JACK RABBITS. — Sportsmen have killed a good many jack rabbits in the Milton neighborhood within the past few months, a good thing for the orchards. At Guelph, the O. A. C. authorities report that the jack rabbit is a pest. It girdles trees and has a preference for fruit trees. A special warfare will be waged against it. Its flesh is inferior to that of cottontails and hares. It is a native of the west and how it got into Ontario is a mystery.

LECTURE—A message of hope and encouragement. From all over the world to-day there is a cry for peace. How happy mankind could be if certain conditions could be eliminated. What a beautiful place this old world could be if some of its disagreeable features were done away with. Hear the inspiring and helpful lecture introducing The Kingdom of Righteousness—Man's enemies soon to perish, but millions now living will never die. Hear J. B. Williams, of the lecture staff of International Bible Students Association, Toronto, at Farmers' Club Room, Milton, Friday, Jan. 25th, at 7.30 p.m. Seats free. No collection.

LITTLE GIRL KILLED.—A sad and fatal accident occurred last Friday morning on the C.P.R. crossing about a quarter mile northeast of Milton. Marjorie Macfie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Macfie, of the Hugh Wilson farm, about half a mile further from the town, was on her way to school. When she reached the crossing a freight train was coming from the west. She was about to pass in front of it, but changed her mind, stepped back and stood on the other track. On account of the noise made by the freight train and a high wind she did not notice the approach of the 8.12 a.m. passenger train for the west, about an hour late, though its whistle was sounded. It struck her and killed her instantly. She was carried 100 yards on the cow catcher. Her father was at his barn, heard the whistle and knew Marjorie must be about the tracks, feared the alarm sounded on her account, and he and Mrs. Macfie ran to the crossing, which they were the first to reach. Mr. Shorey, principal of the public school, says Marjorie, who was in her twelfth year, was his brighest pupil in her classes, and he had hoped that she might head the county in the next entrance examination. She was also a pupil in Grace Church Sunday School and a great favorite with teachers and fellow pupils. On account of her death a Sunday School entertainment, which was to have been held in the evening, wos postponed. An inquest was opened by Dr. H. A. McColl, coroner, and adjourned until to-morrow. At 6.55 a.m. on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Macfie left for Clarenceville, Que., bringing their little daughter's body there for burial. The family came to Milton from the Province of Quebec about five years ago.

X-RAY.—By the installation of an X-ray equipment in his office, Main and Charles Street, Dr. Stanley Braund has made his equipment complete and modern. With it dental diagnosis is absolutely certain.

INCORRECT—On 3rd inst. the Champion reported the appeal of Geo. McDermott, of Port Credit, against an O.T.A. conviction and a sentence of six months in jail, adding that the conviction was made by Police Magistrate Moore. This, the Acton Free Press says, was incorrect. A Peel magistrate imposed the sentence. The Champion regrets and apologizes for the mistake.

MASONIC.—R. W. Bro. J. M. Mackenzie, D.D.G.M., paid his official visit to Hamilton Lodge, Hamilton, on Monday evening, accompanied by W. Bro. Dr. R. K. Anderson, M.P. There was a large attendance. The work of the first degree was exemplified most impressively and was followed by a banquet.

One of the Champion's oldest subscribers was the late Charles McClelland, of Blyth, formerly of Hornby. His son, C. McClelland, still takes the Champion. In writing on 14th inst. to renew his subscription he said, "Although I have been away so long, still old associations are remembered and I like to hear any news from the old place."

At a meeting held on Monday evening, 14th inst., it was decided to arrange for an "Old Home Week" celebration, the dates to be June 28th to July 1st. W.F.Dewar was appointed as its manager. A better selection could not have been made. Another meeting will be called in the near future, when further details and arrangements will be completed.

A quiet wedding of interest took place at St. Paul's chapel, Hamilton, on Dec. 19th, 1923, when Annie Geraldine, youngest daughter of Mrs. Frances Campbell, became the bride of John Kerr Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moore, of Milton. The ceremony was performed by Rev.Dr.Drummond, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Hamilton.

TO MARRY FORMER ACTONIAN.—It is announced that Mrs. Emma Katherine Knowles, the divorced wife of Rev. R. Knowles, the well known author and minister for many years of Knox Presbyterian Church, Galt, will return to New Berne, North Carolina, where she was married to Mr. Knowles 26 years ago, to be married again, on January 23rd. John Firstbrook, a prominent business man of Toronto who spent his boyhood days in Acton, and has his summer home, the Trout Ponds there, will be the groom.

