By-Law No. 246.

By-law to amend By-law No. 232 relating to the Fire Department:

WHEREAS it is desirable to amend By-law No. 232, therefore the Corporation of the City of Ottawa, hereby enacts as follows:

1. That in addition to the office of Superintendent created by the said By-law, there shall also be created and established the office of Assistant Superintendent.

2. That the Assistant Superintendent shall, in the absence of the Superintendent, perform all the duties, and have all the powers of the Superintendent, as the same are described in said By-law No. 232, and the appointment and removal of the said Assistant Superintendent shall be subject to the same conditions as those provided in said By-law regarding the office of Superintendent.

3. That when the Superintendent is present on the occasion of any fire, the Assistant Superintendent shall receive and obey the instructions of the Superintendent and act as his aid and assistant in the direction of the Fire Brigade; and at all times in the ordinary routine of duty, the said Assistant Superintendent shall aid and assist the Superintendent as directed by the said Superintendent.

4. That the salary of the Assistant Superintendent shall be two hundred dollars per annum.

5. That John Langford be, and he is hereby appointed Superintendent of the Fire Department, and Paul Favreau is also, in like manner appointed Assistant Superintendent.

6. That all provisions and enactments of By-law No. 232 fixing and granting premiums for the first and second engines at fires, and for the first arrival of a hook and ladder carriage, are hereby repealed.

7. That in lieu of premiums the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum shall be paid to each City Fire Company, in addition to regular allowances under clause No. 8 of By-law No 232, and one hundred dollars per annum to each hook and ladder company.

8. That all allowances for drawing engines and hook and ladder apparatus to fires are hereby disallowed, and the enactments in relation thereto contained in By-law No. 232 are hereby repealed.

9. That in lieu of such premiums and allowances the sum of seventy-five dollars shall be paid to the Chaudiere and Ottawa Fire Companies respectively, and the sum of fifty dollars shall be paid to each of the other fire companies, and to each hook and ladder company, to defray the expense of drawing engines and hook and ladder apparatus to and from fires.

10. That the fees and premiums provided in By-law No. 232, for the FIRST and SECOND punchers of water arriving at any fire, are hereby abolished, and the enactments of By-law No. 232 in that regard are hereby repealed.

11. That in lieu of said premiums the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS is hereby appropriated, to be placed at the disposal of the Fire Superintendent, for rewards to those who arrive first at fires with a supply of water, the same to be paid and expended as the Superintendent shall decide.

12. That the Superintendent shall, immediately after every fire report in writing to the Mayor all circumstances relating thereto which come to his knowledge.

13. That all provisions of said By-law No. 232, and other By-laws of this Corporation, repugnant to or inconsistent with the provisions of this By-law, are hereby repealed and declared void.

GIVEN under the Corporate Seal of the City of Ottawa, this Twenty-ninth day of April, A. D. 1867.

REPLY,

To Hon. James Skead, H. F. Bronson, Esq., H McCormick, Esq., J. Aumond, Esq., J. Goodwin, Esq., Donald Dow, Esq., David Moore, Esq., and others:

GENTLEMEN,—

I have much pleasure in accepting your requisition, so respectably and numerously signed.

From my experience in commercial transactions and long residence amongst you, it would not, I trust, be considered presumptuous in me to say that I have a deep interest in the welfare and advancement of this section of the country, and lay claim to a thorough practical acquaintance with its trade, its wants, its resources, and the mode of their best development.

Should I be the choice of the people I pledge myself to devote my best energies to the advancement of our County generally, but more especially to all that will contribute to the prosperity of our rising City, and that great staple trade so closely identified with the progress and prosperity of the Ottawa valley.

I remain,
Yours respectfully,
E. McGILLIVRAY.
