LOCAL NEWS

Bargains in dress goods. For particulars see advertisement in this day's Times.

George Charles Reiffenstein was taken to Kingston yesterday.

Great novelties in summer goods by lad steamer from England opened to-day at Magee and Russell's.

DISEASES MADE EASY.—Diseases cut by Miss Bernard at R. L. James & Co.'s are sure to be cured. Charges moderate.

New Goods, ex Allan Line steamers, are received every week by Garland, Mutchmor, & Co.

A child was badly injured in Upper Town last night by falling backwards into a cellar while the trap door was left up.

The band of the 60th Rifles will play on Major's Hill on Wednesday afternoon, from 4 to 5 p.m., weather permitting.

THE POLICE FORCE have obtained new uniforms, which they stood so much in need of.

OTTAWA FIELD BATTERY.—The men of the Ottawa Field Battery are expected to parade at 10 o'clock to-day, sharp, to fire a salute.

THE BRIDGE AT MASONIC.—A temporary bridge has been erected across the Rideau at Kanotte, and teams were crossing on it last Saturday.

It is reported that John Dorning has been seen several times on Saturday last on the sixth concession of Huntly, and was offering his farm for sale at a low figure.

A cook on a barge got at the Captain's strong box yesterday, and decamped with some money that it contained. Detectives Shaw was after him all yesterday evening.

SIGNAL.—The friends of Mr. Samuel Robinson, late of the Montreal Daily News, will be happy to learn that he has so far recovered from his illness as to be able to return to his home. He will start by steamer this morning.

Mr. Hall, Wellington Street, advertises his celebrated gingerbeer and icecream soda from the fountain. He kindly proposes to cool down overheated, thirsty souls, at a moderate charge, if they will only give him a call. See advertisement.

THE MARKET, yesterday, was very fair for a Monday. Very little change in prices; butter and eggs were up a little. There was no meat of any kind in the farmers' waggons. There were few loads of oats—the owners were offering them at 37 cents, but buyers were not plentiful. Hay was scarce.

VEGETABLES.—Since Saturday, on account of the prospect of rain, rhubarb advanced one inch and a half. Asparagus has an upward tendency. Onions are getting stronger. Grass getting higher does not appear to lower butter, which has been a great deal steadier since the weather got cool.

RUNAWAY.—A team belonging to a carter named Hogg was frightened on York street last night by a firecracker, while the owner was in a house collecting a fare. They were fortunately caught by some carters as they were going full speed over the bridge. They had received no injury, and the owner, in the fullness of his heart at everything being safe, offered to treat the crowd.

Many a serious accident occurred to the actors by an ill-timed swing of the trapeze. Monsieur De Lave has invented a remedy. His invention is quite simple. The swinging of one trapeze by the performer is made to work the other by means of two wheels and a wire belt connecting the two trapezes at the top. M. De Lave and his company feel proud of their invention, and promise to astonish the audience to-night at the theatre.

MISSING.—Two soldiers of the 60th have been missing since Sunday evening. They went out for a sail in a boat, and have not since been heard of. Enquiries have been made on all sides, but so far without any result. It is supposed by some of their comrades that they have been upset out of their boat and drowned. Their names are Foster and Froscott.

The two missing soldiers turned up last night. They had sailed down the river with the stream a long distance, but from their ignorance of boating, were unable to get back again until late yesterday evening.

BOY MISSING.—A French boy has disappeared at Mr. Baldwins new mills yesterday, under very mysterious circumstances. He had been taking away edgings from the saws, and was missed from his post at about half-past three yesterday afternoon. The boy had complained of sickness some time before, and his father, who was also working in the mill, supposed he had gone home. He went home to see, and returned in a little while with the boy's mother. He had not been home, nor has any one seen him since. There is a spot below the mill where the water from the sluices comes out with great force, and the men are in the habit of going down there to cool themselves. It is supposed the boy went down there and slipped in and was drowned. A scream would not be heard with the noise of the mill, and the rushing of the water.

