THE WARDEN'S DINNER.

Warden E. F. Earl gave his dinner at the Hotel McGibbon on Tuesday evening. The large dining room was well filled. There was a choice menu, as follows:

Vegetable Soup.
Boiled white fish, parsley sauce.
Relishes: Olives, Gherkins, Worcester and Chili sauces.
Roasts: turkey, cranberry sauce; goose, apple sauce, beef, brown gravy; lamb, mint sauce.
Cold meats: beef, pork, ham.
Vegetables: potatoes, mashed and boiled, creamed carrots, green peas.
Dessert: plum pudding, brandy sauce; apple and mince pies, lemon and cherry jellies, cheese, cake, ice cream, raisins, nuts, oranges, bananas, tea and coffee.

Among those present were the members of the town and county councils, Jas. Jackson, Ex-Warden of Peel, and Whitfield Armstrong, both of Brampton, W. J. McClenahan, W. B. Clements, R. L. Henstreet, S. Dice, D. Hutcheon, H. Campbell, J. E. Marcellus, W. A. Chapman, Dr. Gowland, J. A. E. Braden, G. A. Henstreet, and J. H. Peacock. Rev. O. F. Cooke asked a blessing. The Warden was chairman and, on the tables being cleared, gave a short address and proposed the toast of "The King," which was followed by the singing of the National Anthem. Ex-Warden Geo. Andrew then proposed the toast of "The Warden," in a neat speech in which he paid the host many well deserved compliments. Mr. Earl responded and then proceeded with the remaining toasts as follows:

"The County Council," responses by J. E. Ford, Geo. Hynds and M. C. Smith.

"Municipal Institutions," J. F. Little, J. M. Moore and Robt. Crawford, Treasurer of Peel county.

"Education," J. M. Denyes and Rev. M. J. Wilson.

"The Professions," J. W. Elliott, K. Dr. Edwards, Physician of the House of Refuge, and Rev. W. M. Mackay.

"Army and Navy," Major Wm. Panton and Captain R. K. Anderson.

"Commercial Interests," C. H. Stuart and Geo. Andrew.

There were many references by the speakers to Mr. Earl's great ability as a municipal officer and his long and valuable services to his town and county, with regret for his approaching retirement from office. It was stated repeatedly that the county had never had a more capable Warden nor one who was more thorough in the performance of his duties.

A False Report.

Milton, Dec. 15, 1913.

The Editor Champion.

Dear Sir,—In last week's issue of the Milton Reformer there appeared the list of Convictions. In that list, at top of column, appeared the names of two of our Milton young men, as having been fined $5.75 each. These young men PAID their fines, which were $15.75, and NOT $5.75, and did not spend 5 days in jail as the report reads. Now, Mr. Editor, I want to ask Police Magistrate Dice, through the column of the Canadian Champion, who it was that sent such false reports to the Clerk of the Peace. It is too enough for a young man to be innocently drawn into court and fined for something next to nothing, without having his name published all over the Dominion as having spent 5 days in jail, which is a lack he, as the young men in question held a receipt from Police Magistrate Dice for $5.75. I want to ask S. Dice, P. M., if he calls such action on his part justice, if he sent that report? Why has this report been returned to the Clerk in such a misleading manner? Who is responsible?

I am not justice every time, but during my lifetime, Mr. Editor, I've never come across a meaner, lower, or more rotten piece of work than that report in the Reformer. An explanation from Police Magistrate Dice and County Crown Attorney W. H. Dick is due these young men and the public at large. That report would do more injury to these young men, charged that a $5 fine, as a out-gen of Milton and a lover of justice towards humanity, doubt against such raw work in administering justice in Milton and claim that an apology is due from Mr. Dice to the party who sent in the false report.

Yours truly,

[illegible]

Note.—Our correspondent seems to suspect a deliberate misrepresentation in the list, but it is plain that a mistake has been made either in the report or in the printing. This sort of thing is not the fault of the boys, and we trust the editors kind, and hardly warrants such a correspondent as [illegible]. Ed. Champion.

OBITUARY.

CHARLES J. LEACH.

Charles J. Leach died last Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. A. Henstreet. He was in his 88th year. Having lived on Trafalgar road from 1825 to 1905. He lived on Oak Hill for a number of years and came to Milton in 1905. He worked at his trade, that of a carpenter, up to about a year ago, when his health began to fail. He had been confined to his bed for two months before his death. Besides Mrs. Henstreet, Mr. Leach left a daughter, Miss Leach, and a son, Albert J. Leach, both of St. Paul, Minn. All three are here now. Mr. Leach was a member of the Methodist Church and Revs. M. J. Wilson and J. C. Willmott conducted the funeral services on Monday, when Mr. Leach's remains were buried in Evergreen Cemetery.

