The Rogers and Grilley Company gave an entertainment at the town hall on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the choir of the Methodist Church. CORRECTION.—In our report of last week's plowing matches, Thos. Chisholm was given credit for having won the first prize in the champion class, with Charles Jarvis second. OBITUARY.

MRS. S. ZIMMERMAN.

Charlotte White, wife of Dr. S. Zimmerman, died yesterday morning after an illness of between six and seven months. Mrs. Zimmerman was the second daughter of the late John White, M. P. for Halton. She was born in Milton and was fifty-eight years of age. After attending the Milton schools she was for several years a pupil of the Wesleyan Female College, Hamilton. She was a highly accomplished and well read woman, a leading member of the Victoria Club, the literary organization of Milton ladies. As a member of Knox Church, she was active in church work. After her marriage she lived for a number of years in Hamilton and Burlington, but latterly she had made Milton her home. She is survived by her husband, two sisters, Mrs. D. W. Campbell and Mrs. A. Palmer, both of Milton, and one brother, Thomas Lyon White, of Jellico, Tenn. The funeral will take place to-morrow at 2 p.m., interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

Wedding.

STEVENS-LEARMONT.

"Spruce Villa," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Learmont, Milton, Ont., was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday, Nov. 20th, when their only daughter, Eva May, was married to Peter Edmund Stephens, of Streetsville. The home was prettily decorated in pink and white carnations and evergreens. The Rev. H. W. Avison, B.A., of Guelph, officiated, and Mrs. W. H. Reisberry, of Toronto, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her father, was gowned in a white silk crepe-du-chine over white silk, with pearl garniture and seed pearl trimmings, with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She also wore the groom's gift, a beautiful pearl sunburst. The bride's attendant was little Miss Vera Cooke, of Toronto, cousin of the groom, acting as ring-bearer. She carried a basket of marguerites and wore a dress of white silk and a gold bracelet, the gift of the groom. The best man [illegible] in a smart suit of navy blue [illegible] with blue velvet hat and [illegible] trimmings to match. The presents were costly and useful, among them a check for one thousand dollars from the bride's father. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens left on the nine o'clock train for points west, and on their return will reside at "Fairview," Streetsville.