DIVISION COURT. — Much interest was taken at last Friday's sittings of Division Court here in the case George Emmett vs. James Turner and Wm. Near. According to the evidence the plaintiff bought two heifers from the defendant Near and sold them to the defendant Turner. In neither case was there a guarantee given. The cattle were killed in Mr. Turner's slaughter house. Their lungs proved to be in an extremely bad state, tuberculosis. They were buried after notice to the plaintiff and payment was refused. The plaintiff sued Mr. Turner and afterwards got an order to add Mr. Near as a defendant. After hearing the evidence Judge Elliot said that all the parties appeared to have acted in good faith and the liability of either of them was a matter of law, not of evidence. He reserved judgment.

Mr. Chambers replied and hoped they would all meet again under similar circumstances.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Saunders, of Hornby, are basking in summerlike weather at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, near Miami, where they are spending their third winter. Mr. Saunders has been kind enough to send the Champion a copy of the Miami Herald, of 2nd inst., in which there is a report of the annual Miami New Year's day fruit and flower festival. The following is an extract: "Fruits and flowers in prodigal profusion noted in colorful splendor for supremacy in the magnificently decorated floats, in many of which Florida's bumper crop of happy youngsters took a prominent and charming place. No greater note of contrast to the northern winter products of snow, ice, chilblains and blue noses could have been struck than the golden promise of Florida's fruit, the brilliant hues of her native red poinsettias, rosy oleanders, orange bignonias, purple and red clusters of bougainvillea and the luscious red and pink of Florida's own roses.

Town Council.

The council held its first meeting for the year last Monday and organized by striking the standing committees as follows:—

Finance and Special Communications—Maxted, Blain, Syer.
Streets and Walks — Cox, Syer, Blain.
Waterworks and Fire—Syer, Maxted, Morrison.
Town Hall and Property—Nixon, Cox, Smillie.
Light and Police—Morrison, Smillie, Nixon.
Printing and Contingencies—Smillie, Morrison, Cox.
Industrial—Blain, Maxted, Nixon.

The council met again on Tuesday evening, all present, the Mayor in the chair.

Accounts were passed to the amount of $558.49. The Milton Musical Association got a grant of $250.00.

E. R. Hutchinson and J. W. Blight were reappointed as auditors.

J. F. Little was appointed a member of High School Board.

Mr. Ulhorn, of the United Iron Works, Ltd., Montreal, addressed the council asking for the extension of time for the payment of interest, taxes and legal expenses due the town on the Textile building, of which his company, the United Iron Co., is nominal owner, and which Hoops, Ltd., paint manufacturers, Toronto, propose to buy.

Mr. Hoops also spoke. He asked to have the matter straightened out so that his company could get a legal transfer of the property, without which he said his company would not touch it.

Mr. Blain moved, seconded by Mr. Maxted, that this council agrees to give the United Iron Co. to Feb. 5th, 1924, to pay all obligations they owe the town of Milton, and if not paid we proceed to foreclose the mortgage on the property forthwith.—Carried.

The report of Inspector T. M. Levan on the Milton High School was read as follows:—

"When I visited this school last year I found its efficiency so much impaired by an overcrowded attendance and inadequate accommodation that I asked for an opportunity to discuss conditions with the members of the Board and the municipal council. To the members who were present at this joint meeting I pointed out how the interests of the school were suffering and I solicited their co-operation in providing a remedy for these unsatisfactory conditions. I strongly urged upon them the need of increasing the accommodations so as to provide suitably for the large number in attendance.

My visit this year discloses that no action whatever has been taken and that conditions are still worse than last year by reason of the increased attendance. Three classes in particular are chiefly affected, Form II, with its abnormal enrollment, Form IIIa, which has to endure the hardship of working without desks, and the discomfort of being seated on chairs with their backs in close proximity to the heating system of the science room, and Form IV, which is crowded into the cramped quarters of the library. The school has now been overcrowded for two years and the prospects are that the attendance will still further increase for two or three years at least. It is the plain duty of the Board to provide suitable accommodation for all the pupils admitted. The remedy for existing conditions is obvious. A wing should be added to the building to contain two additional rooms. Such a wing would probably cost about $15,000. By the legislation of 1921 the cost of such an addition would be shared by the county council. In view of the large proportion of county pupils in attendance the proportion to be paid by the county would materially lessen the cost to the town. There is apparently no valid reason why such an addition should not be erected without deldy.

I shall make it my duty to consult the Board again next spring to learn their plans for remedying existing deficiencies and in the meantime the matter of recommending the payment of the general grant to this school will be held in abeyance."

Mr. Grier died at his home at Lyndhurst last Saturday, shortly after the arrival of his son, F. W. Grier, accountant in the Bank of Toronto here, who had been summoned by telegram and who is expected to return next Monday.