Twenty-six Saskatchewan municipalities vote on local option on Sch inst. Six carried it and twenty defeated it, one of the twenty repealing it.

LOCAL NEWS

The minutes of Tuesday's meeting of the county council will appear next week.

There will be a months minds Mass offered for the repose of the soul of the late William Weir in the Catholic Church, Milton, at 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning, December 23rd.

GETS $800.—Property belonging to Albert Liddell, Brampton, was expropriated by the town some months ago for the opening of Mill Street. He objected, the matter went to arbitration and Mr. Liddell has been awarded $800.

All kinds of brick work done by L. Park, practical bricklayer, Thomas Street, Milton. 17-4t.

TWO MEN KILLED.—Last Saturday evening about 7 o'clock three foreigners were riding on a hand car near the lower station when a light engine came upon them unexpectedly. One of the men jumped and escaped, but the others were struck and ground to pieces on the rails. Mr. Harris took charge of the bodies and prepared them for burial. An inquest was held and after viewing the remains the jury adjourned for a week. The bodies were interred in the Catholic cemetery.—Streetsville Review.

PAINTING.—Frank Morley having bought out the painting and paper hanging business of Frank Pearen, is now prepared to execute all orders in above lines. Give him a trial.

FOR THE BOYS.—A Young Men's Association has been organized at Georgetown in connection with the public library and it started off last week in fine style with a banquet at which the "silver-tongued" orator, Rev. J. W. Pedley, of Toronto, was chief speaker. His subject was physical culture and manly sport allied with morality and religion. The boys will be trained on these lines. Citizens have subscribed liberally towards their room and outfit and J. B. McLeod, of Toronto, sent a cheque for $50. The Georgetown movement for the benefit of the boys should be introduced in other towns, among them Milton.

SHOOTING MATCH. A shooting match will be held at F. W. Ingram's, lot 13, con 9, Trafalgar, on Friday, Dec. 19th, at 1 p. m. Geese, ducks and chickens. Rifles and shot guns. W. S. McCurdy, Mgr.

TRAFALGAR POLITICS.—The municipal elections in Trafalgar promise to be lively. The ratepayers down towards the lake object to their assessment, which they say is too high, and they want to elect a council who will order the assessor to work on a principle different from that of this year. Mr. Ford will retire from the reeveship after long and able service in the township and county councils. Alex. Porter, Deputy Reeve, and Herbert Inglehart, councillor, aspire to succeed him. Councillor Henry Turner and J. A. Johnston are likely to be candidates for the Deputy Reeveship. Isaac C. Wilson, Wm. C. Cook, Belford Savage, Samuel Mariatt and Russell Lawrence are named as likely to be candidates for the council.

R. J. Barber, of E in township, has purchased the 100-acre farm belonging to Wm. Graham, being east half of lot 16, in the 2nd concession, west of Chinguacousy township. Sale was made by J. A. Willoughby.

BUSY BUTCHERS.—This morning Messrs. D. A. Hewgill and Jas. Brown, grocers, E. F. Earl, tins, stoves, etc., and Richman & Brandon, butchers, discovered that burglars had entered their store last night. The doors had been forced open with an iron bar about an inch wide. Nothing was missed except by M. Brown, who lost 40 cents, all he had left in the till. Mr. Hewgill's till was found on the floor, but his cash register was overlooked. An unsuccessful attempt was made on the door of Thos. McJannett's grocery. It is supposed that the burglars were outsiders, as they were after money not goods. Three hoboes were in town last night and this morning.

Painting and Paperhanging wanted. Wall paper supplied. Over 1000 samples to select from. Measure your rooms and let me give you an estimate. All work guaranteed.—A. E. Ashby, opposite skating rink, Mill Street, Milton.

GEO. E. CHURCH.—The Sunday School pupils and Young People's Bible Class will give the attractive and musical cantata entitled "Santa's Surprise," in the school room on Monday next, Dec. 22nd at 7.30 p. m. Admission 15c. Young people like Santa Claus will appear without fail on this occasion. Service in Grace Church on Xmas Day, Holy Communion at 8.30 a. m., Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 11 a. m. Special short service of Christmas carols on Sunday, the 28th, after the 7 o'clock service. A Watch Night service will be held Dec. 31st at 11.30 p. m. Special hymns and the service followed by the Holy Communion. Come and spend this hour with us.

