MARRIED.

Oram–Elliott—In St. Paul's Church, Brampton, on Wednesday, October 30, 1912, by the Rev. W. N. Chantler, C. H. Oram, of West Toronto, to Miss Bertha J. Elliott, of Streetsville.

Peachy–Huffman—On Oct. 23, 1912, at St. Paul's Church, Port Arthur, by the Rev. A. D. Reid, Amy G. Huffman, formerly of Mansewood, to Edward R. Peachy, of Port Arthur.

Dunn–Ward—At Trinity Church, Streetsville, on Tuesday, Oct. 29, 1912, by the Rev. T. O. Curliss, Eva Gertrude, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward, Streetsville, to Philip H. Ellis Dunn, of West Toronto, eldest son of the Rev. H. Ellis Dunn, of Upton–Parsonage, Wivelscombe, Somerset, England.

Kitching–Johnstone—At the residence of the bride's parents, on Wednesday, October 23rd, by Rev. G. R. Kitching, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. J. W. Kitchen, brother, and Rev. Henry Caldwell, brother-in-law, F. J. P. Kitching, of Corwhin, to Ella Daly, daughter of Robert Johnstone, Esq., Malton.

DIED.

Young—At Grace Hospital, on Thursday, October 31, 1912, Anna Proudfoot Young, aged 75 years, 8 months, eldest daughter of the late Robt. Young, of Georgetown.

To Double Track.

Surveyors were in Streetsville marking out a new location for the C.P.R. tracks, which will be changed a little to avoid the curve at the lower station. The proposed location will be a little north of the present line and will cut through the properties of R. H. Greig, Mrs. Falconer, Dr. Bowie, Mrs. Rich, W. Cowe, Jos. Phair and J. H. Drysdale. It is expected the lower station and the Junction will be done away with and a new station built in the centre of the town. The parties on the line of the new survey are much worked up over the proposed change, as it will destroy their property. The reason for the proposed change is that the C. P. R. intend double-tracking their road from Toronto to Streetsville on account of the heavy traffic on this part of their line.

Don't forget that the Princess will be open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings until further notice. Doors open at 7.30, pictures at 7.50 and 9 o'clock.

METHODIST CHURCH—Next Sunday morning Rev. W. M. Mackay, of Knox church, will preach, and in the evening the pastor will preach a missionary sermon. Good music. All welcome.

U. P. CHURCH, MANSEWOOD.—Rev. Mr. Watts will occupy the pulpit in Mansewood U. P. Church next Sabbath, at 2 p.m. Sabbath School at 1 p.m.

Evening Star Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., held an at home in their hall last Thursday evening. There was a large turnout of members and invited guests. A pleasant evening was spent in music, games and dancing.

MUSIC—W. Francis, of Toronto, teacher of violin, viola, mandolin, guitar and banjo, will be at Hotel McGibbon, Milton, every Friday. Reference, P. Jourdan, Metropolitan Bank.

A number of local Orangemen attended Divine service at St. George's Church, Lowville, Sunday afternoon, when the Rev. Mr. Burt preached a special sermon to the brethren of Campbellville lodge. The sermon is highly spoken of.

Subscriptions taken for Canadian and English Magazines, Fashion Journals, Newspapers and Periodicals of all kinds. Ask us for prices.—Mackenzie's.

James Bell, who has been running the green house here for the past three years, removed on Friday to Whitevale where he has purchased land and will go into market gardening. Mr. Johnson, of Leamington, has taken over the green house here.

There will be no local option contest in Oakville this January. The council received no petition, and the time expired last Thursday night. Georgetown and Equesing have contests, and a petition has been submitted to Acton council to vote on a repeal.

NO BLAME TO ANYONE.—The Coroner's jury that investigated the death of Wilfrid Walker, G.T.R. station agent at Burlington Junction, brought in a verdict on Monday night that he met fatal injuries by being run down by the C. P. R. express, with no blame to anyone.

CORRECTION.—In the printing of the prize list of the county fair a slight mistake was made. In the Roadster brood mare class the first and third prize should have read A. J. Brown instead of A. M. & F. Brain; also in Roadster 1 year old, A. J. Brown first instead of A. M. & F. Brain.

OVER ON FOOT.—The big new high level bridge has progressed so far that some people are crossing it on foot. The pouring of the cement into the arches was commenced last week. The work is being rushed and electric lights have been installed to hurry on the work, so that weather permitting the bridge may be completed this year.—Oakville Record.

FOOLING WITH DYNAMITE.—On Sunday evening a lad exhibited a dynamite cartridge, which he had evidently picked up on the construction line of the new electric road. He was foolishly endeavoring to explode the powerful article by percussion when another young fellow volunteered to set it off. He applied a match and the explosion was terrific. One young man had his right thumb painfully lacerated and several others were struck with pieces of the shell. It is miraculous that more serious injuries were not sustained.—Acton Free Press.

On account of lack of space, we are compelled to leave over to next week a communication and several school reports.

KNOX CHURCH—The Rev. Mr. Wilson, of the Methodist Church, will preach in the morning. The choir will sing "I am Alpha and Omega" (Staines). Mr. Mackay will preach in the evening. Subject, "Standards of Measurement." Anthem, "O Gladsome Light" (Sullivan). The Male Quartette will sing at this service.

NEW FAIR BUILDINGS.—The directors of the Trafalgar Agricultural Society have let the contract of erecting the cattle shed at the new grounds. These will be 100 x 21 feet, and will be a great convenience to those coming a distance in case of unfair weather. The grounds are to be left free and clear in a manner that will make Oakville fair distant from all other county town fairs. Keep your eye on the show grounds at Oakville.—Record.

