Festival of Countries set for third season

By Linda Kirby

Milton's third annual ethinic extravaganza is set for Saturday, Sept. 19 and if all goes as planned, it will be even bigger and better than the last two years according to committee officials.

Making its debut onto this year's Festival of Countries program will be Mexico.

The pavilion is planned for the UAW Martin St. hall and the group will feature Mexican bands and some of the more popular festivities known to that country.

Both China and Japan, which were not among the 13 nationalities taking part last year, are returning this year.

And for the first time Festival of Countries will be moving some of the activities out of the downtown core area.

The Laurier Sports Centre will be the setting for a combined Gaelic pavilion featuring Welsh and Scottish displays of music, food and dance performances.

Harp, choir and pipe band music will be included in that program.

According to Rose Harrison, chairman of the planning committee, the move to Laurier Ave. Arena was necessary to accommodate a growing number of participating groups.

Following in the tradition of past years, an ongoing program of live performanceswill be given on Main St. beside Milton Town Hall.

"We are working on a lot of new ideas," said Mrs. Harrison, adding the various groups are planning individual themes.

Native foods will be offered as usual at "good" prices, she said and many of the groups hope to offer live evening entertainment, a popular drawing card for many pavilions last year.

"We are trying to keep it a purely ethnic celebration.

This is the only time of the year the different nationalities come out and interact.

"That is our aim, not make a lot of money."

"Passports"—the ticket to visit each of the pavilions—will go on sale for $3 (up from $2.50 last year) per person by mid-August and will be available at various outlets in town.

More than 4,000 turned out for last year's event

Interested individuals wishing to volunteer their help are asked to contact Mrs. Harrison at 878-2185, Marg McNeill at 878-4361 or Cathy Gibbons at 878-6071.

Smokers Anonymous club

There are many smokers who want to break their habit but feel they can't and this is the reason a Smokers Anonymous club is being formed in Milton.

Cathy Owens, who is organizing a club in Milton, wants to kick the habit herself and feels support from others in her predicament may help.

She would like to hear from "not only people who are trying too quit but from those who already have."

"I want to quit but it is a hard thing to do," she said.

Cathy Owens in conjunction with the Halton Lung Association is holding meetings Tuesday evenings beginningat 7.30 at the Optimist Centre for those interested in joining a local chapter of Smoker Anonymous.

The group will meet once a week to offer encouragement to those trying to quit smoking and to suggest methods of quitting.

She considers the on going effect of a club to be beneficial and asks any interested smokers or reformed smokers to call her at 878-7196 or attend the next meeting Tuesday evening at the Optimist Centre on Commercial St.

Kelso fees

Halton Region Conservation Authority has set a new schedule of fees for use of its Kelso facilities.

Most notable is the dropping of a fee for use of the pool at Kelso during weekdays and the decision to look at new programs to encourage mid-week use of the pool.

The 50 cent per person charge on the weekends to use the pool will stay in effect.

Entrance fee to the facility will be $3 per car on weekdays and $4 per car on weekends and holidays. The pedestrian fee will be 75 cents per person.

The regular annual car pass will be $30 regardless of the number purchased.

Similarly the seven-day annual pass will be $30. The seven-day annual pass for a second car will be $20.

The five-day mid-week annual car pass will cost $20 and $15 for a second car.

Camping rates will be: $7.50 for one to five people; $12.50 for six to 10 people; $17.50 for 11 to 15 people; $22.50 for 16 to 20 people; and $27.50 for 21 to 25 people.

Vehicle entrance fees and the cost of firewood will continue to be extra to the camping fees. Firewood will be sold at $2 per bushel.

These rate's will also apply at the Rattlesnake Point Conservation Area.
