Harold Peacock, of the Bank of Toronto, Shelburne, spent the holiday at home in Milton.

Reeve J. W. Blain and Miss Blain left yesterday evening for a trip to Scotland and England, to return about August 1st. They will have their headquarters at Catrine, Ayrshire, Scotland, Mr. Blain's old home, which he left 33 years ago and has not revisited since. A brother and sister live there.

By direction of the church session the programme prepared by the Canadian Council of Religious Instruction will be presented at the Mansewood U. P. Church, May 29th, at 11 o'clock. Every patriotic Canadian, and every loyal Protestant should support the Council of Religious Instruction in its effort to secure the co-operation of all the nations who believe in the Bible as the basis of true education. Sermon in connection with above exercises on "Why was the Sabbath made for man?" Rev. G. E. Henderson, pastor.

The District Convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union is to be held in Milton on June 21st and 22nd. A large delegation from Hamilton and the counties of Wentworth and Halton is expected. The entertaining of guests will be on the Harvard plan and dinner and supper will be served in the schoolroom of the Methodist Church. It is to be hoped our homes may open to the delegates. An excellent programme has been arranged for. Among the speakers are Rev. Dr. J. E. Hughson, of First Methodist Church, Hamilton, and Mrs. Flumerfelt, of Toronto.

The heads of all issuers of marriage licenses will drop into the political waste basket one of these days. The operation is quite painless. No more will the jewelers sell the documents and allow persons to tie a knot that only death or divorce will untie, and sell a wedding ring at the same time. Municipal clerks are to get one dollar of the five for filling in the state's part of this legal document, the balance going to the government. If a clerk receives over $2,000 in fees in any year he must hand over all above that sum to the municipality.

ON BAIL.—Police Magistrate Shields, of Oakville, has committed J. Riddle, driver of a motor bus of the Blue Bird Transit Co., for trial on the charge of stealing a hand bag and a purse containing money from Mrs. J. A. McPherson, lake shore east, who was a passenger on 3rd inst. on the Toronto-Hamilton Highway. On finding the bag and purse Riddle gave them to the manager of the bus company, who told him to return them to their owner. Riddle says he gave them at night to a woman who demanded them, but he could not see her face nor who she was. Mrs. McPherson says she has not received them.

LOST AN ARM.—On Monday evening four Georgetown young men came to Milton by the 8.26 train to visit friends. About 1 o'clock on Tuesday morning they tried to jump the fast freight going north rather fast. One of the boys, Albert Williams, managed to get on it, but after doing so, he accidentally disconnected the air brake and cut the train in two. He fell on the track and the wheels of a car passed over his left arm near the shoulder. Dr. H. A. McColl gave the arm a preliminary dressing, got permission from Allandale to have the engine and caboose of the train sent to Hamilton with the young man and went with him. At the City Hospital the arm was amputated.

Mrs. Claridge, Mary Street, had an arm broken last week, the result of a fall.

Mrs. G. A. Mann, of Hamilton, is visiting Milton friends, with her son, Donald.

Archie McGibbon, jr., of the Royal Bank, has been transferred from Toronto to Winnipeg.

Barnett, the tailor, will continue his "Free Pants" sale this week. Read his adv. carefully.

A. L. McNabb, Secretary of the Farmers' Club, had a fall yesterday evening and broke his collar bone.

In future Mrs. Sproat will receive on second Monday in the month instead of the first Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. L. Smith, of Toronto, and one of their daughters have been visiting Milton friends this week.

On account of the meeting in the Court House next Saturday evening, the Farmers' Club meeting is withdrawn.

A special meeting of the Children's Aid Society will be held at the Gordon Home to-morrow (Friday) night at 8 o'clock.

CHEAPER MILK.—Milk dealers in Milton have reduced the price of milk to 12c. a quart. It had been 14c. for a long time.

The Ladies' Bowling Club will meet at Mrs. Jas. Houston's on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. All ladies interested are invited to attend.

DON'T FORGET that Milton stores will be closed next Wednesday afternoon under the arrangement for the summer.

Preparatory services will be held in Knox Church to-morrow (Friday) evening at eight o'clock. Rev. W. Cranston, of Nelson, will preach.

Milton Poultry Association will hold its next regular meeting at the Farmers' Club room on Monday, June 6th, at 8 p.m. R. B. Fox will be present.

Prof. J. W. Campbell, of the University of Alberta, Edmonton, will spend the summer months at the Dominion Observatory, Victoria, B.C.

