Abstract — Charter by Robert Lord Maxwell lord of the lands of Eurisdale and Eskdale in favor of Ninian Armestrang in Arkilltown, and his heirs, of all and whole the lands of Arkilltown, extending to a ten pound land of old extent, with the pertinents, lying in the lordship of Eskdale, within the bounds of Eurisdale, and shire of Dumfries:

Which lands of Arkilltown belonged before in heritage to William Johnston of Gretno. and were by him resigned in due form in the hands of the said Lord Maxwell as superior; To hold to the said Ninian Armestrang of the grantor and his heirs, in fee and heritage for ever, by all their past marches, as they lie in length and breadth, in houses, biggings, woods, plains, muirs etc. Mills multures, and their sequels; fowlings, huntings and fishings: peats, divots, coals; rabbits, rabbit warrens, pigeon cots, etc quarries of stone and lime; with courts and their issues, fines, etc; with all other liberties and advantages, which justly belong to the said lands —

Sealed and subscribed by the said Lord Maxwell at Edinburgh 4th July 1537

—