LOWVILLE

Rev. Delve of Bronte had charge of the service at the United Church on Sunday morning. He gave a challenging address.

Mrs. E. M. Readhead attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson, Georgetown on Saturday, May 20.

ACTON

At a largely attended meeting of St. Alban's Church it was decided to proceed with the building of a new parish hall this summer at an estimated cost of $10,000, to be raised over a two year period.

On Saturday, May 13, the Victoria Mission Band of Knox Church observed the fifieth anniversary of its founding in 1900. A tea held in the school room and a party for the children in the choir room marked the event.

Last Friday night in the Scout Hall, Acton Minor Sports Club wound up the hockey season with a get-together of Bantams, Midgets and Juveniles who were in the O.M.H.A. and the Juniors of the O.H.A.—Free Press.

NASSAGAWEYA

S. S. No. 7

The pupils of No. 7 School that went on the trip to Buffalo last Friday were Donna McMillan, Bob Coxe, Don McLeod and Martin Davenport. They were accompanied by Mrs. Paul, their teacher and Mr. Wilfrid Kennedy, a trustee. They joined the rest of school pupils, teachers and trustees at Campbellville where three Gray Coaches took them to Niagara and Buffalo. All report an excellent trip.

The community was shocked to hear of the acident which took the life of Reginald Butcher last week. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Butcher and family in their sad bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCullough attended the silver wedding of their daughter, Mrs. Wilson at Ashgrove last Saturday.

The Mission Band of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church met on Saturday in the Sunday School room. Lorraine Coxe presided over the meeting and also rendered a solo which was enjoyed by those present. The roll call was answered by the bringing of flowers to put in the church for the Sunday service. After the devotional period, the rest of the afternoon was spent in sewing. The usual lunch brought the meeting to a close.

DUMP DUTY ON BRITISH CARS

Pressure is being applied from many quarters to have the government reimpose dump duties on British goods entering Canada, reports The Financial Post.

Leading motor manufacturers point to the 5,749 U.K. cars which entered Canada in January. If this keeps up they see an annual inflow of close to 70,000 units in 1950.

As yet, there is no indication that the government is prepared to change its present policy. But the question is continually under review.

INFLATABLE CHAIR

Inflatable lounge chair weighs about two pounds, has no rigid parts and tucks into overnight case, reports The Financial Post. For sun bathing, picnics, boats, etc., is of Vinylite plastic, said resistant to moisture, salt, sand, grease, oil, sun, heat. Adjustable back. Seat measures 18x19 in. Chaise longue model also available.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Miss Gertrude Campbell was hostess to the Blair Y. W. Auxiliary on Wednesday evening. The president conducted the devotional service. After the usual routine business was taken care of, plans were made for the June Tea.

The topic, Different Religions in India, was given by Mrs. William Mahon. Mrs. Robertson read an article from the Presbyterian Record, "Koreans in Japan". This article stressed the need of churches in Japan.

The roll call was answered by a verse with "Joy" in it. After singing a hymn the meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Roger Mahon.

The hostess served a delicious lunch which was enjoyed by the seven members present.

KILBRIDE

The vice-president, Douglas Watson, presided for the Mission Band meeting on Friday afternoon when the theme was "The ministry of healing." Sally Ann Burns read the scripture verses. Short, interesting readings about children in India were given by Joan McCue and Frances Robertson. A temperance quiz was conducted by Douglas Ford and George Greenlees. The offering was taken by Douglas McCue. Wilma Watson read the story about India in the study book and Margaret Ford placed the green umbrella on India. After a short period of handwork the meeting closed.

The young adult group of the Church held their meeting at the parsonage last Wednesday night with the president, Fred Davis in charge. Anna Cairns conducted the devotional period and Muriel Truax played a very lovely piano solo.

The main feature of the program was moving pictures shown by Harold Speers. The first film was on the beautiful English gardens and another one was a picture of local scenes and people which was very interesting.

Mrs. Truax played a very delightful solo. Following the meeting Netta Burns and Mr. Truax were in charge of recreation. The winners of games and contests were Gertie McArthur and Henry Gorter, Beatrice Heatherington, Edna Gorter and Fred Davis. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Winnie Harbottle, Muriel Davis and Harold Speers.

Rev. N. J. Truax preached at Appleby and Nelson on Sunday.

The W.M.S. was in charge of the Sunday afternoon service on Sunday. Mrs. J. Henry read the scripture reading and Mrs. Elmer Heatherington led in prayer. The offering was taken by Miss Netta Burns and Mrs. Clifford Fretz. Rev. John Smith of Georgetown was the guest preacher and brought a very challenging message. Mrs. Archie Cairns and Mrs. Lorne Dixon sang a lovely duet.

Dr. and Mrs. D. Clark of Peterboro were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. McDonald.

Mrs. M. Cartwright has returned to her home in the village after being in Hamilton for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Molto and family were week-end visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Howard.

Mrs. J. Hollingsworth has been visiting her daughter in Hamilton for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Green and children from Freelton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rasberry on Sunday.
