Two Gentlemen Boarders Wanted. Apply Mrs. Brown, Foster St. 2t

A BAD FALL.—Mrs. Whaites, of Toronto, being in town on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Morton, accompanied her to the concert at the town hall on Friday evening. As she was leaving the hall after the concert was over she tripped on the top step at the outer door and fell forward. She was badly bruised and one rib was cracked. She was unable to walk and was carried to Mrs. Morton's home. She is doing well now.

The principle of our store is to play the game of business fair and square all year round. It is very easy to get deceived when buying watches and jewellry. When dealing with us you don't run any risk whatever, we guarantee all that is worth guaranteeing. This year, as usual, we will have a beautiful stock of all kinds of goods usually found in a first class jewellery store. So if you are looking for some nice Xmas gift don't forget us.—E. Marchand, Jeweller, Milton.

A good many passengers travel via C. P. R. between Milton, Hamilton and Burlington now. There is a good service between Guelph Junction and Hamilton, four trains a day each way. Flamboro station is 1½ miles from Kilbride.

COMMUTATION TICKETS.—The C. P. R. has positively refused to issue any more commutation tickets between Toronto and Streetsville, but they are issued between Toronto and Erindale. Miltonians use them for trips to Toronto and say the additional expense is only 50c over the old Streetsville commutation.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. George's Church, Lowville, intend holding a bazaar and social at the home of Nathan Dunn, Guelph Road, on Wednesday, Dec. 18th. A good programme and supper provided. Admission 25c. and 15c.

ALLEGED HORSE STEALING.—A Finlander named Kenden Ato will appear before Judge Gowsay to-morrow for trial. He is charged with stealing a horse and buckboard from his employer, Jack Hill, of the electric railway construction camp near Acton. He was arrested at Georgetown and committed for trial by H. P. Moore, J. P., Acton.

A grand concert will be held in the 6th line public school house, Section No. 7, Trafalgar, on Monday evening, Dec. 23rd. A good programme is being provided, consisting of recitations, dialogues, drills, tableaux, etc. Music by Miss Black, of Toronto Conservatory of Music, and Mr. Dyson, of Trafalgar. Everybody welcome. Admission 15c. and 20c.

The Burlington Gazette says Reeve M. C. Smith is anxious to retire, for business reasons, and if he does he may be succeeded by F. D. Ghent. In Nelson Stanley Dynes will oppose Warden Griffin for the reeveship and it is reported that S. Nixon will run for reeve, deputy reeve or council.

CHRISTMAS TREE ENTERTAINMENT in Omagh Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening, Dec. 19th. An excellent programme will be provided by local talent. Recitations and songs by the school children. Come and hear them sing. Tea served from 6 to 8 p.m. Proceeds in aid of Sabbath School. Admission 25c. and 15c.
