POLITICAL ADDRESS—Last Saturday afternoon Fred F. Pardee, M.P., spoke on the Canadian political questions of the day at the Princess Theatre, under the auspices of the Women's Liberal Association. Mr. Pardee is one of the leaders of the Opposition at Ottawa and his address was an able one. E. H. Cleaver, of Burlington, was another speaker. Dr. H. A. McColl was chairman. The attendance was not as large as had been expected.

The regular meeting of the Women's Liberal Association will be held in the War Veteran's room, on Tuesday afternoon, May 17th, at 4 o'clock. All interested are cordially invited to be present.

NO GRANT—At Tuesday's meeting of the county council R. R. Fleming, Agricultural Representative, asked for a grant of $200 for school fairs, $100 more than last year's grant. J. M. Denyes, Public School Inspector, endorsed the application. There was a good deal of discussion. The council refused to vote the money on the ground that too many calls were being made on it on account of recent innovations.

Don't fail to hear the Bronte Dramatic Club under the auspices of the Milton Home and School Club, in the High School Auditorium, next Thursday evening, MAY 19. Playlets, duets, trios, etc. Admission 25c.

The following from the Post Office Department has been sent to all postmasters: "Postmasters are warned against allowing notices other than Post Office notices from being exhibited in the lobby of the Post Office. The Department is aware that pressure is often brought to bear upon Postmasters to exhibit notices of meetings for charitable and religious purposes, "Lost" and "Found" notices, etc., but it is considered that the Post Office proper should be given up wholly to the Post Office in order that the official notices of the Department may receive the undivided attention which the public interests require."

ILLUSTRATED BIBLE LECTURE.—The Bible Pictures, The Scripture Texts, The Prophecies, Reproduced, World Events— their meaning and outcome according to the prophecies of the Bible. The most momentous and startling message of centuries. George Young, travelling representive of the I.B.S.A., of London, England and Brooklyn, N.Y., will speak in the Princess Theatre, Milton, on Thursday, May 19th, at 8 p.m. sharp. This lecture is fully illustrated. The Bible Pictures and Scripture Texts shown upon the screen make a positive, accurate and realistic presentation of the Bible. Mr. Young is one of the most widely known of Canadian Bible Expositors, possessing a commanding grasp of his subject. Under auspices of International Bible Students Association. Seats free. No collection.

GRACE CHURCH.—Whitsunday. The services will be as follows:—11 a.m., Holy Communion, subject, "The Comforter." 7 p.m., Evening prayer and sermon, subject, "Spiritual Equipment." All are welcomed to these services.

The top price for beef cattle at Toronto this week, according to the Farmers' Sun, is $11.00 per hundred. Last week it was $10.00. Butchers' steers and heifers are quoted at: choice $9.25 to $10.00, medium $7 to $8, common $5 to $6.50.

Dr. Geo. Hume, of McGill University, Montreal, son of Wm. Hume, Milton, lectured on the Mackenzie River oil district to the Methodist Brotherhood in the schoolroom last Friday evening, with lantern views. He made his subject most interesting. There was a good turnout.

BASEBALL.—Milton and Acton played an exhibition game at Acton last Saturday. Milton won, 8 to 4. Milton's battery was Kenney and Buck. Lorne Chisholm, Milton's star catcher of last year, is not well and it may be a long time before he can take the field again. The loss of his services is a serious one to the club.

VICTORIA DAY.—The Milton Athletic Association met yesterday evening and decided on a celebration of Victoria Day at the fair grounds on Tuesday, 24th inst. There will be a baseball double header, Milton vs. a fast Toronto nine, and a programme of athletic sports. See posters, about to be issued, for full particulars.

MIDSUMMER MILLINERY.—May 20th & 21st Miss Carroll will hold her later spring opening, a most attractive display of Milan and Leghorn straw hats, transparent effects in organdie, georgette and mohair; also popular priced outing hats in white and colors. Friday and Saturday, May 20th and 21st. All are invited.

Inspector Grant had Eddie Leece, of Streetsville, before P. M. Crawford, on Friday last, on two charges of violation of the Canada Temperance Act. Leece was fined $50 on each, or $126 in all, including costs. All future charges will be laid under the O.T.A., the penalties of which are very much more severe.—Brampton Banner.

Thirty Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries are already organized in rural and town schools of Ontario to help with the new peace-time work. The aim is to enlist all young Canadians in the field of health education and citizenship. The first poster is out and its well arranged and striking announcements cannot fail to attract attention.

ANGLERS MET.—The annual meeting of the Milton Fish and Game Club, Ltd., was held at the club house near Campbellville last Saturday. Among those present were Messrs. L. E. Fleck, of Georgetown, C. B. Lewis, Toronto, M. E. Mitchell, Port Credit and Dr. Wodehouse, Toronto. Mr. Fleck was re-elected President. The members did not all fish, but a few large trout were caught.

5 Waltz ... Enchanted Nights ... N. Moret
6 March ... Blaze Away ... A. Holzman

Giading with a programme of light music.

HALTON RIFLES—This regiment will go to camp at Niagara in June. Lieut.-Col. G. O. Brown was in town on Tuesday and got a grant of $500 from the county council for reorganization and other purposes. He explained that before the war the usual grant was $350, but for this year only the larger sum would be required, as there would be extra expenses. The four companies now composing the regiment are getting in their uniforms, rifles and accoutrements. The rifles have not yet arrived, but they will be the short Lee-Enfields of the pattern used in the war, the Ross rifle having been discarded.

BIG TIME AT CAMPBELLVILLE—The citizens of Nassagaweya and Esquesing have arranged for a big afternoon and evening next Wednesday, 18th inst., for the benefit of a deserving family who have been very unfortunate lately. The father has been in a hospital for some time and has undergone several operations. Expenses have been heavy. Neighbors recognize this and have arranged the following programme: At 2.30 a baseball match, Milton vs. Brookville, will begin; at 5 o'clock there will be another between Kilbride and Campbellville. Admission, silver collection. At 8.30 the Campbellville Dramatic Club will put on that popular play, entitled "The Farm Folks," followed by a social hop, in the new hall. Admission the play, 35c. and 25c.; to hop, gents 50c. The committee in charge kindly ask the public to patronize all events, as it is for a most worthy cause. HENSON VS. HAMILTON.—This case came up for trial at Division Court at Guelph last Thursday. In December, 1919, the defendant, Russell Hamilton, who lives in Guelph, was in Milton. He got a man to take him to Guelph in plaintiff's car. Mr. Henson was not consulted. There were five men in the car when it started, but two got out at Campbellville and escaped what followed. In Guelph a wheel caught in the street railway track, the car turned turtle and was badly damaged. The three men each agreed to pay one-third of the damage. Two of them settled, but Mr. Henson had to sue Hamilton, who defended the case, but failed to appear for the trial. The plaintiff proved his claim and got judgment for $120 and costs. The case was entered by Messrs. Morley & Hutchinson and Mr. Hutchinson was plaintiff's counsel.

Saturday Treat Musical

Did you ever hear such delightful music? This question was on many lips last Saturday night. The music referred to was that furnished by the Toronto Hawaiian Orchestra in our parlors. "A real treat," "Never heard anything so nice in my life," and many other pleasant remarks came to our ears as we were hustling around making every effort to give our customers the service we think they should receive. We were so well pleased with the results that we have engaged them for this Saturday. So come, bring your friends, visit our Parlors Saturday night and enjoy the latest music played by the Toronto Hawaiian Orchestra.
