

Georgetown Choral Society to Rejoice! with Brass & Voice on Dec. 5

The Georgetown Choral Society brings in the Yuletide season with Rejoice! with Brass & Voice on Saturday, Dec. 5, 7:30 p.m. at Georgetown Christian Reformed Church.

Accompanied by the accomplished musicians of the Trillium Brass Quintet, the 90-voice Georgetown Choral Society performs new lively interpretations of traditional Christmas songs such as O Holy Night, Go Tell it on the Mountain, The Twelve Days of Christmas, and Sweet Songs of Christmas.

The audience will also enjoy two majestic classical pieces such as Randall Stroope's dramatic Hodie and K. Lee Scott's lovely Christmas Cantata.

The dynamic combination of sparkling brass music and the superb blend of ninety voices in four sections is a wonderful way to get into the Christmas mood.

The last time the choir performed with a brass ensemble, seven years ago, tickets were sold out, so we recommend obtaining them early.

Tickets are $25 (students, $10). For a family of four, it's $50 with each additional child under 12, $10. Group rates are available for 10 or more.

Details of the concert and tickets available at: <http://www.georgetownchoral.ca/> or pick them up at Bergsma's Paint and Wallpaper in the Georgetown Market Place; McMasters Meat & Deli, 110 Main St.; Pat's Prime Cuts & Deli, 333 Mountainview Rd., S. or Acton Home Hardware, 362 Queen St. E.
