Wilkinson, Master Tailor. 2t

MOTORIST CALLS POLICE; IS FINED.—It doesn't pay to tell the police every time you think you have something stolen from your car, Robert P. Sherwood, of Georgstown, learned on Tuesday. While in Milton on Monday night he found that a thief, trying to enter his parked automobile, had broken off a door handle. So he called Chief Constable McMullen. In the midst of his inspection of the broken handle, the chief happened to look inside the car. He saw an open carton of beer, with one bottle partly consumed. In Police Magistrate H. P. Moore's court Sherwood was fined $100 and costs—$116.50 in all. The fine will be paid to the town of Milton, as Chief McMullen laid the charge.

HAVE YOU PURCHASED YOUR CHAUTAUQUA TICKET ?—The programmes offered this year consist of very attractive numbers. If you are planning to see only two or three programmes you should secure a season ticket, otherwise you may not be able to see the desired numbers. A season ticket costs $2.00 for adults, $1.00 for juveniles. Admission to each performance, adults 75c, juveniles 25c. Buy a season ticket while you have the chance, save $2.50, and make sure of seeing the programmes which appeal to you.

At the meeting of the "Tripartite" last Monday evening there was given a most impressive little play, entitled, "The Bishop's Candlesticks," W. O. Chisholm, as the bishop, acted with masterly management throughout. The love and sympathy, with its far-reaching when has been so strongly portrayed, [illegible]