VERY DESIRABLE PRESENTS. Our stock is not a selection of odd extremes and useless curiosities which you feel like throwing on the dump a few weeks after you get them. Our stock is well chosen line representing fresh ideas in pleasing, serviceable and appropriate Christmas gifts that meet the requirements of everybody. E. Marchand, jeweler, Milton.

HALTON FRUIT. On Tuesday Ex-Warden M. C. Smith presented the county council with a large photograph showing Halton's exhibit at the Ontario Horticultural Exhibition and at the Warden's dinner in the evening, told how it had won second prize as a whole and six firsts and one second prize out of seven entries in different classes, about $100 altogether. He added that the exhibit had been applied for and given to British fruit men for exhibition in the old land. It is now there, with a Halton placard, a splendid advertisement for the county. Mr. Smith said that the fruit had been rather roughly handled in transit to Toronto and showed it. Otherwise it would have been sure of first prize. The lesson to be taken from the splendid success of the exhibit is the importance of proper cultivation and care of trees, systematic spraying and box packing. Fruit from neglected orchards and packed in barrels would not have been in the running.

Spring Assizes will open on 10th March, before Chief Justice Meredith.

Hugh Campbell, issuer of marriage licenses. Office—Town Hall, Milton.

Arthur King, of the Crown Bank, Toronto, spent Sunday in town with his sister, Mrs. Geo. A. Mann.

Mrs. H. J. Stover, of Toronto, and Mrs. J. Carpenter, of Farewell, Mich., visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stover during the past week.

PAYING PULLETS.—Miss Hannah Weir says she has three Rhode Island Reds, June pullets, which have laid thirty eggs since Nov. 8th.

There was a drunken row on Sunday night, 7th inst., among Brampton Hungarians. As a result one of them was fined $50 and another $5, with $9.75 costs in each case. Both settled.

Reeve J. M. Moore, of Georgetown, announces that he will retire. He has been an able member of the county council. Messrs. Fleck, Heartwell and Barber are candidates.

NELSON POLITICS.—Chas. Readhead and C. W. Tuck say they are candidates for the Reeveship, but J. P. Griffin has not said that he will retire. Stanley Dynes is out for Deputy-Reeve.

The opening of the Mock Parliament in connection with the Epworth League of the Methodist Church will be held on Monday night. The Governor-General will deliver the speech from the Throne, after which the sides will line up for conflict. An interesting meeting is expected.

FOR REEVE.—Councillor J. F. Little, it is understood, will succeed Warden E. F. Earl as Reeve of Milton. Mr. Little has had long experience in the town council and is well up in municipal matters. He knows the work of the town and will soon learn that of the county council.

The Methodist Sunday School entertainment held last Friday evening was one of the most successful in the history of the school. The programme was given by the scholars, and consisted of vocal and instrumental music, drills, dialogues, recitations, etc. Each number was well rendered. The receipts amounted to over $60.

HALTON WINNERS.—At the Winter Fair, Guelph, Joseph Telfer got first prize for his hackney stallion Paderewski, foaled after Jan. 1st, 1911, and second for his hackney mare, Marigold, foaled previous to same date. In the dairy tests James Brown, of Norval, got two first prizes for short horn milch cows. Jas. Morley won a number of prizes on his black red games.

CLOSE SEASON.—The close season for hares, rabbits and blacksquirrels began on Tuesday. On Saturday eight Milton sportsmen shot twenty hares and rabbits in Nassagaweya. As so many farmers put up trespass notices during the open season there must be many partridges in the woods of this neighborhood, and if the weather next spring be favorable for the chicks birds should be plentiful next fall.

BORN.

Smith—In Milton, on Sunday, Dec. 14th, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Smith, a daughter, Blanche Irene.

DIED.

Gallagher—At Lowville, on Sunday, Dec. 14th, 1913, Wm. Gallagher.

Leach—In Milton, on Friday, Dec. 12th, 1913, Charles J. Leach, in his 88th year.

IN MEMORIUM

Duff—In loving memory of Alexander Duff, who died Dec. 15th, 1911.

Two years have gone and still we miss him never shall his memory fade.—Friend Dorothy

Newell—In loving memory of our dear father and husband, James Newell, who passed away Dec. 20th, 1912.

We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
Like ivy on the withered oak,
When all other things decay,
Our love for him will still keep green
And never fade away.

WANTS FUNERAL REFORM.—A correspondent of the Dundas Star suggests that when a funeral is announced for a certain home this should mean that the service at the house will be over by that time and the procession will leave at once. Also that in cold weather the officiating clergyman request that hats be kept on during the service at the grave.

According to the government figures there are less than 100,000 aboriginals or black men in all of Australia.
