County Judge's Criminal Court.

The man who broke into Wm. Stoutt's house, in Trafalgar, stole a suit of clothes and other articles, was arrested in the bowling alley, pleaded guilty and gave his name as John McCray and his address as Montreal, was brought up for sentence on Friday morning. He had been remanded twice, as he had given false Montreal addresses. Finally, Crown Attorney Dick discovered his identity. He is a notorious Hamilton crook. His real name is John Laird and he is known at Hamilton as "Sport" Laird. He has served no less than six terms in the Central Prison. He got four of them at Hamilton, beginning in 1899, 6 months for larceny, 3 for housebreaking and theft, 4 for theft and 12 for the same offence. At London he got 12 months for theft, and at Woodstock 12 for vagrancy. At London he gave his name as John Anderson. Here he gave his age as 24, but he appears to be about 30. Judge Gorham sentenced him to two years and one day in Kingston Penetentiary.

Last week there was a row in the temporary Italian colony at Oakville. The foreigners are employed in making concrete walks and on the high level bridge. Two men quarrelled about a woman who has been living with one of them, though she is not his wife. Another man butted in and slashed one of the fighters with a razor, with which he inflicted three nasty gashes on his victim's head and neck. The razor wielder, Frank Artista, was committed for trial by Police Magistrate Shields, was arraigned on Friday before Judge Gorham and remanded for a week. The police magistrate had disposed of the charge against Tony Burgo, the man with whom the woman lived and who was unhurt in the fight. A big knife and a revolver were found on him and he was fined $20 and costs, or 60 days, for carrying the weapons. He was brought to jail to put in the sentence. The woman, Lily Busch, was released and ordered to leave at once for Montreal, where, she said, she lives.

Weddings.

ATKINSON—ARMSTRONG.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Armstrong to Herbert Atkinson, both of Hamilton, took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Armstrong, Boyne, at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 25th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Booth. The bride was given away by her father and was attired in a navy blue armure dress. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The flower girl, a niece of the groom, wore a dress of white silk and carried a bouquet of white asters. The happy couple left by the evening train for Hamilton, the bride travelling in a smart tailored suit of blue and a white felt hat, trimmed with plumes.

MCCALLUM—JOHNSON.

On Tuesday, Sept. 17th, at West Lorne, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Erskine, their adopted daughter, Ethel B. Johnson—Erskine, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Johnson, of Milton, was united in marriage to Archibald D. McCallum, of West Lorne.

At five o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss M. Buchanan, of West Lorne, the bride entered the drawing room, where the ceremony was performed under her father's portrait, Rev. A. McD. Haigne officiated. The bride looked charming in a dress of alice blue satin de chene trimmed with silk marquisette. Her traveling suit was blue broadcloth, with large picture hat with plumes. Miss Irene Johnson, sister of the bride, made a charming bricesmaid and was gowned in nile green, while Alfred Cullen, of the Union Bank, Leamington, acted as groomsman.

After the ceremony, the guests, numbering about thirty-five, adjourned to the dining-room, where a very sumptuous repast was partaken of. The many costly and beautiful presents showed the high esteem in which the young couple were held by their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum are residing in West Lorne.

OBITUARY.

A. J. SYER.

A. J. Syer died last Saturday at his home at Wyoming. He had reached the good old age of 81, and had been a resident of Wyoming for 40 years. He had never had a serious illness until his last. The cause of death was heart-failure. Messrs. E. and John Syer, of Milton, are sons. They and Mrs. E. Syer left for Wyoming on Sunday, attended the funeral on Monday and came home on Tuesday.

MRS. ROBERT PRENTISS.

Mary Ann Reid, wife of Robert Prentiss, died at her home on James Street on Monday, in her 67th year. She was born at Elora and lived with her husband in Nelson for many years. They removed to Milton about four years ago. Mrs. Prentiss had suffered from rheumatism about thirty years and had been confined to her bed nearly eight years. She left no children. She is survived by her husband, four brothers, Alexander and Wm. H., of Milton; David M., Shelburne, and G. A., dentist, Fergus. There are three sisters, Mrs. Hamilton Bennett, Nelson, and Misses Hannah and Grace, Milton. The funeral will take place at 2.30 p. m. to-day, interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

NO RABIES REPORTED.—Though the verdict at Toronto was that there were rabies germs in the head of the alleged mad dog killed in Nassagaweya more than a month ago and though the dog bit a number of pigs and several other dogs, none of the bitten animals have been reported to have gone mad. Have the Toronto rabies experts failed to find rabies in one of the many dogs' heads submitted to them? It has been suggested that the head of a dog known to be healthy be sent to them for examination, just to see what they say about it.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC FOR NELSON—There was a large attendance at the meeting at the township hall, Nelson, Monday evening, to discuss the proposal to get Hydro-Electric power for the township. The Reeve and members of the council were present. So was T. G. Ramshaw, Secretary of the Board of Trade, Milton. Mr. Learcock, electrical engineer, represented the Hydro-Electric Commission. He gave an interesting address and lucid explanation of everything connected with the proposal, showing how farmers could use the power, not only for machinery, but lighting, having a twenty-four hour service. The rate per horse power, he said, would depend on the amount of power used. He guaranteed a prompt quotation as soon as this was made known to the commission. An immediate canvass by school sections will be made and the result reported to the commission as soon as possible. The general feeling was strongly in favor of the scheme, provided the coming quotation be satisfactory. Mr. Lescock said that the commission proposed to supply the power via Waterdown.

Missionary Sunday at the Methodist Church.

The services at the Methodist Church on Sunday last were under the auspices of the Women's and Belton Missionary Societies combined. The music and addresses were of a high order, and large congregations were present, exceptionally so in the evening. The preacher on this occasion was Mrs. (Rev.) Terry, of Omagh. Mrs. Terry has had past experience in evangelstic work and is well qualified to preach for the cause of missions. Gifted with a good voice and a most pleasing personality, her sermons were especially adapted for the cause of missions. Her morning text was from the words of Job 22:25, "Oh, that I knew where to find Him," and in the evening from John 3:1, "Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us." The women of the two societies occupied the choir seats at the morning service and the music was specially well rendered. The anthem given was "Christ As I Am," by E. Bowles, and the soprano and altos were equally balanced and the tonal effect was splendid. Mrs. J. W. Bows and her little daughter Doris sang most sweetly a duet, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and the sweet tones of the child singer were most pleasing. Miss Smith rendered a solo which showed cultivation of a good contralto voice. Mrs. Horning presided at the organ. In the evening the mixed choir gave for the anthem, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," also by E. Bowles, immaccompanied, and the rendering of this beautiful selection was marked by good expression and fine shading. Mr. Pearen sang a baritone solo, "Anchored Fast," and his rendering was very good. Many strangers were present and a cordial invitation is extended to those who are not identified with any church home to be present next Sunday and following Sundays.—E. W.

INQUEST.—On Monday, Geo. Sarsin, fireman of the working train which operates between Milton and Guelph Junction, went back to work after being laid off for some time on account of illness. During the forenoon he complained of being unwell and arranged to exchange duties with the cook of the boarding car which is in the train. About an hour later he was found dead, lying on the floor of the boarding car. His body was brought here to Turner Bros., undertakers. Two marks were found on the face, one above an eye and the other on the nose. Dr. H. A. McColl, Coroner, opened an inquest on Tuesday. It was adjourned to the 10th inst., on a post mortem examination. The dead man came from England some years ago and had no relatives in this country. He was about 35 years of age. He boarded for some time at West Toronto.