Last Saturday, while Mr. and Mrs. Russell Coulson, of Lowville, were at Hamilton, thieves entered their house and stole a suit of clothes and other articles.

KNOX CHURCH.—The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed on Sunday morning. Evening subject, "The Day." Mr. Mackay will preach at both services.

THE CENSUS.—A school of instruction is being held here to-day for the enumerators of the census, to be taken next month. Next week we shall publish the list of enumerators.

ALLEGED CRUELTY—Adam Springsteen appeared before Police Magistrate Dice, charged with cruelty in starving a cow. Judgment was reserved until to morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dobie, Mrs. J. Butterfield and Miss Williamson, of Toronto, with Robert Dobie, of Peterborough, motored to Milton on Monday and visited Miss Anderson, base line.

The regular monthly meeting of John Milton Chapter, I. O. D. E., will be held to-morrow at 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. E. E. Yates. The Chapter is particularly anxious that all its members attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tuck, Nelson, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Sarah Alma, to Edward Earl Vivian, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vivian, the marriage to take place the end of May.

ELOCUTION CONTESTS.—The annual elocution contests for rural school pupils came off at Postville last Friday evening. The Allan brothers, of Trafalgar, were awarded a prize each, as were also A. Lawrence and C. Johnston.

The Milton C. C. (C.F.W.O.) will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday, June 1, at 3 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Auson McDuffee, Meadowdale Farm. A cordial invitation is extended to all farm women interested in this work.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Laidlaw, Norval, Ont., announce the engagement of their younger daughter, Mabel May, to Harold George Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Lyons, Cheltenham, Ont. The marriage is to take place early in June.

The annual picnic of the Farmers' Club will be held in Bert Featherstone's grove on Saturday afternoon, June 11th. There will be games and races for everyone. Everybody welcome. Come and bring your picnic baskets with dishes. Coffee will be provided.

A FIND—Yesterday morning Chief Constable Chapman found a bottle, labelled Gooderham & Worts, under the band stand in Victoria Park, but it was not much of a prize. There was little in it, about a tablespoon full, which a citizen described as "the height of aggravation."

M. Griffith, of Winnipeg, has been kind enough to send the Champion a copy of the Free Press and Evening Bulletin containing a report of the laying of the corner stone of the new $1,100,000 Manitoba School for the Deaf. The stone was laid by Hon. Dr. K. S. Thornton, Minister of Education. Mr. Griffith is a member of the staff of the school.

QUOIT CHAMPIONSHIP. — At the Ontario championship quoiting tournament held at Acton on Victoria Day for the Beardmore Challenge Cup, F. Gallagher, of the Victoria Club, Toronto, was the winner, with W. Weir, of the same club, as runner-up. Three rounds and finals were played. Robertson of Acton, was beaten by Gallagher by one shot in the second round.

REWARDED FOR BRAVERY—At the annual presentation of prizes by the Acton chapter of the I.O.D.E. for the best essays written by pupils of the Acton public school on Tuesday evening, Ray Gamble was presented with the Royal Canadian Humane Society's medal for bravery. Ray rescued a companion, Eugene McPherson, who had fallen through a hole in the ice while skating early last winter.

MILTON DISTRICT—The meeting the Milton District of the Methodist Church was held here last Monday, Rev. G. W. Barker, of Burlington, presiding as chairman. There was a large attendance of ministers and laymen, and reports showed increase in membership and finances. The district retains its lead in per capita offerings for missions, which it has held in the Hamilton Conference for some years.

FISH PROPAGATION.—The Department of Game and Fisheries proposes to distribute 160,000,000 fry this year, to replenish depleted public waters, both streams and lakes. It has hatcheries at Port Arthur, Fort Francis, Sault Ste. Marie, Mount Pleasant, in Brant, and Normandale, in Norfolk, besides two at Port Carling and Murton, which it does not own, but from which it gets fry. It propagates bass, brook trout, lake trout, brown trout, pickerel, white fish and herring. Over 5,000,000 brook trout fry will be delivered next year. Halton should apply for some.

Brown Wheatlet

For some time the Milton Flour Mills have manufactured for limited consumption a breakfast food made from the best Ontario wheat. This BROWN WHEATLET contains the germ part of the bran and the kernel of the cleaned grain—the most nourishing, healthful and flavorsome cereal on the market at the present time.

The enthusiastic reception accorded this product has encouraged us to manufacture it in quantities, put up in sanitary, sealed containers, and procurable at your grocers' or at the mill.
