Light Up The Hills, Dec. 1 to Jan. 3

Ignition Night set for Dec. 1 in Acton, Georgetown and the Glen

Light Up The Hills Ignition Night is the big celebration that starts the festive season with a magical WOW of lights.

This is the eighth year of lighting up the Dominion Gardens Park. Over the past eight years, three Trees of Hope have been planted and decorated; one each in Georgetown, Acton and Glen Williams.

Celebrations and Ignition Ceremonies will take place in each community on Tuesday, Dec. 1 to celebrate the festive season; Ignition 7 p.m.

In Georgetown and Acton, Santa will arrive at 5:30 p.m. Guests are encouraged to bring their cameras to take that special picture. Included in the evening are special treats and entertainment.

The Lions Club and Tim Hortons (Sprinter Van) are generous suppliers of special treats in Georgetown. The entire evening is sponsored by Dufferin Aggregates. In Georgetown convenient parking is available at the Christ the King High School.

In Acton, McDonalds, Terra Cotta Cookies and Maple Lodge Farms are supplying the free goodies.

Glen Williams celebrations start at 6:30 p.m.

Treats and entertainment are supplied by McDonalds and Preston's.

Light Up The Hills is an organization that is composed of dedicated, hard-working volunteers, very generous donors and numerous in-kind services.

The Memory Trees are features in the Dominion Gardens Park. Many families have purchased special Christmas balls that are tagged to remember loved ones and placed on the Memory Trees.

Again, this year unique knitted creations will be displayed in Dominion Gardens Park. Check out the colourful tree trunks and Candy Lane poles. Halton Hands in Motion have worked diligently to add the delightful yarn installations to the celebrations.

Support Light Up The Hills by purchasing a draw ticket with a chance to win one of 10 wonderful prizes.

Thanks to all the community support and sponsorships, the Halton Hills community will be aglow with lights from Dec. 1 until Jan. 3.
