NO NEED OF WIRING UP,

as they cannot fall apart of their own accord. The invention (patented) is simple and effective, a short opening at the joint at each end of the pipe enables two of them to be locked together, and the "bead" effectually prevents their separation.

Any person can put them together with the expedition of a practised tinsmith.

They will be sold at the low price of

FIFTEEN CENTS PER LENGTH.

The undersigned having bought the exclusive right for the City of Ottawa and County of Carleton, from Mr. T. K. REID, respectfully invites the public to call and examine them, being fully persuaded that all who see them will refuse to buy any other kind.

CONCENTRATED LYE.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

The remarkable success which has attended the introduction of the celebrated Concentrated Lye into Canadian market, by the subscriber, has excited the cupidity of an unprincipled firm in town (which has already been convicted of borrowing other people's brains) by a spurious imitation called Saponifier. To avoid disappointment, purchasers should be careful to ask for Harte's Concentrated Lye, which is sold by all respectable Druggists and Grocers in town and country. 783y

Coughs and Colds.—Sudden changes of climate are sources of Pulmonary Bronchial and Asthmatic affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges. Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough, or "common cold," in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, allay irritation which induces coughing, having a DIRECT influence on the affected parts. As there are imitations, be sure TO OBTAIN the genuine. Sold by all dealers in medicines, at 25 cents a box.

Mothers! Mothers! Mothers!—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents. Sold everywhere. Be sure to call for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP." Having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

Mothers Read This!—Holloway's Worm Lozenges are a certain and safe remedy for Worms in Children and Adults.—As it is a well-known and melancholy fact that one great cause of death among children is from Worms alone, it cannot be too deeply impressed upon the minds parents the necessity of closely watching their children. By so doing; and understanding the symptoms and true cause of the disease, thousands of children might be saved from early graves. SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.—The following are a few of the very numerous symptoms and diseases which are caused by Worms: deranged appetite, emaciated extremities, offensive breath frequent picking at the nose, grinding of the teeth during sleep, hardness of the belly, with frequent slimy stools, and sometimes convulsive fits; itching of the arms, pain in the head and stomach, unquiet sleep, faintings, tremblings, coughs, indigestion, low spirits, frightful dreams, and a gradual wasting away of flesh.

They are palatable and self-administered to the child—drive out the worms thoroughly without pain and completely cleanse the stomach—thereby doing away with the necessity of administering Castor Oil or other unpleasant cathartics—as is the use of other Worms.

☞Each box contains the fac-simile signature of NORTHROP & LYMAN, Newcastle, C.W., who are the sole proprietors.

N.B. Ask for Holloway's Worm Lozenges ☞and take no other.☜ Sold by all the druggists in Ottawa, and medicine dealers every where. 578v

THE INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY.

From the United Service Gazette.

SOME of our countemporaries, who have bitterly opposed the location of the Intercolonial Railroad upon what is known as the Northern, or Major ROBINSON's line, simply because it was a government location, have endeavored to press their opposition by two arguments. The first is that as a military road it will be uselessness, taking troops a long distance from the frontier, while it ought to be so located as to transport them along the frontier, which is to be defended. This argument might have weight if we were apprehensive of lawless guerrilla warfare along our entire frontier, and resolved to dispose of our defensive forces in such a way as to defend every hamlet from isolated attacks. But we are altogether unlikely ever to be exposed to such attacks and if we were they could not be of any serious effect in a national point of view, and to attempt to keep up and transport troops to repel them on our long line of frontier would involve a cost which we could scarcely bear. From small parties of marauders the people of each locality would require to protect themselves to a great extent in time of war; and in times of peace they are not at all likely to be called upon to do so. In these days war is not a thing to engage in without counting the cost, and the probable chances of success. The United States is the only power against which we are likely ever to be called upon to defend ourselves, and should they attack us, the only rational object which they could have in view would be the conquest of the country. Any other object would be totally inadequate to justify the expense of a great war. And as small raids, if permitted to be indulged in by the United States government would inevitably lead to a great war, we are quite safe from them, unless the rulers at Washington should be prepared to enter upon a gigantic struggle in which the sovereignty of British America should be the prize which they hoped to win, and by that means enrich themselves and humiliate Great Britain. The surest way therefore to avoid the calamity of war is for us, in conjunction with the Mother Country, to make it apparent that the conquest and absorption of this country would be a hopeless task. This we take to be the object of the British Government in desiring the construction of the Intercolonial Railroad, and for insisting upon the selection of Major ROBINSON's line. With that line open for the transportation of British troops and war material, and situated so far from the attacks of hostile bands that we should have safe communication with the sea in an aggressive war upon us, nothing but the conquest of the whole country could be of any permanent advantage to the United States. Looking therefore at this road from a national point of view, it is a strong link in the chain that binds us to the Mother Country. We agreed to construct it under her advice, and have selected the route approved by her, as a part of the conditions upon which the whole strength of the empire would be employed in our defence, should we require it; and, having performed our part, the fact that we have a right to demand the putting forth of that strength and that it will be employed for our defence, is the strongest argument that could be used to deter the United States from a wanton attack upon us. And in a military point of view, should we be attacked, its location is the safest that could be selected to keep open our communication with the fleets and arsenals of England, But apart from these considerations, it now appears that Major ROBINSON's line is also the shortest and cheapest practicable route. We have been favored by the author, Mr. J. O'HANLY, P.L.S. & C.E., with a pamphlet written some months ago, but only recently printed, which examines geographically and statistically all the routes proposed, and demonstrates that the Northern line is the proper one: "1st. Because "it is the safest; 2nd. Because it is the "shortest (practicable); 3rd. Because it is "the cheapest of construction; 4th. Because "it is the cheapest of maintenance." Of the Central route, the only one, on military grounds, at all admissable to comparison with the Northern, Mr. O'HANLY says: "Did our figures and lines imply mathematical precision, the diagonal or central "route would, at least, possess the advantage of being the shortest. But nature, "always averse to straight lines, has compelled art to make so many detours and "deflections; that, what is theoretically "the least, is practically the greatest, and "this route central only in name. This "result at once suggests great engineering "difficulties, and is found to be in strict "accord with Mr. FLEMING's Report of "the exploratory survey and reconnaissance of the country. So that this route "is not only the longest, but the most "costly of construction and maintenance, "whether as a whole or average cost per "mile." We need hardly say that we are glad all other considerations agree with the military in demanding the selection of Major ROBINSON's line, and that the odium of the expense, if any there should be, will not fall altogether on the shoulders of the advocates of an effective system of defence. Indeed, Defence may be fairly credited with being principally instrumental in bowling over projects which would have involved a much larger outlay, and which would not have given us anything like the same advantages for our money.

