EVERY MAN HIS OWN DOCTOR.
PROFESSOR KELLOG'S Life Preserving Vegetable Compound and universal cure for man and beast, which gives immediate relief, and only requires one trial to convince the most skeptical. Externally by rubbing, internally by mixing with milk or anything to suit the taste or clear. One teaspoonful, a full dose, fever and ague, and all fevers, old sores, fresh cuts and bruises, burns, foul stomach. Dyspepsia, by mixing with one glass Highwines; rheumatism of all kinds, Delirium Tremens. Persons drunk made sober in half an hour by two doses, and in fact almost every ailment cured in a very short space of time. Corns, by paring and applying for several weeks. The nerve of a tooth entirely quieted by an application for a short length of time. It acts as magic on horse flesh in all cases, and also on all other beasts. No family should be without it, as there will be no danger of disease when used in connection with the Water Cure. None genuine without the signature of the above Sole Proprietor, H. J. KELLOG.
We the undersigned inhabitants of Templeton have used the above named compound in many cases, and cordially recommend it to the public for a trial, as it has been more expedient and effectual than any remedy used by us.

Marlborough, July 31, 1867.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF PRESCOTT.
GENTLEMEN,—
The time having arrived when it becomes necessary that you should know who are the candidates for your suffrages at the approaching election, I beg leave respectfully to state, that I now offer myself as a candidate on this occasion for your suffrages for the House of Commons. Before proceeding further permit me to make the following explanation:
When it became a certainty that an election must take place under the new order of things this autumn; in reply to the numerous solicitations and enquiries of my friends, I invariably stated, that if they agreed upon another in my stead, I would cheerfully retire on account of my business, which required attention; but that I would never desert my friends. As I find now that they have not succeeded in selecting a candidate commanding that confidence hitherto bestowed on me, and in compliance with their urgent solicitations, I now publicly declare myself a candidate. Under these circumstances I respectfully solicit your support on the present occasion.
The events of the past four years on the destinies of this part of Canada have been momentous.
The permanent establishment of Ottawa as the Capital of the Confederation, alone must be a great boon to the Ottawa country. The confederation of the Provinces as the Dominion of Canada is an event unparalleled in the history of revolutions.
The absolute certainty of the construction of the Intercolonial Railway, giving us free access at all times to the seaboard.
The prospect of a branch of the Grand Trunk from Ottawa to Vandreuil, besides the long talked of Ottawa and Lake Huron Canal which will have my unqualified support. All these are matters affording abundant reason to feel grateful for the past, and hopeful for the future.
One of the first and most important subjects likely to engage the attention of the administration, must be the defences of the Province, and I need scarcely tell you that if elected, as your representative, and as an old Volunteer the reorganisation of the Militia and Volunteer force will receive my best attention.
In the civil administration, the statesmen called to his council by her Majesty's representative, will have under present circumstances, a peculiarly difficult task. As a staunch and consistent liberal Conservative, I shall feel it my duty to strengthen the hands of his Excellency's present advisers, and to assist them in dealing out equal justice to all her Majesty's subjects throughout the Dominion, irrespective of sect or section, class, or language, or origin.
Deeply grateful for the kind indulgence hitherto shown towards my past conduct, and trusting a continuance thereof.
I have the honor to be gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
THOMAS HIGGINSON.

Select Educational Classes.
Mrs. and Misses Cossar,
(Having lately arrived from England.)
BEG to acquaint the Ladies of Montreal and the surrounding country, that they will receive at their house, No. 1, Oxford Terrace, 45 McGill College Avenue, a limited number of Young Ladies as Boarders, who may be desirous of finishing their education, or who, from a residence in the country, have been unable to enjoy the advantages of the city seminaries.
Mrs. Cossar is prepared to instruct these young ladies in all the branches of a thorough English Education, also French, Vocal and Instrumental Music, General Deportment, Calisthenics, and particularly to sing an English Ballad.
Mrs. Cossar has been induced to open these classes, having been informed that there are many young ladies to whom attendance at a school is both irksome and unpleasant, but who would make more favorable progress when surrounded by companions of their own age and acquirements, and living with Mrs. Cossar and her daughters in all the freedom of a happy home, and yet with that correct restraint so steadily carried out in England.
Mrs. and Miss Cossar also give private lessons in singing and on the piano-forte, and beg to return their sincere thanks for the kind encouragement they have already received.
Terms on application to
MRS. COSSAR,
No. 1, Oxford Terrace,
45 McGill College Avenue.
