When puzzling over what to give for Christmas, we would suggest that you give the Galbraith Store a call. This store has the assortment.

The Herald says Alfred Cole has been transferred from the Georgetown branch of the Bank of Montreal to the head office, Montreal. He has been one of Georgetown's best ball and hockey players.

The Phonograph has first place as an entertainer, ready for a song or a dance in a moment. We have McLagan, Columbia, Edison, &c. Let us show them to you.--Sherman's Studio.

L.O.L.—Milton L. O. L. 2385 elected the following officers for the coming year: W.M., M. J. Davison; D.M., Harrison Newell; Chap., H. London; Rec. Sec., A. Armstrong; Fin. Sec., Geo. Hilyer; Treas., Jas. Vaughan; Marshall, W. McCready; 1st Lecturer, W. Boyce; 2nd Lecturer, Bert Allen; 1st Com. Man, Fred Robinson; 2nd, N. McCallum; 3rd, Jack Elliott. Tyler, Chas. Lewington.

EVERYONE who enters our store stands face to face with great bargains. The destiny of our goods and prices is a journey of advertising for us. You pay so little for so much value you cannot help telling others about it. For gifts that are decidedly popular and pleasing, see our line of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Chinaware, Ladies' and Gentlemen's Folding Umbrellas, Diamond Rings, Signet Rings—in fact all kinds of useful presents found in a first-class jewelry store. Our beautiful line of Ladies' Wrist Watches are selling like hot cakes. We have a splendid line of these, ranging in price from $10.00 up to $35.00. Hoping to see every reader at our store at an early date, and wishing one and all a very Merry Christmas. We remain, respectfully yours, J. & A. Marchand, Jewelers, Milton.

The people of Milton and vicinity are specially favored now with the splendid and inspiring music that is being given each Sunday by the Methodist choir, under the direction of Chas. Taylor, of Brantford. Mr. Taylor was recently appointed organist and choir leader, and he is a man of wonderful magnetic personality. He has performed wonders with the choir. The music on Sunday last was a revelation to the congregation. There were three special numbers given—solo, duet and quartette—besides fine anthems. The choir is greatly enlarged, and more gowns have been ordered, to bring the members up to the full seating capacity of the choir loft. There will be a full choir, thirty-eight to forty, when those desiring to enter can be gowned. For Xmas services there will be six special numbers given, augmented with piano and violin as well as the organ. Those who do not attend regularly any of our churches, we ask you to come to the morning or evening service and be convinced that the Methodist Church choir has the talent to sing as good music as any city church. The attendance is increasing and everyone will be most cordially welcomed. Services at 11 a. m. and 7 p.m.—Com.

Waterman's Fountain Pens, a neat Xmas gift for any member of the family. For sale at Brown's Drug Store.

ACCIDENT CLAIMS—Three claims for damages for motor accidents on county roads were considered by the county council on Tuesday. Two were disallowed and the third held over for investigation. Hardly a meeting passes without one or more such claims, but, as a rule, they are not well grounded.

An ideal Xmas present for any member of the family—a Season Ticket for Skating. Family ticket $5.00, Single $4.00, Children, 14 years and under, $2.50. Tickets may be secured from J. W. Blain, R. M. Clements, A. L. MacNabb. 2t

Boyne School was filled to capacity on Monday evening, Dec. 17th, when their annual school concert was held. Geo. Dolby filled the chair most acceptably, while impromptu addresses were given by O. M. MacKillop, Principal Milton H. S., W.H. Stewart, Inspector C. A., and James Jarvis. The programme though belonged to the children, and their various drills, recitations, songs, choruses and dialogues were a delight indeed to parents and visitors alike. About 9.30 a real old-fashioned Santa Claus arrived with jingling of bells and from a beautiful Christmas tree arranged in a corner of the room distributed to the astonished children many beautiful gifts. In this pleasant task he was assisted by Miss Alexander, school nurse, and Mr. Dolby. Miss Elsie Stewart, the teacher, was also generously showered from the tree and the proceeds of the evening were presented to her by the trustees, to be used in the interests of the school as she and the pupils may fee fit. After presenting each child in the school with an orange and a bag of homemade candy, a very pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Cups and Saucers, exceptional value at $1.00 for Christmas.—Galbraith & Company.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.—The Milton Bowling Club will hold their annual card party and dance on New Year's eve., Dec. 31, in the town hall.

MASONIC—R.W. Bro. J. M. Mackenzie, D.D.G.M., paid his official visit to Burlington Lodge yesterday evening, accompanied by a number of Milton brethren. He and they were warmly welcomed by a large gathering of Masons.

CHRISTMAS GLOVES—Grand display of high class Gloves for Christmas.—Galbraith & Company.

See the latest in Stationery, Books, Perfumes at Brown's Drug Store.

POLICE COURT.—On Monday evening an Italian named Tantardini, Milton Heights, appeared before Police Magistrate Dice, charged with threatening his wife, from whom he had been separated. He had been in jail. He was released on payment of costs and giving a bond to keep the peace. A reconciliation followed and the couple removed to Guelph.

Owing to the closing exercises being held in the public school on Friday, Dec. 22nd, the regular monthly meeting of the Home and School Club has been withdrawn.

PUBLIC LIBRARY—The library will be closed on Christmas day, New Year's day, and also the Thursday following Christmas day. It will be open for circulation of books during the rest of the holiday season as usual.

A RECORD BREAKER.—The present month is said to be the mildest on record in this part of Canada. There has been no snowfall, except two slight sprinklings. The Milton pond was clear of ice until Monday, the latest ever, according to old residents. The indications are that we shall have a green Christmas with no skating.

