ABC Summer Biz Company to give AHS students a headstart in business

• Sean Aherne, President at H.A. Sheldon Canada Ltd. a resolute, persistent and innovative business leader who brings 35 years experience from a manufacturing and wholesale environment;

• Beth Paisley, Downtown Acton BIA, with 15 years executive leadership in the fields of market research and data management with proven skills in project management, change management, training and coaching and now focused on downtown Acton, supporting the business and property owners in ensuring we develop as a prosperous community;

• Kathleen Dills, General Manager, Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, a marketing veteran of with a proven track record product development, brand building, publishing, media and leadership from working in both the private and non-profit arenas now focused on supporting the Halton Hills business community and economic development;

• Jamie Draves, President & CEO at Junto Business Solutions Inc., a Dragons' Den success story, a facilitator of business innovation in pharmaceutical, pharmacy, natural health product, food, alternative, complementary and retail health industries;

• Corey Wilson, sales professional, serial entrepreneur, landlord and regular at the new Three Musketeers Skate park.

There are five key messages that drive the strategy and goals of all the people involved:

1. To build upon the unique strengths of our school and community.

2. To focus on meaningful engagement with adults and young people in ways that empower and challenge them.

3. To build layers that integrate policy, curriculum, awareness-raising, supportive social environments, healthy physical spaces, and community partners, that make the project comprehensive.

4. Most important, it is sustainable with a long-term vision within our school's culture that,

5. Invites and impacts a whole community of students and adults..

Each one of these mentors know that there is a huge opportunity in the future for entrepreneurs and collectively they want to make sure that Acton High School students will have a headstart. This is a great opportunity for the community to come together to support AHS students to ensure they have all the advantages needed to succeed.
