something that is right.

If we can make you feel that it is simply impossible to surpass our values, we are driving home the truth, and driving to our store the trade we deserve, because of our clean, far sighted merchandising.

LEVINSKYS ✦ The Store that Satisfies

Administratrix's Notice to Creditors

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to R. S. O. 1897, Chap. 129, Sec. 38, that all persons having claims against the estate of Mary Hockey, late of the Town of Milton, in the County of Halton, married woman, who died on or about the [illegible] day of December, 1909, are required to send by post prepaid or deliver to Charles E. Hockey, Milton, Ont., Administrator of the estate of the said deceased, on or before the twenty-sixth day of September, 1910, the full particulars of their claims and a statement of their accounts and the nature of the security (if any) held by them; and after the said day the said Administrator will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have notice, and he will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof so distributed to any person of whose claim he shall not have notice at the time of such distribution.

Dated this 7th day of June, A.D. 1910.

C. E. HOCKEY,
Administrator for Administratrix.

Wanted.

Joiners, cabinet makers, interior finishers and painters wanted at once. Highest wages, steady work. Apply Collingwood Shipbuilding Company, Limited, Collingwood, Ont. 50-4t

To Farmers!

Farmers, cleaning out their barns and having any timothy or other seed, can sell same at Agnew Corners, Trafalgar.

ALICE THORNLEMAN.

H. WHEELER, Teacher of Music
Piano, Organ and Violin.
Address—Sarah St., Milton.

Miss May Kelly
TEACHER OF PIANO
Studio—Over Clements & Co.'s Hardware, Fridays.

Dr. Ella Bingeman
Osteopathic Physician
OFFICE—Cor. Main and Martin (upstairs), Mondays.

Sam Henson
East Mary St., MILTON
Carpenter, Contractor,
Kitchen Cabinets made to order
Repairs, etc. Estimates given.

Wool Wanted
The highest market price paid for all kinds of Wool.
BUCK & McLAREN,
Butchers,
MILTON, ONT.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM
THE POPULAR TOURIST ROUTE
—TO—
Muskoka Lakes, Lake of Bays, Temagami, Algonquin Park, Magnetawan River, French River, Georgian Bay, Lake Couchiching, Kawartha Lakes, etc.
MUSKOKA EXPRESS
leaves Toronto 10.15 a.m. daily except Sunday making direct connection at Muskoka Wharf for all Muskoka Lake points.
ROUND TRIP
Homeseekers' Excursions
to the West at low rates, via Sarnia or Chicago.
Literature and full information from any Grand Trunk Agent, or address A. E. Duff, D. P. A., Toronto.

Wood's Phosphodine,
The Great English Remedy. Tones and invigorates the whole nervous system, makes new blood in old veins. Cures Nervous Debility, Mental and Brain Worry, Dyspepsia, Sleeplessness, Emissions, Spermatorrhœa, and Effects of Abuse or Excesses. Price $1 per box, six for $5. One will please, six will cure. At all druggists or mailed in plain wrapper on receipt of price. New pamphlet free. The Wood Medicine Co. Formerly Windsor. Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. Robert Stevens, of Aylmer, Quebec, was drowned while trying to rescue her dog.