News comes from Dawson that Dr. Thompson, Conservative, has been elected for Yukon. This makes the Borden Government's majority fifty.

The Duke of Sutherland proposes to settle old-country farmers in western Canada. Success to him. What Canada wants from the old country is farmers and farm workers] rather than city-bred immigrants.

David Henderson, M. P., was at Ottawa last week and he met the executive committee of the Liberal Conservative Association in Milton on Tuesday. It was understood yesterday that it was practically settled that Mr. Henderson would make way for Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, and that the Conservatives of the county would accept Mr. White as their candidate. Yesterday Mr. Henderson again went to Ottawa, accompanied by a delegation. This morning it is reported in the Globe and World that Mr. Henderson's mission was to submit the above arrangement to the Government, but he was told that he was too late, that on Tuesday evening it had been arranged that Geo. Taylor, M.P. for Leeds, ex-Chief Whip of the Conservative party, would retire in favor of Mr. White. It is understood, however, that Mr. Henderson will receive a western Senatorship. Since he is to be thus rewarded Halton Conservatives will be pleased that the proposed White arrangement for Halton will not be carried out. The idea of accepting an outsider as their representative was not relished by them, and when Mr. Henderson goes to the Senate they can make a choice of their own. On the other hand, the Leeds arrangement should be acceptable to Mr. White. Leeds is a safe Conservative constituency, which Halton would not be with Mr. White as a candidate and the neighboring Conservative stalwarts of Toronto ready and anxious to knife him. He will be nominated in Leeds on Nov. 6th and it is expected that he will be returned by acclamation.

Provincial Political Notes.

James Innes McIntosh, proprietor of the Guelph Mercury, has the Liberal nomination for the Legislature in South Wellington.

Ald. M. E. Harris, brother of Lloyd Harris, ex-M.P., is the Liberal nominee for South Brant.

Prince Edward county Conservatives will nominate their candidate on the 28th, and it is expected that R. A. Norman, M.P.P., will again be the standard bearer. S. Edgar Martin, of Bloomfield, is spoken of as Liberal candidate.

Anthony Rankin, of Collins' Bay, defeated J. S. Gallagher, M.P.P., for the Conservative nomination in Frontenac.

Sam Charters, M.P.P., has been renominated by the Conservatives in Peel.

R. R. Hall, ex-M. P., is the Liberal nominee for West Peterboro for the Legislature.

Yesterday's nominations for the Legislature include W. S. Ferguson, Liberal, for East Kent; Hon. Dr. Reaume, Conservative, for North Essex; W. H. McFarland, Conservative, for Centre Bruce, and Samuel Nesbitt, M.P.P., for East Northumberland.

SAVED BY A SONG

Santley, By Singing to the Bandits, Escaped Torture

The following thrilling story of Santley, the famous singer, whose life was on one occasion saved by a song, is worth telling. Mr. Santley, who had not then attained to fame, was travelling through a mountainous district in Mexico, when his party was suddenly attacked by a horde of half-breed bandits, who roughly demanded their valuables, and threatened, as an alternative, to take them up into the hills and torture them until a ransom should be forthcoming. At the first alarm the guards who had accompanied Santley and his friends fled.

They were conducted through devious footpaths for miles, until they arrived at a rocky cave high up among the hills, where they were forcibly robbed of their money and valuables, including the best of their clothing. Then it transpired that the leader of the bandits had taken them for a wealthy party, and was angry to find that they yielded so little spoil. He also told them, through their Mexican servant, that he suspected they had sent back their best valuables by their guards, but this they denied. Then he threatened to hold them until they were released by a ransom, and named a considerable sum of money. Over their rude supper that memorable night, surrounded by friend and foe, Santley sang an air as he had never sung before. His voice was then much lighter in tone than it is to-day. As the song rippled forth on the clear mountain air, the dusky Mexican faces lighted up with pleasure, and at its close the leader expressed his delight, and asked the senor to sing again. Santley saw his chance and seized it. He asked, through his servant, if he might sing for his liberty, and a reluctant consent was given. For two hours that night he charmed his captors with a lengthy programme of exquisite melodies. The next day the party were taken down the mountain side and set at liberty to their great relief and delight.

Never Met Before

At a recent London inquest, the name of one of the witnesses, and also of the coroner's officer, was Thomas Courtain Rivers, and, though both men lived within five minutes' walk of each other, they had never previously met.

HAIR HEALTH

Take Advantage of This Generous Offer.

Your money back upon request at our store if Rexall "93" Hair Tonic doesn't do as we claim. That's our guarantee. You obligate yourself to nothing whatever. Could you ask or could we give you stronger proof of our confidence in the hair restoring qualities of this preparation?

We could not afford to so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if it did not do all we claim it will. Should our enthusiasm have carried us away, and Rexall "93" Hair Tonic not give entire satisfaction to the users, they would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

We assure you that if your hair is beginning to unnaturally fall out or if you have any scalp trouble, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth, and prevent premature baldness, or the above guarantee becomes operative. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, E. D. Smith.

OBITUARIES.

Rev. A. B. Gregory.