Corn is the great agricultural staple of that country, and the "Canadian Pain Destroyer" is the best remedy in any country where a disordered condition of the stomach, liver and bowels, is combined with great debility, nervous weakness and intense melancholy; its effects are most beneficial and wonderful, price 25 cts per bottle. MESSRS. YOUNG & RADFORD having secured the services of first-class working jewellers in etruscan, filagree, plain, fancy and solid gold work, and having made large additions to their work shop are now better prepared to execute any orders with which they may be entrusted than heretofore. Masonic jewels, gold and silver medals, and every kind of jewellery repaired.

THE BRITISH ARMY RESERVE.—Amid the heat and the fierce party strife of the last session of the Imperial Parliament, several important measures were passed, the fruits of which are now beginning to appear. The excitement consequent upon the struggles between the ins and the outs, in connection with the Irish Church and other questions, caused the people to overlook the passage of several acts of practical utility, which may yet effect great and beneficial results for Britain and the Empire at large. Among those little noticed measures were some designed to promote reforms in the military service—to strengthen it and render it more popular and capable of expansion in time of need. The new legislation on this subject has already begun to work in the following manner, as described by the London Times:

"An order has been received at Chatham, from the Horse Guards, directing volunteering to be opened among the troops at that garrison for the Army Reserve Force, ordered to be raised under the Act of last session. The corps invited to supply men are the 1st and 2nd Battalions of the 1st Royal, 109th Bombay Infantry, 1st Battalion of the 2nd Royals, 82nd Regiment, 106th Bombay Light Infantry, 1st Battalion of the 8th Regiment, 2nd Battalion of the 10th Regiment, 1st Battalion of the 14th Regiment, and the 45th Regiment. The order announces that the Reserve Force will consist of two classes, to be formed from men who have served or are serving in the army, the one class liable to general services with the regular army, and the other liable to service in the United Kingdom only. The troops eligible for the first class are soldiers who have completed their first time of service, and although unwilling to re-engage in the army, are, nevertheless, willing to join the reserve; men not exceeding 34 years of age who have been discharged from the army, by purchase, or otherwise, except for misconduct, after service of not less than three years; soldiers serving at home, who have completed two-thirds of their first term of limited engagement, with not less than five years of that period abroad, and have not re-engaged, whether enlisted under the Army Service Act of 1847 or the Army Enlistment Act of 1867. The troops eligible for the Army Reserve, Class 2, are soldiers who, immediately on the completion of their first term of service, are unwilling to re-engage in the regular army, or to enter the first Reserve; men who have served in any of Her Majesty's regular forces for not less than the full period of the first term of enlistment, and men who have completed a term of service in the First-class Reserve, and are unwilling to re-engage therein. The bounty for the first class is £3 and for the second class £2 per annum, payable quarterly."

A HINT TO THE FISHERY MINISTER.—We have been informed by a party who has been prospecting on the upper St. John and the region thereabouts, that the Fishery laws are, in his own knowledge, openly and flagrantly violated. A party of Americans was particularly mentioned, as ruthlessly breaking in upon the close season which extends here from 15th August to 1st March, and who, under the pretext of trapping for mink, &c., have been spoiling the salmon of their spawn, and sending it off to the United States in boxes, in clear violation of the 12th clause, 7th section, and 2d section, 15th clause, that provide, except by the permission of the Minister, who may grant a written permit to obtain fish and fish spawn for purposes of stocking and artificial breeding, or for scientific purposes, no one shall take, buy, sell, destroy, use, or possess any salmon roe, or injure any spawning bed. It is not likely that the Minister has given those Yankees the requisite permission. We are also told that on the Miramichi, from Boiestown to Gray's Mill, parties were out last month spearing salmon, in contempt of the provisions of the Fishery Act. If persons are thus allowed "to bite the law by the nose" and laugh at Minister and Provincial Fishery Overseer, our rivers and streams will soon be rifled of their finny wealth, and the sport of all true disciples of old Isaac Walton be effectually spoiled. Both Minister and Overseer will have to look sharp, and see that a proper supervision is maintained over our valuable inland fisheries. The great trouble is, we believe, that the Wardens are expected to undertake and carry out arduous work on the most insufficient of pay, and, of course, they do not answer expectations.—Head Quarters, Fredericton, N. B.

MILITARY ECONOMY.—Some years ago, when Government saw the expediency of providing the nation with rifled cannon, the Royal Gun Factories were ordered to be enlarged; and cyclopean forges and large boring and turning steam mills soon rose up towards the east end of Woolwich Arsenal. High in the midst of these a stately tower was reared for the
