C. P. R. TRAINS—See corrected new C. P. R. time table on second page. There are two errors, not ours, in that on first page.

Judge Elliot is holding Division Court sittings this week. There will be only one case in the Milton list tomorrow and it will will be adjourned for trial at a later date.

DOG TAGS.—Under by-law of the town of Milton all owners of dogs must procure a tag on or before May 15th. Get them from the Town Clerk at the town hall.

MORE DEBENTURES.—A by-law is being prepared by Mr. Dick, County Solicitor, for the issue of debentures to the amount of $59,937.38 for Halton's share, 20 per cent., of the expenditure on Dundas Street, provincial highway, in 1921, $40,794.97 for road construction and maintenance and $120.980 for the erection of the Sixteen Mile Creek bridge. The by-law will be introduced at the June meeting of the county council.

Remember the Wednesday afternoon half holiday. Shop early Wednesday morning. Stores close at 12.30 noon. Boost Wednesday half holiday. Tell your friends and help on half holiday.

L. O. L. PRESENTATION—Last Monday evening at the regular meeting of Milton L. O. L., No. 2385, Rev. Bro. A. E. Marshall was presented with a silk umbrella and an address, expressing regret for his coming removal from Milton and the loss to the lodge of an efficient member and worthy officer. Kindest wishes for future welfare were added to Bro. Marshall and his family. The presentation was make by A. Paterson, W.M.

Byron Stauffer at Bethel Church, Drumquin, on May 11th, at 8 p.m. His subject, "The Folks Next Door." A popular subject by a popular lecturer. Good musical program by soloists from Toronto and Hamilton. Admission 40c. and 25c.

A SAD DEATH—Last Saturday Wm. George Forth was found drowned in a large tank in his barn near Lowville. Mr. Forth was a farmer, and was highly esteemed by his neighbors. He was about 55 years of age and unmarried. About a year ago, in his barn, he was cranking a large gasoline engine. It back fired and threw him across the floor and down a shute into the basement. His skull was fractured and his brain permanently affected.

WALL-PAPER WEEK.— This is our Wall-paper and Housefurnishing Week. You are invited to buy your requirements here at prices to suit your purse. Watch our ad. next week for specials—the reduced prices will interest you. GALBRAITH & Co., the store where the Good Goods are sold.

TREASURER COMPLIMENTED. — The following is an extract from the report of Messrs. R. E. Young & Co., of Toronto, chartered accountants, auditors for county of Halton, on Treasurer Hutcheon's accounts for 1921: "We beg to testify to the efficient manner in which the Treasurer has carried out his accounting duties during the year and the clearness with which his vouches are fyled for audit and reference, and to the care and accuracy displayed in the handling of the many and intricate entries involved and the few errors of a very minor character compared with the volume of transactions passing through his hands." Mr. Hutcheon is to be congratulated on such a compliment from such a source.

Chocolates 25c lb. at Moorehead's on Saturday.

Mrs. S. R. Bews attended the Board of Managers' meeting of the W. M. S., held in Toronto last week.

Fred Wales, late of Hornby, was in town yesterday. He has been in the bee business at Sarnia for some months.

Mrs. Geo. Allan was so ill on Tuesday that she was brought to Guelph General Hospital. Her condition is very serious.

The monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society will be held at the Gordon Home on Friday evening, May 5th, at 8 o'clock.

The Herald says a number of Georgetown stores have been raided by thieves lately. The latest was last Friday evening. No arrests so far.

Dr. F. E. Babcock wishes to announce that his office will be closed Wednesday afternoons, on and after May 10th.

I. O. O. F. JUBILEE.—Milton Lodge, No. 92, was instituted in June, 1872, and a jubilee celebration is proposed. A committee has been appointed to take the matter in hand.

W.C.T.U.—The annual meeting of the W.C.T.U. for election of officers will be held in the schoolroom of the Methodist Church on Tuesday, May 9th. A full attendance is requested.

The open season for brook trout began last Monday, and Milton anglers were out as usual. They brought home some extra large fish, but fewer than has been usual on the opening day.

The annual meeting of Hornby W.I. will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Wilson on May 10th, at 2 p.m. All members are requested to be present for the election of officers, which is one of the most important responsibilities of the year.

TRANSFERRED—After between two and three years' management of the Bank of Toronto at Bethany, Maurice F. Panton has been sent to Toronto as manager of the Dundas Street and Ossington Ave. branch. He took charge of it on Saturday.