THE MAJOR'S HILL. The beautiful trees on Major's Hill are in great danger of being completely killed if the authorities do not interfere to prevent it. Fires are often built in the hollow trunks, some of them by idle boys. Sticks and stones are thrown among the branches at birds, knocking off the young branches in showers. Several fine trees have already been killed, and the others run a fair chance of being destroyed also, unless something is done to protect them. The Hill is a favourite resort of the citizens for a pleasant stroll in the evenings, but it is a question how long it would remain so were the fine old trees all destroyed. It would not require a large outlay to make the Major's Hill one of the most delightful spots for a stroll that could be found in the Dominion. It is to be hoped the authorities will give the subject the consideration it deserves.

POLICE COURT.—Robert Burns, charged with being drunk and disorderly on Sparks street on Saturday morning. Fined two dollars and costs, with one week's imprisonment at hard labor.

John Macnamara, charged with being drunk and disorderly on Rideau street on Saturday evening. Discharged and advised to go to the country.

John Gaucher, for being drunk on the streets and begging. Fined two dollars and costs, or in default one week in gaol.

A young lawyer well known in the city, was charged with being drunk and creating a disturbance in a saloon in Lower Town. The case was allowed to stand over until to-morrow.

A printer was charged with leaving his employment without giving due notice. The case was dismissed on the grounds that there was no special agreement between the printer and his employer, and being paid by the piece and not on time, it was not necessary to give notice.

The Doucette case. Doctor Chapleau deposed that Miss Gosselin was not sufficiently recovered to appear in court. The prisoner Daly, was remanded, and McCandlish was bound under recognizance of $100, to appear next Monday.

A Chinaman Assassinates His Purchased Wife.

From the Sacramento Reporter, May 16.

Yesterday morning a young man brought word to the police office that a Chinese woman had almost been cut to pieces, and that her assailant had committed suicide. Officers proceeded to a cellar on I street, and in a back room found a woman on the floor, entirely insensible, and weltering in blood. In another room they discovered a man stupefied from the effects of poison. Doctors were immediately called, who dressed the mangled body of the woman on which no less than twenty-two wounds had been inflicted. Both arms were broken, and in places the bones were laid bare. Horrible gashes were made on either side of her neck one of her breasts were nearly cut off, and other parts of her person dreadfully mangled. She was carried to the hospital, with small hopes of her recovery. The man Ti Lee, was taken to the station-house, and a Chinese doctor, who was supposed to understand the nature of the poison used, directed to use his skill in bringing him to, which he did at once by administering a strong emetic. On being restored to his senses, Ti Lee confessed the deed and his murderous intentions; but, in extenuation, said that the woman had for a long time urged him to purchase her of her owner that she might be his wife, and professed great love for him. He believed her story, and did as directed, paying $500 in gold coin for her.

He said she was very good to him for some time, but has lately been receiving the attentions of another Chinaman, which caused quarrelling, and yesterday morning told him (Ti Lee) that she would have nothing more to do with him, and kicked him, and said she would put a knife in his side. He professes to have been fully impressed with the belief that she was in earnest in this threat, and, in the full belief that she was dead, claims to have been entirely justified in putting her beyond the power of putting them into execution. He described the implements with which he did the butchery, and said they were a knife and a hatchet, and were in the room where he lay. This case fully illustrates the condition of the Chinese women in our midst, and quite as fully the barbarous vengeance of the class of men who abide with them. It is hardly possible that the woman can live, but if she does we may get at particulars that will set this matter in even a more glaring light.

"Queen's Birthday was kept in the usual loyal style last month, and next month the citizens of the Dominion of Canada will celebrate the birth of their new and rising existence; our recovered invalids still feel that a public holiday would be too short to celebrate all the virtues of that celebrated Indian Medicine, the great Canadian Remedy, now on sale by the respectable druggists in your locality.

MARRIED.

Married in the Village of Springtown, on the morning of the 17th instant, by the Rev. P. Ramsayer, Patrick Gillies, Esq., Renfrew, to Miss Mary Ann, eldest daughter of James McCrea, Esq., Springtown.

After the marriage ceremony was over the friends and acquaintances invited to the wedding were entertained with a grand boat ride on the calm waters of the Madawaska, surrounded with its beautiful scenery, to the residence of Mr. McCrea, when after doing ample justice to the dainties prepared by Mrs. McCrea the merry party betook to dancing and other amusements which continued till next morning, when after wishing all sorts of prosperity to Mr. Gillies and bride, they departed satisfied they had never spent a pleasanter night
