FRESH ARRIVAL.—By Express last evening, 10 more cases of those Fresh Oysters were received at THE TEA POT. Only 25 cents per can, X X X, and not frozen.

THE MARKET—MONDAY.—The weather being so unusually bad, the market was miserable. A few loads of hay and wood were the chief commodities on exhibition for sale.

THE HILL CHAPEL.—We noticed on Sunday a very large number of city folk in attendance at this neat and favorable place of worship, attracted by the truly eloquent preaching of the Rev. Mr. Johnson.

MONTREAL TROTTING CLUB.—On Wednesday and Thursday next this club propose to have a match for something nice in the way of purses. It is expected that a large number of the sporting men of Canada, and not a few from the neighbouring county, will be present.

FIELD BATTERY.—The members of the Field Battery return their thanks to Dr. Codd, for his prompt attendance on Driver Shellington, who received a concussion on the brain when entering the gates of the drill shed, on Saturday, the 12th inst.; the strong wind blowing the gate against him.

FROST, FROST, FROST.—Buss and Co's. oysters are free from frost, and always fresh received daily. Lobsters and fish always on hand at lowest prices in the city. All descriptions of fruits and vegetables supplied and delivered on shortest notice. Game of all kinds at Buss and Co's., 21 Rideau street, old Citizen building, near Little Sussex street.

OTTAWA SNOW SHOE CLUB.—An annual prize race of this club will take place on Parliament Square, on Saturday, 19th inst., to which all runners are invited. The club has been in considerable training; and, while hoping for its success, we feel satisfied that a fair contest will be made. It is expected that some of the Caughnawaga Indians will assure strength and bottom with our well-trained whites.

ARRIVALS AT THE UNION HOTEL.—A Blackburn, Empiville; John Ferris, Queen County, N B; J C Brigham, Aylmer; P Y Merick, Montreville; A R Ward, Smith's Falls; J L McDougall, Alex McDougall, Miss McDougal, Renfrew; E L Loucks, Morrisburgh; J W McEdwards, Lancaster; D A McPherson, Helena, Montana, U S; Thos Stuart, jr, Rockville; J S Davidson, Montreal; J S Ross, Iroquois; S Ault, Aulteville; E Dumouchel, Quebec; H A McKay, Montreal; H Whitby, Prescott, S Lavender, Rouse's Point; J A Leakey, Appleton; Dr Giles, Farmersville.

POLICE COURT—MONDAY.—Thomas Lowe, a so called gammon, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2 and costs or one week.

The case of Mary Ann Campeau, for keeping a house of ill-fame, fined $100.

Victoria Levesque, charged with a like offence, was discharged in consequence of the disappearance of necessary witnesses. This case had been adjourned a week ago.

The Russell House assault case was adjourned till Friday.

A case of receiving money under false pretences was postponed, and the party admitted to bail.

THE PRINCESS CASE.—Yesterday afternoon Dr. Philion appeared before the Police Magistrate for further examination in the matter of the poisoning of Constable Jordan's child. The Counsel for prosecution stated that it was not the desire of Jordan to further continue the case—that his family entertained objections to the exhuming of the child. He, therefore, declined to act as private prosecutor any further, in consequence of the absence of material evidence. As the matter was thrown entirely in the hands of the Crown, the Police Magistrate adjourned the case till the 7th March, for the purpose of ascertaining the decision of the Attorney General.

CORNWALL.—A traveller writes us from Prescott, and states, among other things, that he was in Cornwall the day of the dinner to Sandfield. He describes the appearance of the town, that day, as unusually lively. The hotels were all crowded—so much so that many from the country could not obtain beds, and so had a plausible excuse to keep up the jollification all night. The Dominion Hall, kept by Mr. McKenzie, is a large, commodious and central hotel. The landlord is a favorite with the travelling public, and has everything in excellent style. Of course, in the dining-room one does not see a gentleman chief waiter in full dress, like Mr. O'Neil, of the St. Lawrence, Montreal, (the model of the Dominion,) but, what answers just as well, a neatly-dressed, handsome Glengarry girl, who waits attentively and smilingly on the table. The Commercial is, also, a well-kept hotel, but not so well situated as the Dominion.

PROFESSOR STONE.—A well-filled house greeted the Professor last night. The performance opened with some successful experiments on new subjects. The entertainment was kept in amusing spirit by the appearance of Corporal Putman, who sang, "Will Jones and Susan Jane," with good effect. Mr. Jones followed with the neat song of "Nancy Bar." When the comical Corporal Putman came on the stag to sing "The horrible tale," he received with a storm of applause. His rendering of this ballad in voice, gesture and expression of countenance is inimitable. He has no equals as a comic singer. The Professor called him as he retired from the stage, and stated to the audience it gave him great pleasure to present the gallant and comical Corporal with a silver watch. The present having been given, Corporal Putman returned his thanks for the appreciation extended. To-night the prize list of conundrums will be read, and a gold watch given to the author of the best. A good deal of competition has been made; and much enjoyment may be expected apart from the instruction given, and the solid reward of a gold watch for the wit, or ingenuity of the competitors. The professor distributed a number of valentines to the multitude—quite a grab game was played among the younger folk.