Following an illness of less than a week, Rev. Arthur Ronald Gregory, principal of Westminister College, Bloor Street west, Toronto, died at Grace Hospital on Sunday night, at forty-eight years of age. Rev. Mr. Gregory was stricken suddenly with pneumonia on Tuesday, 7th inst., and so violently that it was necessary to remove him to the hospital.

Mr. Gregory's connection with Westminister College began in the year 1904, at which time he and Mrs. Gregory became identified with the active work of the institution. He became known in his sphere all over Canada and the United States; from the start his efforts as principal were crowned with success, and advances were made in every department, from the primary to the senior classes. He took a personally active part in the life of the school, teaching the Bible subjects daily, conducting all the services of worship, and superintending the efforts of the students. Associated with him he had a staff of competent instructors.

Rev. A. B. Gregory was born at Montacute, Somersetshire, England, in 1863. His parents removed to Canada in 1869, taking up their residence in the county of Oxford. He attended Pickering College, and took his degree of B. A. at Toronto University. Before entering Westminister College, he was a pastor of Boston Church, Mansewood, Toronto. Since his removal to Toronto he has occasionally come to Milton to visit Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Stewart. His last visit was over Sunday, Sept. 3rd. He was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at the time of his death. Mr. Gregory was a brother of W. D. Gregory, barrister, and Miss H. M. Gregory, of Toronto, Mrs. Gregory is a sister of John A. Paterson, K.C., Toronto. She was associated with her husband in all his work.

Charles McClelland.

While sitting in his chair at his home at Belgrave on Sunday, 15th inst., Charles McClelland passed away suddenly, in his 86th year. A few moments previous to his death he had been chatting to his family. Born in the county of Armagh, Ireland, he emigrated to Canada over 50 years ago, and taught school in Milton and Hornby for about 13 years. After giving up teaching he went into business for a number of years at Hornby. He removed to Belgrave 29 years ago and has since been conducting mercantile business in company with his two sons, J. Charles and Alex. He was a man who took a great interest in public matters and was well posted on the questions of the day. He never aspired to any public office. He was a man who loved peace in the community, and was many times sought to settle the disputes of others, and could well be termed the "peace-maker." His advice was sought by many people, and his opinions were always given fairly and honestly. In all his dealings he was strictly honest and upright and will long be remembered as one of the most esteemed residents of Belgrave. Mrs. McClelland was buried 24 years ago, on the same date that deceased passed away. He is survived by four sons and two daughters, J. Charles and Alexander, of Belgrave, and Henry and Robert, of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Misses Tillie and Maggie at home. Only one of Mr. McClelland's own family survives him, a sister, Mrs. Wilson, of Toronto, mother of Rev. W. P. Wilson and Dr. Wilson. The funeral to Brandon Cemetery was largely attended by sorrowing friends. The following lines from Burns could well be placed on Mr. McClelland's grave:

An honest man here lies at rest,
As e'er God with his image blessed,
A friend of man, the friend of truth,
The friend of age, the guide of youth,
Few hearts like his, with virtue warmed,
Few heads with knowledge so informed.
If there's another world, he lives in bliss,
If there e's none, he made the best of this.

Missionaries for India.

On Oct. 12th about 150 friends and students of the Bible Training School gathered at the Union Station, Toronto, to say farewell and sing some parting hymns to Mr. and Mrs. Duncan E. McDonald, of Toronto, before they left for Montreal, where they joined other missionaries, attended a farewell meeting and afterwards embarked on the S. S. Victoria and sailed at 5 a.m. on Oct. 13th for Liverpool. They reached Quebec about 3 p.m., and further on Earl Grey and party came on board from the Government steamer, Lady Grey. All enjoyed the sail down the river, as the day was perfect. A last message from Father Point said they were both well. The S.S. Victoria docked at Liverpool 2 p.m. Oct. 20th with Earl Grey on board, and he was given a grand welcome home. The missionaries were booked to sail again Oct. 23rd on S. S. Trafford Hall for Bombay, India, and are due to call Gibraltar about Oct. 27th, Naples, Italy, Oct. 31st, Port Said, Egypt, Nov. 5th, and Bombay Nov. 12th. They are due to arrive at their destination about Nov. 20th, where they will assist Dr. Buchanan in his work and be supported by Knox Church, Galt. Their address will be Bhabra P. O. (via Dahod) Panch Ma Hals, United Provinces, India. Their many friends will follow them to their field of labor with interest and all will join in wishing them every success in their work as missionaries.

Note—Mrs. McDonald was formerly Miss Myrtle Moore, fourth daughter of R. N. Moore, of Toronto, formerly of Esquesing township.

TOO LITTLE BLOOD.

The Cause of Nearly All the Everyday Ailments of Life.

Too little blood—that is what makes men and women look pale and sallow and feel languid. That is what makes them drag along, always tired, never real hungry, unable to digest their food, breathless and palpitating at the heart after slight exertion, so that it is wearisome even to go upstairs. Doctors tell them that they are "anaemic"—the plain English being too little blood. If your face is pale or sallow, if your gums are pale instead of being scarlet; if you are easily tired and frequently despondent; if you do not relish your meals, and small matters irritate you, it is a sign that your blood is thin and watery and that you are on the verge of a complete breakdown.

