WEDDINGS

DREGER—STEVENSON

The home of Mrs. Roy Stevenson was the setting for the marriage of her younger daughter, Eunice Jean Stevenson to Henry J. Dreger, son of Mrs. A. and the late Mr. Dreger, of Beausjour, Man. Rev. J. B. Moore officiated and Miss Betty Johnstine, of Toronto, played the wedding music.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a frock of Filipino tan crepe and carried a nosegay of Talisman roses and bouvardia. A buffet supper was served in the dining room by Mrs. Edna Thomson, Hamilton, sister of the bride and Miss Lillian Dreger, sister of the groom. For going away the bride wore a harvest green wool, brown accessories. After a trip to Ottawa the couple will live in Nelson.

WOLFE—OSTRANDER.

Acton United Church was the setting for a very lovely wedding Friday evening, Oct. 9th, when Miss Helen Lorraine Ostrander, daughter of Mrs. James Chester Matthews, of Acton, and the late Rev. Joseph Thomas Clement Ostrander, was married to Mr. John Wesley Wolfe, of Acton, son of Mr. Albert Edward Wolfe, of Streetsville, and the late Mrs. Wolfe. Rev. A. W. Fasbury officiated and Miss Fern Brown was at the organ. Given in marriage by James Chester Matthews, the bride wore a gown of white satin, the full skirt sweeping with a train. Her halo and long veil were of tulle and her bouquet a cascade of orchids and stephanotis. Miss Mary Young, who was maid of honor; bridesmaids, Miss Marjory McLeod, Mrs. Wilfrid Sankey, Miss Joan Rumley and Miss Eleanor Beatty, wore picture frocks of foulle taffeta shading from wood-violet to rose cerise, halo of matching net with bows and long streamers, and all carried cascade bouquets of asters. Miss Betty Mae Fusbury, flower girl, wore a juliet frock of lilac with flowers in her hair, and carried a tulle muff. Mr. Emerson Wolfe was groomsman and Claude Cooke Roy Loree were ushers. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Later the couple left for Limberlost Lodge, the bride wearing powder blue wash suit and accessories and double fox fur. The couple will live in Acton.

HUME—WATSON.

Ferns with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums decorated Nelson United Church for a pretty autumn wedding on Saturday, Oct. 10th, 1942, at three thirty o'clock, when Doreen Mary Susanna, youngest daughter of Mr. Elias Watson and the late Mrs. Watson, Nelson, was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon Switzer Hume, only son of Mrs. Hume and the late Mr. Howard Hume, Milton, with the Rev. R. F. Mucer officiating. Miss Minerva Springer, organist of the church, played the wedding music.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a gown of white velva-ray organza cut on Victerian lines with sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her embroidered veil was caught from a halo of seed pearls and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of Better Time roses and bouvardia. Her only ornament being a string of pearls.

The matron of honor, Mrs. J. C. Jarvis, sister of the bride, wore a gown of turquoise blue sheer with lace insertion, and shoulder length veil of pink net held with a wreath of roses, and carried a nosegay of Briarcliffe roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Gwendolyn Eaton, cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Vivian, of Nelson, were gowned alike in pink shee, cut on Victorian lines, blue net shoulder-length veils caught with a wreath of roses and carried a nosegay of Briarcliffe roses and baby mums.

Mr. Joseph Hartley, Milton, was best man, and Mr. Macre Taylor, Cookswile, and Mr Dorwin Watson, brother of the bride, were ushers.

Miss Jean Richardson, of Lowville, was the soloist and sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning." The reception for eighty guests was held at "Maple Crest Farm," home of the bride's father. The bride's aunt, Mrs. John Eaton, Carlisle, received with the bridal party, wearing a gown of black crepe, with matching accessories with a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses. The groom's mother received in a black crepe dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses. The bridal couple left on a short wedding trip amid showers of confetti and best wishes, the bride wearing a raspberry red wool suit with silver fox trim, hat to match and black accessories, with a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses. They will resided at Roxborough Farm, Milton.

IT HAPPENS IN EVERY HOME

It was covered with dust and cobwebs, had been in the corner of the attic for ten years. I thought of it the other day recalling I had purchased it at an auction sale for a few pennies. I was surprised when the auctioneer said it was mine as I had been bidding only for the fun of it. The house is cluttered up with things now, so like every other discarded piece—to the attic it went. I heard there was to be a Community Auction Sale on November 7th and the proceeds were to go towards war work. People were asked to see what they may have to donate. Just the thing someone may want, I said to myself, when I recalled that old piece of furniture. So I called Humphrey Browne at 99 r 12 and told him what I had. "Both the John Milton Chapter, I.O.D.E. and Canadian Club are glad to accept anything saleable for the big Auction Sale," Mr. Browne said. Large sums of money have been raised in many towns and villages by sponsoring a similar event and in each case the money was used for war work. See what you have hanging around and send it to the Community Auction Sale.

Omagh Women's Institute

The Omagh W I. held its October meeting at the home of Mrs. Homer McCann, the president, Mrs. Gazley, presiding. All enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Merry and Mrs. Burton, the District President and the District Secretary respectively. Mrs. Merry spoke on several items of particular interest to institute members.

Mrs. Jarvis had prepared and read a paper on Historical Research, which included the Township of Trafalgar, Milton, Acton, Oakville and Burlington.

The committee appointed to take charge of sending our soldiers Christmas boxes is as follows: Mesdames Booth, Colbeck, Jarvis and Kenneth McDougall. Mrs. Doloy has kindly volunteered to help in the packing.

Mrs. Jarvis was appointed delegate to the W. I. convention at Kitchener Oct. 29 and 30

The roll call question, "How Long Have You Been an Institute Member?" brought forth some very interesting reminiscences.

Each member is requested to bring or to send in a gift for our soldiers' Christmas boxes. Mesdames Cavell, K. McDougall, Oscar Downs and Miss Hadley have kindly volunteered to knit the socks for these boxes and to donate wool for same.

Red Cross Report: 1 pair socks, 2 pair ankle socks, 4 pairs 18' seamen's socks, 1 baby's jacket, 1 quilt.