ARRIVALS AT THE RUSSELL HOUSE.—Hon Alexander, Woodstock; Miss Alexander, do; Hon Macpherson & lady, Toronto; two Misses Macpherson, do; Hon Walter Dickson, Niagara; Miss Dickson, do; J A Perkins, Graphite City; John Cutler, California; B Chamberlain, Montreal; J G Robertson, Sherbrooke; J W Ritchie, Montreal; Hon J Ferrier, Hemmingford; S Hutchinson, Montreal; Chas Barr, do; J Pickle, Watertown; A Beach, D. Arrival of Prince Arthur.

The snow storm of yesterday so retarded the arrival of the train, that many who assembled at an early hour, five o'clock, returned disappointed. Mr. Reynolds had received intelligence that an unusual large number of cars were on the way, with two locomotives. He had arranged a passage way from the depot platform at the place the Prince debarked at his first visit. With his usual forethought, he had it immediately removed to a position near Dalhousie street. A large number of our citizens, a considerable detachment of the 60th, and the government police were on the ground, under command of Lieut. the Hon. Mr. Ponsonby, of the Rifle Brigade. When the first whistle was heard, the crowd pressed near the passage. Through the kindness of Constable Banning, we were enabled to obtain a fair view of the party as they proceeded to the sleighs. The party was composed of H. R. H. Prince Arthur, Miss Allan, Col. and Mrs. Wolesly, Lord Alex. Russell, Col. Elphinstone, Mr. Pickard, Mrs. Glyn, and Col. McNeil. The train was a large one, being composed of ten cars, and containing nearly three hundred persons. As the Prince and his party moved down to the Governor-General's sleigh, which had been for some time in waiting, he was heartily cheered by the assembled hundreds. They drove immediately off to Rideau Hall.

Reduction of the Army.

From the Buffalo Express.

The order issued by Gen. Sherman to retired officers that they may engage in private occupations, and choose their own locations, closes with a regret that, "in the natural course of things, the long continuance of most faithful devotion to duty on the part of the officers concerned must terminate." This is one of the unfortunate features of the process of reduction of the army. In this connection the Army and Navy Journal, in a well considered article, shows that the clamor against superfluous officers is baseless. There is a popular belief that the number of officers awaiting orders is about six hundred; the real number is one hundred and fifty-six, and this is due to the imperfect legislation of last winter, which prohibited enlistments while the army was being consolidated from forty-five to twenty-five regiments. The Journal says the number of officers made supernumerary by this consolidation was 621. Of these forty-seven were assigned to fill existing vacancies in the three arms, which made the number to be handled 535. Here began to work the ordinary "law by casualty;" and before the 1st of November 100 less than twenty-five had resigned or died, or were dismissed, cashiered or retired. Of the 600 who remain, and who are called "unattached" seven are professors in civil colleges, under a law of Congress requiring that duty to be performed; eight are on duty in the Military Academy; sixty are on recruiting service, as palpable a necessity as garrison duty; sixty more are on Indian service; nearly a hundred are on reconstruction duty, to carry out the laws of Congress; thirteen are serving in the Freedmen's Bureau. This accounts for about 250, all of whom are really doing service. Then there are a hundred men on duty in the departments at Washington. Of the 509 "unattached," 352 are on duty, and there is left a balance of 156 to whom the proposed legislation of Congress may apply. Of these 33 are reported as being either physically disqualified, intemperate, under suspension, in arrest, or inefficient. These will doubtless be discharged in due course, leaving Congress to legislate on a total of 121. It is proposed to raise the retired list from 177 to 200. This will take 73 out of the 121; and there are left 48 officers for Congress to interfere with and to legislate upon. Surely all the fuss made is hardly warranted. The temporary surplus of officers will soon adjust itself.

EXTRAVAGANCE OF THE AGE.—Forty thousand dollars' worth of French mirror plates have been ordered by the Leland Brothers, for their new Union Hotel at Saratoga. The other appointments of the new hotel are said to be on a similar scale of magnificence.—New York Tribune, Jan. 12th. 1260

The mind governs the muscles through the nervous system, as the telegraph apparatus is influenced by a remote operator through the wire. If the mind is impaired by age or disease, the muscles are made to perform strange or unnecessary acts; but if the nervous system is diseased, the muscles of the Stomach, Liver, Heart, Lungs and Genital Organs, are sure to suffer, and from their inaction produce Dyspepsia, Disease of the Heart, Weak Lungs and General Debility, with their accompanying trains of evil and resulting diseases.

A Diseased Nervous System, Vitiated Blood, Bad Digestion and Weak Lungs, always precede Consumption.

By the timely use of Fellows' Compound Hypophosphites the nerves regain their vigor, the brain becomes clear and powerful, the muscles healthy, Dyspepsia a disease of the past, the heart's regular action is restored, the blood made pure, the lungs strong, and all the functions of the body are brought up to a healthy standard.

We are enabled to state the above on the most convincing testimony.

Sold by apothecaries. Price $1.50 per bottle or 6 for $7.50.