SCATTERED GREETINGS.—Yesterday afternoon Jack Elliott's big plane circled over Milton and dropped parachutes, with long streamers on which were Christmas greetings from Hamilton merchants and the Spectator. It had already been over the Niagara peninsula. To-day it goes to Lake Erie counties and to-morrow to Galt, Paris, Brantford and neighboring towns and villages.

French Ivory. See the Xmas display at Brown's Drug Store.

Give useful gifts—they are appreciated. For mother and sister and sweetheart a pair of goloshes, a nice pair of slippers or hockey shoes. For dad and brother or friend a pair of slippers, hockey shoes or a good pair of shoes. We have a complete stock of good quality shoes.—Graham's Shoe Home, Milton.

KATCHA-KOO.—Taking into consideration the busy season and the many entertainments given in Milton lately, the attendance at the two productions, on Tuesday and Wednesday evening, of the oriental fantasie, Katcha-Koo, drew large houses. The Princess Theatre was fairly well filled. The play was managed and the performers trained by Mr. Smith, of the John B. Rogers Producing Co., who got splendid results. The acting, singing and drills were good, the dancing graceful, the grouping artistic, and the gorgeous oriental costumes, supplied by the company, helped to make a perfect whole. All did well, but the acting of Mrs. R. M. Clements, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. J. R. Mitchell, Miss Hamilton and Messrs. R. B. Hawthorne and Robert Reid were worthy of special mention, as was the dancing of little Miss Topping.

Give Records this Xmas. Our stock of Apex and Columbia Records has something to please you—Sherman's.

WATERMAN'S IDEAL FOUNTAIN PEN—We have a full line of these famous Fountain Pens, which are in the hands of the people of every nation. They range in price from $2.50 to $5.00. They are selling like hot cakes. With each pen we sell we give free a bottle of genuine Waterman's Fountain Pen Ink and engrave the name free of charge on each. Pens are put up in nice boxes. They certainly make a handsome Xmas present. For sale by J. & A. Marchand, Jewelers, Milton.

THIEVING IN PEEL.—The township of Chinguacousy, as well as Toronto township, is suffering from the midnight visits of lovers of farm produce. Word was received here from the Claude district of recent thefts of geese, and a pig was slaughtered and the carcass removed. Just below Brampton, F. J. Short's hen house was visited one night during the week, and some sixty fowl taken, two ancient, motherly hens being left on the perch. Fortunately a number of the flock had elected to roost elsewhere, and this remnant is all that remains. Tom Wedgwood, who keeps his car in a building quite close to his house near Palestine Methodist Church, had the laprobe, tools, tires and blankets taken one night this week, the loss totalling $40. Josiah Wedgwood woke in the night in time to chase an intruder from his neighbor's turkeys. On a nearby farm a car drove into the yard about 2 a.m., then drove away again, as if the driver had been mistaken in the place. The occupants were thankful that their fowl were left.—Brampton Oonservator.

Laura Secord Candies. For sale only at Brown's Drug Store. Leave your Xmas order early.

XMAS GIFTS—Tobacco, in 1 lb. and ½ lb. tins and pkgs., all kinds; Cigarettes, from 10 to 100 in a box; Cigars, 25 and 50 in a box; Cigarette Cases, Tobacco Pouches, Playing Cards and Cases, Match Boxes, Cigar Lighters, Ash Trays, Cigarette and Cigar Holders, Pipes from 25c. up to $7.00, Pipe Reamers, Case Pipes, etc. Big variety to choose from. See our window display.—Toletzka's Tobacco and Billiard Parlor. 2t.

O.T.A.—There was a dance at the Community Hall, Kilbride, last Friday evening. There was trouble at another held some time ago, caused, it was alleged, by liquor supplied by a bootlegger. On account of this Inspector Reeveley was asked to go to Kilbride on Friday evening and catch the bootlegger, if possible. He went, the bootlegger evaded him, but he searched the parked cars and got material for a prosecution, a bottle of moonshine, which he said he found in the car of Norman Walker, a well known and popular resident of Carlisle, who was at the dance with his wife. Mr. Walker was arrested. In order to be allowed to go home he offered, according to a Kilbride man's story, to plead guilty at once and pay a fine of $200. The Inspector explained that he had no power to make convictions or impose fines, but that he must take his prisoner to jail. He did so, arriving at Milton late at night, so that an immediate release on bail was impossible. Mr. Walker got bail on Saturday morning and was released, to appear before Police Magistrate Moore to-day, when he pleaded guilty and was fined $200. He was asked where he got the liquor. He said he bought it near the hall from a man who offered it to him and whom he did not know. His was a case in which a summons should have answered instead of jail. There was no danger that he would have absconded. He was not charged with a crime.

Methodist Church Notes.

Christmas services next Sunday will be of an interesting character. The pastor will give short Christmas messages morning and evening. There will be Christmas carol singing in the evening, and the choir will render the following programme:

MORNING.

Anthem, "First Christmas Morn," Newton.
Solo, "The Birthday of a King," (Neidlinger), Miss Elsie Stewart.

EVENING.

Anthem, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," (Sullivan).
Solo, "The Star of Bethlehem" (Adams), Mrs. Bole.
Anthem, "Unto Us a Child is Born," (Adsalm).
Quintette, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," (Neidlinger), Mrs. Bole, Mrs. Murdock, Mrs. R. M. Clements, C.R. Turner and Russell Hawthorne.
Violin Solo, "Ave Maria" (Bach), Mr. Rosenberg.

In the Sunday School pictures on "The Child Christ in Art" will be shown. This is an open session and all are invited. 12 o'clock sharp in the schoolroom.

A gift that has an all-round use—that renews the Christmas thought each day—is a welcome gift.