More weak, anaemic people have been made strong, energetic and cheerful by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills than by any other means. They actually make new blood, which reaches every part of the body, braces the nerves and brings new health and new strength. The case of Miss Nellie Welch, Essex, Ont., is proof of the great curative powers of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Miss Welch says: "A few years ago I was going into what my friends believed to be a hopeless decline. I was subject to severe headaches, had no appetite, was pale and grew distressingly weak. I tried several doctors, some of whom we counted the best in this part of the country, but they failed to help me. At last my heart grew so weak and I was so nervous and thin that I had to take to my bed and the doctor held out but little hope for my recovery. Like others I had often read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and though the doctor opposed my taking them I determined to give them a trial, as I felt I might as well be dead as to be living in the misery I was in. In a month after beginning to take the pills I was up and around again, and steadily growing stronger until I was again enjoying the blessing of perfect health. Several years have since elapsed and my health has been the very best. It is therefore with great gratitude that I write you in the hope that my experience may be of benefit to some other sufferer."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Busy Soldier

Sergeant-Major Quince, formerly of the Prince of Wales' Own Norfolk Artillery Militia, whose funeral took place at Norwich the other day, had rescued 34 persons from drowning and recruited 3,000 men for the Regular Army.

The Ban on Whiskey

"No intoxicants" was endorsed on the invitation cards issued by Mr. William George, brother of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, to the members of the Carnarvonshire County Council for a luncheon at Pwllheli recently.

No Moss on Thayer

John Adam Thayer, a well-known New York publisher, once declared at a dinner that when he was a printer he used to change his job six or seven times a year. "I always bettered myself," says Mr. Thayer. "I always advanced my pay a dollar or more by every change. I remember a Boston foreman who said to me, when I told him I was leaving for Chicago, 'Well, I suppose you will get a job out there, but remember, boy, a rolling stone gathers no moss.' 'Moss, sir, I replied, 'is for ruins.'"

Big Wine Imports

During the past year over 12 million gallons of wine casks and 1,731,411 gallons in bottles were imported into England.

Chinese on British Ships

During last year the number of Chinese seamen engaged at Poplar for British ships was 1,204, of whom 150 were engaged on board ship.

French Hunting Women

In the whole of France there are not more than 233 hunting women, according to a Paris statistician.

Largest Dry Dock

Begun eight years ago, the largest dry dock in the world, which measures 886 feet by 100 feet, has just been completed at Belfast.

Messrs. Adam C. Bell, of Picton, N. S., and J. A. LaFiviere, of Provencher, Man., have been called to the Senate.

DIVERTING THE TRAFFIC

Amusing Rivalry Among Three Neighboring Merchants.

It is the smart man who is able to seize opportunity when possibly asleep. If you have any advantage to offer to the public, the only way to bring trade is to advertise, and exercise ingenuity.

In a busy thoroughfare there were three clothing stores in a row. The proprietors of these stores were bitter enemies as well as business rivals, and each taxed his ingenuity to the utmost to outwit the others in attracting customers.

The proprietor of the store in the middle one day, found himself momentarily beaten when he discovered that the shop on his right was plastered with sensational announcements of a "great fire sale," while the rival on his left hand covered his building with huge posters proclaiming a "receiver's sale."

After a little thought, however, his features relaxed in a gradually expanding smile.

An hour later the crowds that had been attracted to the scene by the "fire sale" and the "receiver's sale" announcements flocked into the middle store.

The proprietor had caused to be stretched across the top of his doorway a sheet on which were painted in letters two feet high the words, "Main Entrance."

THE WORLD'S LARGEST ROOM

The largest room in existence under a single arched roof, and entirely unsupported by pillars or buttresses away from the walls, is said to be a huge building in St. Petersburg, measuring 620 feet long and 150 feet wide, used mainly for military purposes. This giant apartment is of such a size that a whole battalion—1,000 men—can drill in it with the greatest ease. It requires no fewer than 20,000 wax tapers to light it satisfactorily by night.

A Costly Strike

During the six and a half months it lasted, the Welsh coal strike, which has been recently settled, cost $1,250,000.

A Christening Cap

King Edward's christening cap was made of Honiton lace, the makers of which, three widows, are still living at Teignmouth, Devon.

Disguised as Footman

Giving evidence in a police court case at Abertillery, a policeman stated that he had disguised himself as a footman in a powdered wig, and also a coal-heaver, in order to obtain the evidence required.

The Coroner's jury that investigated the death of Miss Violet Smith, of Dillon Port, decided that it was a case of suicide.

Retiring from Business

After 37 years of continuous business I have decided, on account of ill health, to sell out my business and goodwill, and as soon as stocktaking, which is now in progress, is completed, will hand over the business and quit the field. I wish here to thank my patrons and the public generally for the many kindnesses extended to me during the long time in which I have tried to serve them as faithfully as circumstances permitted me to do, and would now ask that the kindness and goodwill extended to me in the past should be extended to my successors in the future.