Private Greeting Cards for Christmas, name and address printed on cards. Choice of Greetings, from $1.00 up. Leave your order early.—Mackenzie's, The People's Druggist.

A series of special services will be held in Hornby Presbyterian Church from Nov. 18th to 29th, inclusive. These services will be conducted (D. V.) by the Rev. W. H. Konkle, of Songs, Ont., also Mrs. Konkle will be present to assist in singing. The minister, Rev. W. J. Booth and his people extend a very cordial invitation to their Methodist and Church of England brethren in the community and any others to join with them in these services. The meetings will commence at 8 o'clock each night, with a song service at 7.45. "Come thou with us, and we will do thee good."

THANKSGIVING SUPPER—The annual thanksgiving supper given by the ladies of the Methodist Church was held on Friday evening last and was a very enjoyable affair. The tables were set in the school-room and were bountifully supplied with delicacies of all kinds calculated to satisfy the cravings of the inner man. After full justice had been done to the spread an adjournment was made to the auditorium, where an excellent programme of music and addresses was enjoyed. The chair was taken by Geo. Andrew, who discharged his duties to the satisfaction of all and kept everyone in good humor by his witty remarks. The musical numbers of the program consisted of anthems by the choir, selections by the Male Quartette and vocal solos by Miss Gertha Thompstone and P. B. Smith, all of which were well rendered. The orchestra contributed a number of selections during the evening. Short addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Alvison, of Guelph, and Rev. Mr. Mackay, of Knox Church. The proceeds amounted to about $90.00.

BOY SCOUTS.—Those who attended the meeting in behalf of the Boy Scouts on Tuesday evening in the town hall were well repaid for any sacrifice they made. Mr. Williams, chairman of the Scouts committee, presided. Solos were well rendered by Maurice Panton and Miss S. Smith. Then the boys listened to one of the most striking and practical addresses ever given in Milton, by Mr. Orwig, of Toronto, who is in charge of the Boys' Department for the Ontario Sabbath School Association, and who has had large experience with Scouts over the lines. He drew attention to what a Scout should be and what scouting meant. He told the boys that if they wished to insult the Scout Master to leave all the planning and work for him to do. A Scout is to seek out work and develope plans by which he may become more proficient himself and help others. The boys being dismissed Mr. Orwig addressed the grown up people on "The Relation of the Parents to the Boy." He said, "Its not the boy problem but the man problem." That the boy at the age of 12 and upwards should have a man teacher, as by his very tendency he naw follows the man. He was saddened at the neglect of men for boys. He had met a man who bred dogs so successfully that he had a kennel of splendid animals. His children were uncouth and heathenish. He asked the man to explain. The man said he took care of the dogs, but thought the children could care for themselves. A short report of the work was given by the scout master, Mr. Wilson, and Miss Ruddy in a few words paid a glowing tribute to the late Rev. D. S. Houch, the organizer of this movement in Milton, and announced that there is now in the treasury, $65.00. The annual meeting for election of officers will be held in March, 1913.

Wedding.

Important among the nuptial events of this delightful season in Rockford, Ill., U.S.A., was that of last evening, when Miss Jessie Marie Richmond became the bride of Henry Ellis Shipley, of Haskell, Okla., the ceremony being celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Richmond, 125 Lawn Place. The large company of guests were ushered in by the pages, Masters Edward Reitsch and Rayner Eastman, and greeted in the reception hall by Mr. and Mrs. Richmond. At half-past eight the orchestra, which had played during the assembling of the guests, sounded the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the bridal party advanced to the floral altar in the drawing room. The ushers, Spencer Otis, of Chicago, and Glenn Robbins, of McCool, (Indiana), Sigma Nu fraternity, led the way down the stairway, carrying the ropes of smilax entwined with white rosebuds, the ends being caught by the ribbon stretchers, Miss Irma Brand, Bloomington, Ill., and Miss Ruth Webster, of Hastings, Mich., who were attired alike in yellow satin plaited dresses, with over-drapes of yellow and white chiffon. Miss Hazel Reitsch, maid of honor, was robed in yellow and white satin trimmed in real lace. The matron of honor was Mrs. Chester Sargent, of Chicago, gowned in white crepe meteor, trimmed in Duchess lace. The attendants all carried bouquets of sunset roses, and were sister members with the bride of the Alpha Ki Omega sorority of the state university of Illinois. The bride presented a beautiful picture in an elaborate creation of white zenith satin with an overdrape of Chantilly lace, with court train. Her veil of brussels net was arranged in cap effect with coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried an exquisite shower of lily of the valley and swainsonia. The groomsman was Lloyd Jones, of Joliet, and Rev. J. M. Johnson, of Petersburg, Ill., uncle of the groom, read the impressive marriage service. The floral decorations were exquisite, the color scheme being yellow and white. Special mention may be made of the dining-room where the bride's table was laid. The plate rail was outlined with white roses, and the space to the ceiling screened with smilax. The chandelier was hidden in roses. The centerpiece of the bride's table was a basket of bride's roses in which was hidden a candelabra, the lights of which were shaded in white.

Mr. and Mrs. Shipley left the same evening for their home in Haskell, the bride travelling in a very handsome tailored costume of navy blue.—Rockford Telegram.

Miss Jessie Richmond is a niece of Mrs. R. R. Brown and has made many friends in Milton while visiting relatives here.
