THERE'S HELP FOR LOW-INCOME HOUSEHOLDS

NEW Ontario Electricity Support Program.

You may qualify for a reduction on your electricity bill. It could be reduced by $30 to $50 each month.

Here's how it works: Low-income households can receive a credit on each electricity bill. The amount will depend on how many people live in your home and your combined household income.
