The Canadian Champion
MILTON, June 6, 1912.

The muster of the Toronto and Hamilton militia regiments that were in camp at Niagara last week was about one-fifth of their full strength. Now rural corps are there. They are weak, as usual. Not one musters over 300 and one is under 200. At that they have been recruited largely from the city unemployed and newly arrived immigrants. The training camps, costly as they are, have become a farce; maintained merely to enable staff officers to get themselves into the limelight. They should be dropped, the militia trained in the evenings at company headquarters and taught to shoot on company rifle ranges. If this were done there would be no difficulty in enrolling the right men.

Reports from the camp at Niagara show that the closing of the canteens has had the opposite effect to that sought. The Globe's staff correspondent says:

"Many officers express themselves as favoring properly supervised canteens, in which light beer could be served to the soldiers under strict regulations, pointing to the large business done by the five licensed hotels in town. One hotelkeeper in town, who made a large extension to his bar when the canteens were prohibited from selling liquor, told The Globe that since that time it would make little difference to him if he did no business whatever during the rest of the year, so large were his receipts while the camps were here. It is also a fact that has to be recognized that large quantities of liquor is taken into the lines at night by the men, and is usually consumed there before morning. Recommendations have been made to General Cotton by a number of the commanding officers and also by some of the chaplains that light beer should be allowed to be sold in the canteens."

The regular army of the United States has had a like experience. An order to prohibit the sale of beer in canteens has driven the men to frequent outside dives and drink stronger and adulterated liquors. There has been an increase of drunkenness, disease and crime. Officers generally are in favor of the cancellation of the order.

A Campbellville Wedding.

"Brae Burn," Campbellville, the home of Murray Crawford, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, when the marriage was solemnized of his daughter, Miss Pearl Haveregal, to Edward D. Mahon, of Campbellville. At 4 o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Lillian Crawford, Toronto, the bridal party took their places before a bank of white lilies, carnations and ferns, where the ceremony was conducted by Rev. A. Blair, pastor of St. David's Presbyterian Church, Campbellville. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very pretty in a gown of white brocaded satin trimmed with pearls and fringe, with a tiara of beaded chiffon, and wearing a veil of tulle caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bridal roses and lily of the valley, and wore the groom's gift of an amethyst necklace. Miss Annie McLeod, of Napanee, as bridesmaid, was gowned in blue silk chiffon, with tunic of ninon and pearl trimmings, and pink roses. The groom's gift to her was a gold necklace. Miss Esther Wheedhan, the little flower girl, wore a frock of Swiss embroidery, and carried a basket of pink roses and maidenhair ferns. The groom's gift to her was a gold locket and chain. The groom was supported by Lloyd Crawford, brother of the bride. The groom's gift to him was a pearl stickpin. The house was beautifully decorated with white lilies and ferns, the color scheme of green and white predominating. The wedding breakfast was served on the lawn in a tent, which amply accommodated the company. Later Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Mahon left for Montreal and other points. For the bride travelling in a tailored suit of black and white, trimmed with black satin and fringe, and a large picture hat with black trimmings and roses were present from Syracuse, N.Y., Toronto, Hamilton, Napanee, Trenton, Milton, Zimmerman and Nelson. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Mahon will reside in Campbellville.

INDIGESTION RIGHTLY CURED

By Toning Up the Stomach to do the Work Nature Intends It Should.

Indigestion should not be neglected for a moment, for by depriving the body of its proper nourishment through the food, the trouble grows steadily worse. Neither should stimulating medicines, which ruin the already weak stomach by making it work beyond its strength, be used; nor pre-digested foods, which do not excite a flow of the digestive fluids, and by disuse cause the stomach to grow weaker. Nowhere is the tonic treatment by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills more clearly useful. The principle of this treatment is to enable the stomach to do its own work by building up the blood and giving tone to the nerves. When these are once restored to their normal health indigestion disappears and the cure is permanent. Here is an experience with this treatment. Mr. John Brenenstal, Calgary, Alta., says: "For years I was an almost constant sufferer from indigestion, and naturally because there was much nutritious food which I could not eat owing to the pain and discomfort which followed. I was becoming much run down. I tried many medicines but none of them helped me until I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking a few boxes I was much better and in the course of a couple of months was quite well, and could eat any food set before me."

If you are a sufferer from indigestion, or any trouble due to bad blood or weak nerves, you can begin to cure yourself today by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MANY GREAT FEATURES

Coming with Sanger's Greater European Shows.

Do heart-throbs to the nerves, the pulse to the heart, the fear that someone will be hurt, with the overpowering apprehension that they have not all of this and this is the delight of the Sanger's Greater European Shows, to be held at Milton, Thursday, June 13th, must be given by the professionals who shake dice for the players with fortune every performance.

One of the big acts is the original Earl Family. What this wonderful family do looks easy. Suppose you try it, and newspapers will write a story about it, with a diagram showing the place where your body struck. Another of the best-ever acts is the leaping contest. Fifty leapers take part. Dan O'Brien is the champion and does a double somersault over elephants, camels and horses. Marie McPhail, Riding Russells and many other big acts are presented in many new riding stunts.

You will see the Ben Hur herd of Arabian stallions and the Black Hussar horses perform. They prove what a perfect world this would be if all men had as much intelligence as horses. You will see elephants waltz, teeter, play hide and seek, and undress and go to bed like people. You will see dog shows and mule shows and a countless clowns. Sanger's Greater European Shows is a great show, presenting magnificent good old barons sport that makes you happy in feeling that civilization has not eliminated all the traits your grand-dads of the stone age left you as a message. The $25,000 Dublin Gray Horses are also coming, and they are a show in themselves.

Town Council.

The council met on Tuesday evening. All present, the Mayor in the chair.

On the recommendation of the committee on waterworks and fire, it was decided to lay a 4-inch main from West Mary to Robert Street, and place a hydrant on corner of Robert and Bowes streets, estimated cost, $375.

Accounts were passed to the amount of $250.19.

There was an informal discussion of a proposal to have the roadway of Main street paved from about Brown to Commercial street, the good roads money to be received from the county council to be used in part payment and the balance to be raised by debentures, the issue of debentures to cover also the expense of the completion of the cement walks throughout the town. The clerk was instructed to get quotations of prices of vitrified bricks, etc.

A petition was presented, signed by 13 of the leading business firms of the town. It asked that all places of business in Milton close at 6.30 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays during June, July and August, except on any evening preceding a public holiday. The clerk was directed to get legal advice in connection with the petition.

The Portuguese Government has decided to sell Crown jewels, furniture and other valuables which belong to King Manuel and his mother, to the amount of $5,000,000, which is the amount which was advanced by the state to the late King Carlos.