EARLY CLOSING—Everybody should support the weekly Wednesday half holiday in Milton, from May 10th to the last week in September. Should a public holiday occur in any week, on any day except Wednesday, the stores will be open on Wednesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid of Knox Church will hold a rummage sale and sale of homemade baking on Saturday, May 15th, at 3 o'clock. All the ladies of the congregation are asked to contribute. Articles for the sale may be sent to the schoolroom as early as possible on Saturday.

J. K. Dugan has sold his grocery business to Messrs. Ward & Hewgill, of Milton, who will take possession about the fifteenth of May. The same people have bought C. H. Andrew's cottage, next to the high school, lately vacated by Mr. Barton.—Streetsville Review.

KNOX CHURCH.— The subject for Sunday morning will be "Peter and the Power of his Keys." Evening subject will be "The Creative Power of Faith." Mr. Mackay will preach at both services. Our seats are all free and we will be glad to have you worship with us.

Anniversary services were held in the Methodist Church last Sunday and were very successful. Large congregations were present both morning and evening. The preacher for the day was the Rev. Dr. Dougall, of Oakville, who gave two splendid discourses. The music by the choir was exceptionally fine.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED.—Police Magistrate Shields, of Oakville, came to Milton last Thursday to try John R. Hillis, of Trafalgar, committed by Police Magistrate Dice for wife beating. Hillis was convicted, but was released on suspended sentence on payment of the costs. The P. M. gave him a lecture and a warning.

Yesterday was Milton's first Wednesday half holiday of the series which will end with the end of September. Nearly all places of business, including the post office, were closed, but there were several exceptions, merchants who said they wanted a cast iron arrangement which all would have to live up to, a town by-law preferred.

On Thursday evening, May 4th, Professor J. G. Hume, M.A., Ph.D., of the University of Toronto, will give a lecture in the High School, under the auspices of the Milton Home and School. All members are requested to be present at 7.45, as election of officers will take place at this meeting. Everyone is cordially invited to attend. No admission fee.

ANOTHER LARGE HOUSE—The third performance of "The Arrival of Mr. Wright," last Monday evening, drew another large house at the Princess Theatre, with receipts of $90 for 25c. tickets. The performance was, if anything, the smoothest of the three. Unfortunately Mr. Wilkinson was too ill to appear, but his understudy, Dr. Campbell, of Orangeville, made a great hit in the role of Gilbert Leander DePayster. He is an exceptionally clever amateur actor.

The annual meeting of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Clements on Monday afternoon, May 1st, at 3 p.m. Encouraging reports were given for the year. Our Easter meeting was of interest. The thank-offering amounted to $65.75. The amount raised during the year was $208. Our life membership roll was increased this year with three life members—Mrs. Jas. E. Bell, making herself a life member, and a presentation of two life certificates, one to Mrs. A. L. Chambers and the other to Miss Harrison, all of whom have been very faithful and loyal workers in the auxiliary. We were honored during the year by having two returned missionaries who were home on furlough give us inspirational addresses—Miss Alton from Kitaamat and Mrs. (Rev.) Joliffe from China. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. Presidents, Mesdames (Rev.) J. C. Willmott, Bowes and Bews; President, Mrs. W. B. Clements; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. F. C. Willmott; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. R. B. Galbraith; Recording Sec'y, Miss Florence Harrison; Corresponding Sec'y, Miss M. J. Bews; Treasurer, Mrs. Jas. E. Bell; Supt. of Christian Stewardship, Mrs. J. M. Denyes; Supt. of Mite Boxes, Mrs. Blight, assistant Miss Bews; Strangers' Sec'y, Mrs. R. E. Harrison; Program committee, Mesdames Galbraith, Atkinson, Gamble and Horning; Pianist, Mrs. Chambers, assistant Mrs. Galbraith; Watch Tower Herald, Mesdames Hume, W. H. Stewart, Bradley, A. McDuffe, Hadley, Bousfield and J. Tuck; World's Heralds, Mesdames Gowling, S. R. Bews and Meacham.

IN MEMORIAM.

Goodrick—In loving memory of our dear daughter, Florence E. Goodrick, wife James Goodrick, who died May 2nd, 1919.

Deep in our hearts lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest;
In memory's frame we shall keep it,
Because she was one of the best.
Our lips cannot speak how we loved her,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say;
God only knows how we miss her
As we battle along life's rough way.
Sadly missed by Mother and Father.

Goodrick—In loving memery of our dear sister, Florence E. Goodrick, wife of James Gooderick, who died May 2nd, 1919.

Three year have gone, but still we miss her,
Never will her memory fade;
Loving thoughts will always gather
Around the grave where Florrie's laid.
This day brings back to memory,
A loved one gone to rest,
And those who think of her to-day
Are those who loved her best.
Sadly missed by Bob and Mabel.
