MR. SMITH'S MILTON MEETING.—This meeting has been advertised to be held this evening at the town hall, but on account of the large attendance expected to hear Hon. Mackenzie King, Minister of Labor, L. F. Heyd, K.C., and Walter Harland Smith, the skating rink has been secured, floored where necessary and seated. The meeting will open at 8 p.m. sharp, as Mr. Smith is to hold another meeing at Acton later in the evening.

OMAGH.—Harvest Thanksgiving services will be held in Christ Church, Omagh, on Sunday, Sept. 24th, at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Harvey, of Burlington, will preach at both services.

DIED AT GUELPH.—George Campbell, of Hornby, died at Guelph General Hospital on Tuesday, in his 72nd year. Mr. Campbell was a farmer and a bachelor. He had never had a serious illness until about six weeks ago, when he complained of pains in his legs, which his physician found were caused by faulty heart action. Mr. Campbell went to the hospital nine days before his death. The funeral will take place to-day at 2.30 p. m. from the residence of R. J. Campbell, brother of the deceased, to Evergreen Cemetery.

Besides representing the highest type of Ladies' footwear, the Empress Shoe has the reputation of being the most comfortable and best wearing shoe for women. We sell other shoes, but none better than the Empress.—Yates' Shoe Store, opposite postoffice.

ROBBED OF FORTY DOLLARS.—With pride Wm. Swackhammer, of Palermo, boarded the special train at Milton on Tuesday evening and set out to hear Premier Whitney knock the spots off reciprocity at the Georgetown meeting. Everything went nicely until the meeting was over and in coming out of the hall three young men got pushing each other against Mr. Swackhammer, but no suspicion was roused until their victim was on the train returning. Upon putting his hand in his pocket he found his money gone, amounting to forty dollars. His friends will regret very much to learn of the loss, and it would seem as though there were a few present in favor of unrestricted reciprocity.—Oakville Star.

Go to the skating rink to-night to hear Hon. Mackenzie King, Minister of Labor, L. F. Heyd, K.C., and Walter Harland Smith, Liberal Candidate for Halton. Meeting will begin at 8 p. m., sharp. Ample seating accommodation.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday, Aug. 29th, Angus McLeod, farmer, was returning to his home near Campbell's Cross, county of Peel, after delivering a load of lambs at Snelgrove and was perched on top of a rack box, on an insecure seat. His horses took fright. He was getting them under control, but his wagon tongue either dropped or broke and they ran away. One of his legs was broken at the ankle, the bone protruding, and amputation was performed with the hope to save his life, but he died on Friday. He was fifty-one years of age, and underwent an operation some years ago, which weakened him. He was a brother of John McLeod, of Trafalgar, near Milton.

Tea served from 6 to 8 p.m. Admission 25c. and 15c.

A severe thunderstorm, two of them, swept over this district on Sunday afternoon. In the vicinity of Palestine the wind was so high that a string of Bell telephone poles was blown down. Many trees in orchards were uprooted. At Norval on the Laird farm, lightning struck a tall hemlock in an open field and converted it into splinters and slabs. Some of these were hurled fifty feet away. Three cows standing beneath the tree were killed. The lightning struck one animal on the nose and smashed its head, dashing its brains out as might result from a terrific gun-shot wound. In the same field were nearly twenty other cattle that escaped. The cattle belonged to Richard Graham and were insured in the Peel Mutual. The company made a prompt settlement with Mr. Graham early in the week.—Brampton Banner.

PUBLIC SCHOOL.—On account of unexpected delay in the work of altering and improving Milton public school it will not be reopened on 11th Sept. as announced, nor until further notice.

Dr. McIntyre, dentist, late of Wheatley, Ont., who has bought out Dr. Gollop's practice, is here and at work. Dr. Gollop has sold his residence to Geo. Allan, and intends to go west.

KNOX CHURCH—The subject for Sunday morning will be "Queen Esther." Evening subject "A Sensational Gospel." Mr. Mackay will preach at both services and there will be special music.

Dr. M. P. and Mrs. Corrigan, of Strathroy, have been visiting Milton and also the birthplace of the doctor near by, and while in town they were the guests of the doctor's uncle, Police Magistrate Dice.

MRS. TELFER HURT.—The Midway show of Wild West Pete overstepped its bounds at the exhibition this forenoon, when many spectators witnessed a demonstration of the real lasso work free of charge, but which had an unfortunate ending, when a lady visitor, Mrs. Telfer, was knocked down by a fugitive steer that had escaped from the enclosure, and was being wildly chased up the centre of the Midway by a goodly proportion of Wild Pete's followers. Accustomed to lassoing exhibitions within the confines of the tent, the cowboys were completely taken by surprise when a fine young steer made a dash for liberty, cleared the arena wall, and headed straight for the crowd of visitors. Unfortunately, Mrs. Telfer, of Milton, who was accompanied by her husband and a friend, was unable to dodge aside in time to avoid the charge of the beast. One of its horns struck her in the chest, and she was thrown violently to the ground. Mrs. Telfer was picked up and carried to the hospital on the grounds and given medical attention. She sustained a severe cut at the base of the skull, but the bone itself was not injured, and she will recover. For some time her friends were greatly concerned as to her condition and it is considered that she escaped very well, considering the force of the blow.—Toronto Star, Sept. 6.

A Remark Worth While.

On a certain occasion, Joe Smith, the Mormon Prophet, and his brother Hyrum, were walked down to the corner of Main and Martin Streets and continued their services there. Sunday Morning, the preaching over, the brethren set out for home, some of them hold forth at the park to a small audience, two having gone, it is reported, to Omaha. The three who remained have been going from house to house distributing pamphlets and tracts.

One of the preachers pretended to prove from the Bible that as man was made in the image of God, therefore God resembled man, had a tangible shape and could not be in more than one place at one time, i.e., that He was not omnipresent.

In the tracts it is asserted that John the Baptist appeared to Joe Smith, the founder of Mormonism, and Oliver Cowdery in 1829, in Susquehannah Co., Pa., and conferred on them authority to baptise, that later in the same year the Apostles Peter, James and John favored them with a visit and gave them authority to lay on hands for the reception of the Holy Ghost, and that numerous miracles and divine manifestations followed. Anyone who believes these stories must be ignorant and credulous indeed. Another assertion is that previous to legislation making polygamy a crime the Mormon church "taught the doctrine of plural marriage, and to a small extent, comparatively, it was practiced," but that it has been dropped in consequence of the laws. "Small extent" should read generally. Polygamy is still practiced, though secretly, in the United States, and largely and with impunity in Mexico, according to an article in last February's number of McClure's magazine, by Burton J. Hendrick, who gave ample evidence from court records and elsewhere in support of his assertion. Mr. Hendrick says, "The Mormon policy is secretly to promote and encourage polygamy, and outwardly to repudiate it." The Mormon church "is simply a great secret society existing very largely for criminal purposes." "Their most startling doctrines are held in reserve until the convert has reached a stage when he can stand meat."
